

English Corner Presents Morality

Every day, our values influence our actions. For example, if we value love, we can overcome hate, build friendships, cooperate, and achieve unity. Morality is a word that describes the system of values that guides us. Today let's use English to learn from each other about morality.

1. Describe a friend in your life with high morals. How are those morals shown in action?
2. Where did you learn your morals from?
3. Discuss the following statement:

My grandmother often says that developing good morals resembles the work of a farmer. We must nurture the seeds of a good character every day in our minds and hearts.

4. What inspires us to have high morals?
5. What are some challenges we face in attempting to live a life with high morals?
6. Do we feel the practice of morality is increasing or declining in recent years? How does a lack of morality in society affect you and your community?
7. Explore the meaning of the words below, then make sentences with them:

Nurture	Foundation	Rules	Train
Character	System	Value	Practice

8. Now that we have reflected on morality, do we plan to do anything with our new insights? Who else can we extend the conversation to in order to learn more about morality?
