Holidays

Festival of the Foretelling - Every ten years a three day holiday is added to the end of the year to adjust the calendar by the fractional days which have accumulated. Being born during this holiday is considered very lucky.

At'ena

(from previous holiday) On the first day, all meditate, seeking divine inspiration and comfort. On the second day a large feast is held. At the height of the feast, the local seer is lead out and tells of future events in the upcoming ten years. The third day the followers and priestesses seek out companions and celebrate life.

About nine months after this celebration, many children are born who are considered a gift from At'ena. The female children are brought up within the Convent and most become priestesses. The male children are given to loving, but barren, parents to be brought up as their own.

Anubis

The Festival of Death - is held on the first day of Pim each year. Dedicated to all those who have passed on in the previous year, this is a very beautiful and enrapturing ceremony. Thousands of candles are lit, choirs sing sonorous songs about the afterlife, and a rich repast of rare and delicious foods is served.

During the day, competitions and games are held to prove the physical and mental strength and worthiness of the worshippers. Groups and individual events are held, eliminating all but one who is declared Champion of the Festival of Death. The culmination of the evening's celebration, is when the winner is sent to meet Anubis, in person.

Isis

Held on the fourth day of Kild, The Festival of Life is a celebration of all that is living. Food, singing, dancing, and storytelling occur throughout the Sanctuary. Patients are brought down to the worship areas, entertainers are retained, and every caterer in town is employed. Games and competitions are held for groups and individuals, and prizes awarded.

The Day of Rebirth is celebrated on the sixteenth day of Irkusk. This was the day Isis returned to Jaern and cured it of the horrible plague in 10048.

Neptune

At the beginning of Akvofojo, in the month of Gorn, the priests wait for the first rainfall. When the Ekvilibri declares the start of the first rainfall, the Akvotempo or Time of Rain is declared. All the priests and worshippers gather outside the gates of the Natatorium and get very wet. A wild romp through the various pools and baths follows. This continues in the main pool, where the Ekvilibri offers prayers of thanksgiving to Neptune. A meal follows, where the priests invite outsiders to join them in giving obeisance to Neptune.

Orus

Whenever they feel like it, they have a holiday... lol

Osiris

Gifts of Nature - Each year, near the 20th day of Led, the priests of Osiris observe a Jaern Week. They speak in public about the wonders of nature. They explain why it is important, and why people need to depend on nature, and what they can do to preserve it. They teach those who are willing what they can do to preserve the wild, giving respect to Osiris in the process. It is considered a good omen to host a priest during this time, and families vie for the honor.

Ra

The priests of the Solarium celebrate the days of the nearest and farthest approach of Onra. The nearest approach is called The Sun's Guard (appx Gorn 15) and the farthest recession is called The Sun's Return. (Appx Led 10) These celebrations involve many stylized dances and much food and wine.

Scrogg

"Everyday's a holiday" -To the followers of Scrogg, each day is a holy day. Since the first incarnation of Scrogg, there has been over 400 incarnations of the god. The day each was incarnated is a holy day for the followers whom most sympathize with that incarnations and his/her particular practices. Each day the number of the proper incarnations is posted, along with appropriate hymns and worship practices.

Tarus

The Refounding, Napen 16, is the day when Tarus first showed himself to Justin Gheler, beginning the resurgence of Tarusian worship to Jaern. On this day, adults feast while children prepare and display signs of their knowledge. After the feast, the children's exhibits are judged by the elder priests, and the best are chosen. These children are rewarded, and immediately invited to apply for entry into the Archive.

Tor

Day of the Awakening is the anniversary celebrated by the faction of True Justice of when T'or regained his place of power, and blessed the true believers. A mass celebration is held at the place of Rebirth, which is located at the Rougtero Stockade.

Day of the Fallen is the day that all the T'orites take to remember all of the fallen comrades that have died in the line of duty. It is a solemn day for the T'orites, but it reminds them of the price that Justice sometimes demands.

Almar

Nothing yet

Zepherin

The Day of Creation is a celebrated holiday by followers. On this day, the temple usually has a week of sporting contests to test their physical strength and agility.

Vormaxia

In the same sense as worship, there are no recognized holidays, for they distract from the research process. Fantastic discoveries and the like are usually followed by a brief celebration, but that is usually the extent of a holiday.
