

Weekly Mooncast

July 3 - 9, 2023

- Waxing Gibbous & Full Moon in Capricorn: Take action on projects that will bring you to a new level in your industry
- Full Moon in Aquarius: Lean into innovative ways of doing business that will shock and compel your people
- Waning Gibbous in Pisces: Listen to your intuitive hits and prepare to take meaningful action
- Waning Gibbous & Last Quarter in Aries: Take any risks and push to complete whatever will help you close this cycle

Monday, July 3

Full Moon in Capricorn begins at 4:38 am PST

Business Integrity

- Take a pause and ask yourself if you have been living in full integrity between the different parts of your life, especially your business
- Look at the bigger picture and be brutally honest about how you might have gotten derailed from your most important goals
- Acknowledge where you might have made extra commitments shortsightedly without being realistic about your capacity to see them through and discard anything that isn't actually helping you succeed

- Full Moon: High energy and last push to complete tasks, outward efforts

This is a make-it-or-break-it moon, and we'll have the mental advantage to bring our creations over the edge to the next level into what truly matters to us. This Full Moon unfolds with Mercury in close conjunction with the Sun, trailing just ahead and leading the way into deep and profound realizations about our work, our purpose, and the empire you're building.

At the same time, Mars and Venus in Leo will be squaring Uranus in Taurus, where we'll want to take immediate and decisive action on our passions, but may be feeling financially restricted. Uranus isn't here to restrict you or give you extra responsibilities, it's simply here to tap you on the shoulder and show you a different door, a new path to achieving what you want in a new and innovative way.

We should avoid trying to 'push through' and do it our way during this Moon and instead remain curious about different paths to achieving the same thing, maybe you don't have to be the one pushing the bolder all the time.

Social Media & Clients:

- Focus content creation on productivity in general, improving systems and becoming more 'efficient'.
- Discover how your clients and audience might be struggling with their own businesses, the goal is to see who you are most equipped to help
- Step into authority by showing others what you have achieved thus far and how you can help them with creating tangible results. Show your knowledge and share your expertise!
- Offer support to clients in a way where you can team up and brainstorm practical solutions to their problems rather than emotional commiserating.

Moon Boosts:

Capricorn Pluto presents a crisis that we become conscious of and must purify from our business practices. We see the painful results of what hasn't worked thus far and can now alchemize that into a better working business.

Taurus Jupiter, North Node & Uranus

- Jupiter: This an important time to focus on how you're expanding your long-term financial goals and building a sales system that fully supports you and the healthiest lifestyle you're wanting to build.
- North Node shows us that the way we build wealth now will have a deeper feeling than usual like we're being called to a higher purpose within our work. Let it be simple and let all the abundance flow your way.
- Uranus asks us to innovate new ways of making money, with it in mind that the global economic landscape is constantly shifting and changing. Be adaptable and creative to ride the unpredictabilities of this long storm.

Tuesday, July 4

Void Moon from 9:45 - 10:29 pm PST [Capricorn to Aquarius]

- Emerging out of intense productivity and solitude towards socialization
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Earth to Air = Introducing flow and balancing heavy with light energies

Full Moon in Aquarius begins at 2:44 pm PST

Ahead of Your Time

- Brilliant ideas are coming through, express them with your audience
- Tap into the evolved vision of your business and create accountability for yourself if you haven't been living up to it your own ideals
- Find where societal values line up with your own ambition to know where your greatest contribution can be made
- Full Moon: Active energy for completing and wrapping up tasks

If you're high energy/in a work mood: This moon can help us identify the creative shackles we might feel bound in, especially as it relates to our creations. There is a new, expansive dream about the future we want coming into the forefront of our lives and it's up to us to believe in that vision completely. One of the best ways to do this is to be unapologetically innovative, even if it looks a little strange to others right now. There is a level of intelligent design possible with this moon and it's being channelled through us, giving us the psychic and professional skills to craft a masterful plan.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: If we experience frustration or exhaustion under this influence this is a good moon to sit back and simply ponder the broader perspective of our work. We don't necessarily need to take action right now but it might brighten our spirits to let ourselves daydream

Social Media:

- Share your message and market openly the content you created during the Capricorn Moon. Promotional materials get a boost now.
- Show up in your community through a live stream or public event
- Speak about what is most important to you and what social issues you want to help others feel empowered in
- Great time to offer discovery or clarity calls with more broad-range subjects and content that will help others innovate new approaches

Wednesday, July 5

Full Moon in Aquarius - All Day

Mercury Square Chiron

This aspect will be a mental challenge testing our ability to be resilient in the face of triggers that press on our most painful wounds. We might lash out with our words and be overly sensitive, but we might also find ourselves ready to be vulnerable and open with how we feel - ultimately setting boundaries that ensure our well-being.

Thursday, July 6

Void Moon from 6:41 - 10:32 am PST [Aquarius to Pisces]

- A suspended space between the logical and artistic minds
- Good time for daydreaming the bigger picture of your life
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Air to Water = slowing down and feeling

Waning Gibbous in Pisces begins at 10:33 am PST

- Energy decreases, pulling into ourselves and gaining wisdom
- Utilize spiritual tools and rituals to connect to your higher being
- Channel and transmute negative emotions into positive to gain inspiration and create divine wonders
- Deep rest, naps, relaxation, retreats, and meditation are all emphasized
- Waning Gibbous: Active energy being balanced and drawn inwards

If you're high energy/in a work mood: Waning Gibbous Moon in Pisces is here to help us reconnect with our intuition, instincts, and deep inner knowing. We know far more than what we acknowledge or give ourselves credit for. Our ability to access infinite information lies in our connection to our intuition, which will feel more active and engaged at this time. Waning Gibbous energy is still quite active, so this is a time to do something about your intuitive hits. To engage and lean into your intuition more, rather than your logical mind. We may feel more emotional than usual during this time as it is a big period of release, as we wrap up the end of the zodiacal cycle, and prepare to begin again. This period allows us to look at our lessons, and experiences with a deep level of presence and maturity. We seek closure, clarity and release, from anything that no longer feels like 'us'. This is a wonderful period to begin, or pick up an intuitive practice for yourself, and bring it into your everyday life, no matter how simple, or short it may be. Your dreams may be more vivid and alive than usual, as your intuition uses your subconscious to help you gently process and release all that you need to know.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: If even performing rituals feels like too much for you right now, let yourself do nothing at all. Pisces is the sign of complete release and sometimes the best way to connect with the divine is to simply relax in all senses of the word - even from the need to connect to spirit at all. It may seem ironic, but let go of all expectations and routines can be liberating.

Social Media & Clients:

- Create safe spaces to explore, express and expunge our deepest trauma we can detach ourselves from all that prevents our growth.
- These moons are times of emotional vulnerability and the messages we put out to make an imprint on those who integrate it into themselves.
- Our client work can benefit greatly from us showing kindness and understanding instead of judgment.
- Share your healing gifts but keep in mind when it's necessary to reel yourself back and preserve well-being

Moon Boost:

Cancer Sun & Mercury

- The Sun illuminates our desire to help others and bring value through intimacy and emotional connection either in our personal lives or with clients.
- Mercury helps us connect with and develop emotional intelligence so we can communicate (and hear) the needs, wants and feelings of our clients, loved ones and ourselves.

Scorpio South Node: It will feel more important than ever to step away from what we can't control and into navigating our own spaces and choosing what we allow into them. Also, lean into your intuition to determine what's true for you and trust your truth to guide you.

Pisces Saturn & Neptune

- Saturn turns our attention to our unhealthy attachments that keep us locked in a never-ending cycle of victimhood. Release and detach from everything that stands to harm rather than help you in the long term.
- Neptune is dreamy, creative, forgiving, compassionate, and boosts intuition and spiritual abilities.

Mercury Sextile Uranus

Some of the best ideas come through sudden, lightning-strike revelations while you're just going about the everyday activities of your business. If you've needed a creative boost to your content, consider focusing on what current events and future trends are coming up in your industry. Uranus rules large groups of people and can give your brand massive exposure if you can be clever and intelligent in how you connect with your audience. In general, paying attention to what your people are saying and what matters to them is a smart way to get inspiration for your content. It'll be relevant to their lives and it will train your mind to think of ways to always be one step ahead of your industry.

Waning Gibbous in Pisces - All Day

Saturday, July 8

Void Moon from 11:21 am - 12:18 pm PST (Pisces to Aries)

- Vulnerable, emotional space, great for self-care sessions
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Water to Fire = cleansing and releasing

Waning Gibbous in Aries begins at 12:19 pm PST

[Combined with Last Quarter Phase]

Sunday, July 9

Last Quarter in Aries begins at 6:47 pm PST

- What remaining action needs to be taken before wrapping things up and making room for the New Moon
- Explore and act on creative impulses and desires, they're giving us the energy to stimulate major breakthroughs and masterpieces
- Use flash sales on existing courses/offers if you're not currently in the middle of a pre-planned launch
- Push through procrastination and shake off the Pisces Moon 'sleepy' feeling, it's time for action
- Last Quarter: Active energy for completing tasks and assessing where you are in your current project plan

This is a potent way to wrap up the Last Quarter Phase with a bang. Aries is all about getting things done, and when it's in the Last Quarter we will have the energy, focus, attention, and drive to do the work that needs to be done to set us up well for the next cycle.

Last Quarter is a period of groundedness and realism, we aren't under or overestimating time, ourselves, others, our situation, our finances, or our decisions, we aren't under any illusion about what it will take, we just have to decide if we want to keep doing it. This groundedness will help us to highly target Aries' energy to generate some intense change, energy, and focus. What do you want? What have you learned? How will you channel your knowledge, passion, and inspiration to move those mountains?

This is a window of pure creative energy but it needs to be used in a way that will move you forward, you are not entering this period feeling like a newborn, you're seasoned now and you need to be responsible with your energy. You know you can't let this energy fritter away like it has in the past, there are 40 different things you could be doing, but if you're being honest there's maybe only 1 or 2 that you can do now, in this short window that will REALLY move you forward, the rest are just distractions from what you actually want and need. What is that thing? It doesn't have to be big, fancy, or flashy, in fact, it can be an 'easy win'.

Remember this is a time to wrap things up so that you can set yourself up for success with the new cycle. When you divide yourself in 10 different directions you are always fated to lose. It is better to choose one path, and make progress on it, even if it's not the most exciting, even if it's not the biggest thing you could be doing, even if you want to do all those things at once, this is about energy conservation and some progress ahead is better than none because you couldn't choose, or were more focused on guilt over what you weren't doing.

Often there are two realities of ourselves that we hold in our heads, the one that we look at as a failure, as inconsistent, as not smart enough, and the other is this vision of ourselves in perfection, of what we 'should' be doing, if perfect, and often we will lean into the inconsistent one because the 'perfect' one is too intimidating, but the truth is - neither of them is YOU. Remember Aries is all about the truth, even if it cuts, without it progress doesn't happen.

Social Media & Clients:

- Use this to generate excitement, make an announcement, have a flash sale, open a cart, kick off an event, close a cart,
- Get people to sign up for an event, take action, or rally behind a cause that's important to you.
- Talk about anything that you and your audience find irritating, frustrating or plain piss you off about your industry.
- Encourage building up your people as they face a breakthrough.

- Create a clear, concise Call to Action to make it easy for your people to say yes to your offer.
- Think short bursts, and only on what's most important to MOVE you and them FORWARD.

Moon Boost:

Aries Chiron focuses on our own identity wounds and how they've held us back from living our authenticity. How can we move through them and heal?

Leo Venus & Mars:

- Venus gives us flair and a luxuriousness to anything we create, especially as it relates to aesthetic aspects of our business (graphics, branding, websites, etc.)
- Mars gives us a fiery boost to of motivation and drive to be seen, put ourselves out there and promote our brilliance

Mercury Trine Neptune

Mercury rules our thinking and Neptune is the place of dreams and escape. We won't be feeling inclined to dive deeply into mental or detailed topics today, so this may not feel productive in the traditional sense, however, it can bring about a lot of intuitive insights, hits, and the opportunity to manifest dreams into reality through making them conscious and alive inside of you. We may want to play with intuitive tools today, talk with others about our dreams, write or channel our insights and visions out, or tap into the flow that moves us beyond our external motivations.

We will feel more sensitive and emotionally attuned during this transit, and we won't find focus easily here, but maybe it's just the right day for you to take a mental vacation and let yourself dream and explore what's possible without a rigid timeline, or structure.

Ongoing Transits

Neptune Retrograde in Pisces (June 30 - December 6, 2023)

27°41' - 24°53'

Each year, Neptune retrogrades for approximately 5 months.

Neptune rules both sleeping and waking dreams, imagination, fantasies, optimism, and idealism (in life and romance). Review your opinions, values, and belief systems, and listen to your gut. Work with the spiritual and mystical while keeping yourself grounded. Dreams, yoga, meditation, astrology, tarot, and deep inquiry can be very healing at this time. Contemplate your spirituality and belief systems. Focus on your creativity and allow what wants to come through to do so, unhindered. Let go of anything that feels heavy. Watch out for - unrealistic or fluffy thinking, seeing people, and circumstances as you want to see them rather than as they are. Overindulgence in numbing agents. Emotions may run high or over the top. To see what area of your life will be influenced by this retrograde, check the current transits in your chart and see what house Neptune is moving through for you.

Neptune in Pisces has been a central player in the virus of 2020, and on pandemics and viruses in general, every time it goes retrograde we are able to think clearer and we also notice the concerns of the media, government, and public fears around it (and variations) are reduced until it goes direct again.

Mercury in Cancer (June 26 - July 10, 2023)

During this transit Mercury, the planet of communication is amplified, we feel more talkative, sociable, and desire to network and make new connections. This is a great time to multi-task or take in information on multiple topics and areas of interest (so long as you don't intend to go too deep into a subject). This can be a great time for tackling smaller annoying tasks that don't take much brainpower. We can become easily distracted during this time, so it's important to not put too much pressure on ourselves to complete major tasks or goals.

Sun in Cancer (June 21 - July 22, 2023)

Cancer Focus: Family dynamics, responsibilities, women's roles/caretaking, emotional processing, unpaid labor, boundaries, overgiving, nurturing, mothering, victim-ness, self-care, home business, emotional support, codependency, trauma, parents, women's rights, home environment, support systems, emotional expression, complaints/crankiness. Unmet/Unconscious needs, worth defined through work.

The Sun rules our physical vitality and natural energy flow, and in this case, it highlights a specific area of our lives and businesses where we (and our community) will feel naturally drawn. So it only makes sense to use it for goal setting and theming our marketing out in one-month cycles.

The Sun first moves into the sign and then within a few days, we have the Moon join the Sun aligning our emotions with our physical vitality beginning the one-month lunar cycle.

Where the Moon sets the stage for task planning, and emotional energy (both mental and how we're feeling) on a daily level, the Sun sets the stage for the one-month container that we're working within. The Sun Is the Macro while the Moon rules the Micro (the daily tasks that will help you get there).

In this case with the Sun moving into Cancer, we may find that our work day becomes dominated by personal matters and other people's wants, needs, and struggles.

The best use of this period in our businesses is to clarify what we are looking for from others in regards to our efforts and to give it to ourselves. If you are doing too much and not getting support this is an important time to create boundaries for yourself and to fill your own cup first.

Under Cancer, it can be an excellent time to support our community and clients through well-rounded offers that meet their emotional and personal needs alongside the other work we're doing. Whatever you give to them now is likely to be greatly appreciated and can help grow your business considerably. It is best to use this period to give without strings attached or to overgive in your offers so that your clients feel they are getting a lot of value for their money. People tend to have high expectations and lean more toward complaining during this period so you can save yourself a lot of grief by either stepping back from direct sales and instead lean towards funnels, or evergreen offers or putting a buffer between you and your inbox through the support of a VA so that you can give yourself some much needed TLC.

During this transit, our focus will turn towards our family, home, and creating deeper connections. We may find our emotions heightened during this time as Cancer being a water sign is very attuned to our inner worlds. If we struggle with processing our emotions this can be an unwelcome experience, but we are being guided to find a healthy and comforting outlet to process our experiences, wounds, and emotions. If you find that you are quite logical, and struggle to bridge your emotional side with your mind try, talking it through or journaling it out on paper. We are being invited to open our sensitive natures during this transit and to allow ourselves to experience life in all of its fullness.

Saturn Retrograde in Pisces (June 17 - November 4, 2023)

07°12' - 00°30'

Saturn has turned retrograde in the sign of Pisces, signalling a time of review for all things hard, worthwhile, and Pisces. It is a full review of the way Saturn has been operating in our lives, looking particularly closely at the Piscean dream world, and the home of our deepest psychology, unconscious, dream world, and traumas.

This is an opportunity to explore what has felt hard and challenging for you and what you have been pushing back on inside yourself. We may find that at this time it is harder to commit and follow through on projects and goals, as we are meant to re-evaluate our commitments before making new ones or recommitting to our current path.

Use this period to evaluate your progress, your responsibilities, and whether you are taking on more than your share. What does your mental load look like? What fears have you been experiencing and can you get some support to explore them, or address them head-on so that they don't have such a hold over you? Your dreams are within grasp and this retrograde period is a rest stop for you in between. What can't you do anymore? What needs to change about your goals, your path, or your pressures? Saturn often operates through internalized pressure and expectations, that psychological father-type figure waving their finger and shaming us, however, if we can recognize that it is us waving the finger and that maybe our expectations are not necessarily outlining a path to our own happiness or even maybe the best way to get there, we can thank ourselves for holding down the fort, but maybe look to changing the guard, or re-evaluating our strategies and where we need to send our soldiers moving forward.

What are you making progress on? Where do you feel halted, unsupported, overworked, or that you're banging your head against a wall? This is a great time to make some changes and then look to commit to new projects, new methods, or recommit to current ones in November. Know that it's okay and even healthy to have re-evaluation periods. This can also be a time where you throw some stuff at the wall to see what sticks and what doesn't so that you can gather intel for your new strategy into 2024.

A note on world events:

Globally with the lockdowns in effect since 2020, we have seen repeatedly that when Saturn goes retrograde, lockdowns and governmental restrictions are temporarily rescinded. It is likely we will see a temporary reprisal of lockdowns and governmental restrictions from now until November 4th, with a sharp return in restrictions afterward, however, the previous retrogrades were in the sign of Aquarius (the people/the public), and Capricorn (the government, buildings, world infrastructure), whereas this is the first Saturn Retrograde to take place in Pisces since the events of 2020, so it is likely the restrictions and release of restrictions will look differently, in this case, it may be in policing what can be said online, freedom of speech (and thought), and an uptick in programs directed to guide public belief and perspectives, as well as potentially reproductive rights (Pisces rules the 12th house of birth/gestation), and potentially restrictions around water (Pisces), citing environmental concerns.

Mercury in Gemini (June 11 - 26, 2023)

During this transit Mercury, the planet of communication is amplified, we feel more talkative, sociable, and desire to network and make new connections. This is a great time to multi-task or take in information on multiple topics and areas of interest (so long as you don't intend to go too deep into a subject). This can be a great time for tackling smaller annoying tasks that don't take much brainpower. We can become easily distracted during this time, so it's important to not put too much pressure on ourselves to complete major tasks or goals.

Pluto Retrograde in Capricorn (June 11 - October 10, 2023)

29°59' - 27°53'

Pluto is retrograde for one last rendezvous in Capricorn, before leaving it for good and moving into Aquarius on January 21, 2024. Pluto will not transit Capricorn again in our lifetime, with its next transit through the sign of the goat occurring in the year 2254. So it's clear to see that this is the end of an era, and with it, we will be witnessing the destruction of the old, to prepare and make way for the new with Aquarius - which outside of this short jaunt back into Capricorn, will last for the next 20 years (2024 - 2044). Pluto forms and tears down empires, it rules dynasties, governments, and republics, and since its entrance into Capricorn in 2008 we have witnessed a concentration of power, collaborations between private corporate entities and government, the formation of new seats of power, increasing regulation and during its retrograde back into Sagittarius before fully entering Capricorn in 2008/2009 we saw the 2008 stock market and housing crash.

With Pluto's retrograde, we may see a temporary relief of governmental restrictions that have been in place since 2020, and a potential stagnation of inflation and marketing prices but this will return again once Pluto goes direct in October and we wrap up its journey in Capricorn into early 2024.

This is the time to pull out your swiss army knife and learn to use what you have well, assess your own needs, put on your own oxygen mask, and take advantage of this pause to re-evaluate what's needed for you at this time. This is a time to explore our fears, and beliefs and work with what is ending and changing in your life at this time. It may not be easy but it is the path forward and will help you to locate your new power center within you and expand your resources and skills in what you do have control over.

This is a good time to meet any financial, health, and foundational fears you have in your life or business, and notice what is no longer working for you. The more we attempt to hold on tightly to things that are clearly changing, the more we may find this period to be a struggle.

Look to new ways to bring in resources that can be more developed once Pluto goes direct in October. Through endings and transformation come new beginnings, and new perspectives.

I would expect the US to see some major restructuring, political upheaval or shifts, and changes to its health care, finances, and currencies during this time, as this retrograde is still activating the US Pluto return at 27 degrees Capricorn. We may see a new currency, new bids for power, and secret deals emerge as a result of this restructuring, as well as changes in its relationships with other countries as a result, to be seen more fully after October 10th.

Venus in Leo (June 5 - July 22, 2023)

This transit highlights love, money, how we view, value, and care for ourselves, the pride we take in our work, and our creative spark. This is a transit where we appear shiny in regard to the work we've been doing, how we stand out, and what we're known for and want to be known for. This isn't about snatching the spotlight (although that can happen under this transit) but more about authentic recognition and magnetism that comes from putting yourself out there and creating greatness around you. We will be more inclined to want to play, have fun, and take risks during this period, especially in regard to romance, and our creative outlets. We'll be bucking all the rules and really focusing on what makes us happy and fulfilled. Let this transit fill all of your cups in all the right ways :)

Mars in Leo (May 20 - July 10, 2023)

Work Hard, Play Hard. This transit is all about exploring a sense of fun, adventure, and enjoyment with the same passionate obsession that we do our work. It's about following your heart, and really expanding your experiences. Doing things on your bucket list, and rewarding yourself through creativity and play. This is an extremely creative and productive period where we will feel a heightened sense of personal energy and confidence in whatever we decide to pursue. This is not a time to slack off on work or let work slide, but to add play and adventure alongside your work, so that you have a place to catch all of the overflows of energy you're experiencing and to use it to refuel your work. It can be easy to overindulge during this period or to take on more than we can handle because we feel very optimistic, and it's not that you aren't capable but it is far better to harness and drive your energy more specifically during this time into tangible work so that you can reap the rewards of a very productive and powerful period.

Jupiter in Taurus (May 16 - September 4, 2023)

This transit marks an approximately one-year period where Jupiter will move through Taurus, providing us with opportunities to grow our wealth and skills, but it can also lead us to overspend, and we are likely also to see a magnification of the current inflation. Under the influence of Jupiter, everything can seem possible, and while this may endow us with more faith this year, it also needs to be backed up with good spending habits, resourcefulness, and focusing on what we currently have and can leverage, rather than trying to add more onto our plates.

Taurus is an excellent business sign, but it is through its stinginess, ingrained habits, and resistance to change that it is able to maintain what it has. This is not the year to spend extravagantly, especially on luxury items although we will feel really inclined to do so. Taurus loves beautiful things, and under Jupiter, we will feel more than ever that not only do we deserve these things but we should have them right away, after all, Taurus needs those dopamine hits, and retail therapy is one of the fastest ways to get those fixes. But we would be doing ourselves a disservice, we can in fact build stability this year so long as we can follow up our purchases with a plan and have a clear light of sight to the ROI it will generate for us whether that is more time, more money, more security or more support. We just need to make sure that we are being honest about where we're at currently and focus on leveraging what we already have first, if you can shop from your own kitchen first, then you have more left in your pocket. This doesn't mean cutting out the things you enjoy, but it does mean looking to potential other ways to meet those needs, or the underlying need beneath the wants and cravings so that you can nourish the root before throwing money at it that may ultimately not bring you what you want.

This can absolutely be a year to build wealth and fortitude for yourself and your business, but it is NOT through taking big risks, but instead first building from what you already have, and investing in yourself first, with things that will bring you a quicker ROI, under Taurus we need to meet the basic needs first before we can think about scaling. If you have a viable business already then improving the infrastructure can be beneficial, as can running things a bit leaner so that you have more cash flow to bank, or invest in other areas.

Things are going to cost more this year, and we may feel we have enough to cover it, but what about next year, or the year after that? Find ways to find joy, satisfaction, and pleasure now, while also thinking about the stability of your future.

Jupiter in Taurus will highlight the following areas, so if you have business ventures in these areas this is a good year to focus on expanding them. This can also help you to focus on WHERE and WHAT to spend your money on for the future.

Pluto Retrograde in Aquarius (May 1 - June 11, 2023)

0 degrees 21' - 0 degrees

The last time that Pluto retrograded at 0 degrees Aquarius was May 1, 1777 - August 20, 1778, which saw France fighting back against the British Empire, the formation of treaties between France and the US, and France becoming a supplier to the US of military supplies. This marked an important era in the birth of the United States and also saw some of the bloodiest battles in the American Revolutionary War.

Something is being birthed right now and as a collective, we're going through labor pains. In terms of governmental overreach, we may see some leniency at this time as Pluto is retrograde alongside Saturn, this lack of restriction will likely carry us until early October before things gear up again.

For the first couple of months of this retrograde, we will also see Jupiter squaring Pluto which will amplify the shifts we're seeing, this may trigger some amplification of spending without boundaries, especially on more survival-based aspects of our lives. This may also show up as an increase in legal action against the governments regarding lockdown measures, civil rights, and restrictions.

During this time we may feel a temporary relief from our fears as we get a little bit of a break, at least psychologically. But while this may seem like a respite, it actually is an opportunity for deeper introspection on where we're going as a collective and what is within your control moving forward. What is important to you in terms of maintaining your wealth and longer-term security? What are your digital assets? How are you using them, protecting them, securing them?

Uranus Direct (January 23 - August 28, 2023)

14°56' - 23°04' Taurus

Uranus will remain direct in Taurus from now until August 28th, 2023.

When Uranus moves from retrograde to direct, we are being gifted the opportunity to act on those big, bold ideas and innovations that we've been marinating in.

This is a time to regain our bearings. Uranus has been retrograde since August 24, 2022, and has been not so politely nudging us to pay attention to our finances, how we go about earning, spending, and saving our moolah, so that we can create a more stable financial future for ourselves, especially during a time on the planet where there is a great deal of change.

It is asking us to not get distracted by the surface changes, to the algorithms on social media, or the next new platform feature, but rather how do we create consistency, security, comfort, and long-termness within financial and governmental structures no longer offer us the sense of safety that they once did. Uranus brings with it innovation, a rebelliousness that isn't interested in doing things 'the old way'. It doesn't like externally or socially imposed structures, it is here to help you form your own, oddly enough in the comfort-seeking nature of Taurus.

Taurus loves its food, its home, its friends, and keeping things kosher, and when it's met with change-agent Uranus, this area of our life is bound to see the most dramatic upgrades (which may feel like mini earthquakes)

What areas of your business have shifted over the past 6 months - a year?

Have you had financial sources dry up, or change?

Have you been compelled to create a new income source for yourself?

How can you create consistency during a time when there is so much inconsistency in our lives and society?

Uranus will remain in Taurus until July 2025. The last time that Uranus was in Taurus was post WW2, when new systems were created to ensure the welfare and balance for all, things like social welfare and standard work weeks. Necessary and important to the financial stability of both the family, community, and country's welfare.

As Uranus embarks upon its remaining 3+-year journey through Taurus what we can be sure of is that by 2025 the way you have looked at, used, and generated money, financial security, government, law, and growth will not look the same.

Chiron Direct in Aries (December 23, 2022 - July 23, 2023)

Degrees: 11°56' - 19°57'

Chiron has been in Aries since 2019 and will continue to move through the remainder of Aries energy between now and 2027 with a few retrogrades between help us be reminded that healing our wounds comes in layers. We are never really 'over something' but we can find new facets of ourselves and our own medicine with each revisit.

Chiron reminds us of our tenacity, our ability to heal ourselves, and to share that medicine with others, to transform otherwise difficult experiences through alchemy. When Chiron is in Aries it is a time of action, to walk our talk and to enact real change in regard to our wounds. It is a time when we may impulsively react due to our wounds, so we will need to take a pause before jumping in fully but it can also be a very powerful period to bring the wounds to light. If there is something that you have experienced that you don't want someone else to go through this is a time to bring that cause to light.

With Aries we're not messing around, we need to mobilize our healing, and we need to create movements around it. It's a time to allow our anger and fury to become channelled into positive change in our world. To use our words and actions in an empowering way, to become the light. It is a period where we will no longer be silenced, and where we will allow our wounds to help us to become who we are meant to be.

North Node in Taurus (December 22, 2021 - July 12, 2023)
South Node in Scorpio (December 22, 2021 - July 12, 2023)

North Node in Taurus

The North Node transit shows us what we are moving towards, and the global trends that we should expect over the next 18-month cycle.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the North Node moved through Gemini and the South Node transited Sagittarius.

This showed a moving towards new careers, education, educational formats (homeschooling/online learning/distance learning), as well as working and staying within our more immediate environments with an emphasis on very short distance travel, this saw a massive decrease in commute times through lockdowns and business restructuring.

This presented the ability for many to telecommute, explore grocery delivery and overnight delivery, work from home, telemedicine, and traveling within our more immediate neighborhoods.

In terms of business, this showed up as an explosion of technologies like video conferencing through Zoom, and the transition of businesses that were primarily in person into the online space. We also saw a massive explosion in online learning, new careers, online training, and many stepping into the updating of their businesses into a more online space. The development of new skills, especially highly specific training saw massive growth.

Now with the North Node moving into Taurus, we will see a continuation of much of our lives, whether through work, friendships, and domestic lives growing from right from the comfort of our own homes. Whether it's the continuation of online education, reskilling ourselves, exploring homegrown food, home-based health, and creating rhythms and routines around our more immediate environment.

The return to commuting or long-distance travel or education will continue to remain slow, if not completely and forever changed.

We will look to create more of our luxuries from home, whether it be foods we enjoy, health care, gardens, learning and education, and growing our businesses.

The emphasis will be on creating quality life experiences, which may have many exploring new ways of living, relocating, or new ways of creating sustainability in their lives that they felt they didn't have time (or motivation) to before. We will also see an increase in new currencies especially as the North Node conjuncts Uranus on July 26, 2022.

These trends will continue into 2023, lasting approximately 18 months.

From a business perspective, this is a perfect time to either launch your business into the online space (and home space), and to also explore new training, and slowly build out more security for yourself. If you teach business in any regard, the next 18 months will see massive growth in your industry. This can also be a good time to explore alternative income streams, currencies and creating a side business.

The North Node shows the potential for increase/advancement and opportunities for the themes of the sign it is transiting through.

What to watch for during this transit:

Personal Assets/Personal Income/Cash in hand - Cash and tangible resources will become more important

Banks/Banking (trends or changes in interest rates, mortgage rates, loans)

Currency (changes to - shifts in currency, new currency, re-valuation of old currencies, gold, silver, gems, land, and other tangible assets)

A movement into trading, stocks, currencies, securities

Budgeting (more people will be watching their finances and likely stepping into budgeting if they haven't before)

Commerce and New Business -especially online, or from home

Focus on Skills that Earn Money/Earning Capacity

Government Finances/Currency/Shifts in Employment
Trends/Treasury/Country Reserves and Natural Resources (value)
Property/Mortgages/Purchasing of Land/Homes
Real Estate
New Hobbies that can be done from home
Increase in Taxes & Costs of Food/Resources
Issues of Health Care Systems /Access
Health Issues specifically targeting the Head/Base of Skull/Neck/Glands/Diabetes/Fertility/Illnesses in Children and Grandchildren
Home Based Entertainment (both digital and hands-on)
Food Security/Agriculture/Self-Sustainability
Health Food/Vitamins/Herbs/Supplements/New Diets/Home Health Care
Home Education and an increase in new educational methods (Reggio Emilia, Waldorf, STEAM/STEM, Montessori) for younger children and for older children, teens, young adults, we will see an increase in more young people creating their own education and future employment from home, or through alternative means.

South Node in Scorpio

The South Node shows us what we're coming away from as a collective on a global level, and rules 18-month trends.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the South Node transited Sagittarius.

This showed a moving away from long-distance travel, higher education, retreats, and trips geared to personal development, and for many even a change in their belief systems, traditions (family/religious), and long-term goals.

We saw a massive increase in the consumption of media (Gemini), learning new information and an attempt to determine truth from fiction, while also attempting to form our own opinions for ourselves.

The South Node's transit through Sagittarius saw a complete change in the airline and travel industry, a coming away from global travel, and more to towards local travel, with many of us stuck in our homes or limited to our local areas for staycations.

This also saw a massive increase in learning from home, and a step away from long-distance or higher education, and a shift into choosing your own education for yourself, through the use of online or distance materials.

Now that the South Node is moving into Scorpio, we will see a disillusionment with any forms of manipulation and gas-lighting whether through media, friendships, authority, or governmental figures.

We may also find ourselves questioning previous healing methods, and possibly even avoidance of navigating our own trauma when things become too much.

It will feel more important than ever to step away from what we can't control and into navigating our own spaces and choosing what we allow into them (any negativity may send us into a downward spiral).

We must be cautious of seeking quick fixes at this time, and avoidance doing the deeper work on our health, mindset, psychology, beliefs, and fears.

This is not necessarily the best time for the healing and metaphysical industries, as they will see more people turning away from doing deeper work, even though it is obviously needed, on the other hand, we may see a rise in more manipulative and unethical techniques either through media, competitors in our industry, government authorities, and previously trusted sources.

It will be more imperative than ever to lean into your own intuition to determine what's true for you.

The South Node either obscures, ends, or creates obstacles to the themes of the sign it is transiting through.

Things to monitor during this transit:

Changes to Relationships/Divorce/Morality Rates

Debt/Credit

Death/Endings

Taboo Subjects

Joint Finances

Lawsuits

The Withholding/Gaslighting of Medical Advancements/Truth/Scientific Discovery

The hiding of facts/figures/numbers/data/results
