

Call for Book Chapters

Proposed Title of the Edited Book:

Living Realities: Contemporary Ethnographic Insights from Northeast India

Description:

This edited volume will bring together contemporary ethnographic insights from Northeast India, a culturally rich and historically underrepresented region. Framed under the 'Anthropology' theme, the book explores dynamic identities, gendered experiences, digital transformations, resistance, and environmental engagements through localized and global perspectives. It aims to capture the pulse of cultural shifts through a decolonial lens, emphasizing methodological innovation, community narratives, and scholarly rigor. The volume will provide an essential interdisciplinary bridge between regional anthropology and global debates, making it indispensable for scholars, students, and policy experts.

Tentative Sub-themes:

1. Introduction: Framing the Anthropology of Now in Northeast India (Taken)
2. Negotiating Ethnic Identity in Borderland Communities
3. Gendered Lives: Narratives of Change and Continuity
4. Digital Transitions: Social Media, Youth, and Memory (Taken)
5. Food, Land, and Belonging: Indigenous Agricultural Epistemologies
6. Migration and Displacement: Urban Margins and Mobile Lives (Taken)
7. Ritual, Religion, and the Sacred in Contemporary Practice
8. Resistance, Activism, and the Politics of Voice
9. Climate Consciousness: Narratives from the Periphery (Taken)
10. Education, Language, and Cultural Survival (Taken)
11. Theoretical Reflections: Towards a Contemporary Anthropology of the Region
12. Conclusion: Future Directions for Ethnography in Northeast India (Taken)

Send your abstract and details to: surjit.research@gmail.com

Dr. Surjit Singha

Asst. Professor, Department of Commerce (UG), Kristu Jayanti College, Autonomous, Bengaluru.

www.surjitsingha.com

Details:

<https://www.surjitsingha.com/call/routledge/1>

Preference will be given if you have collaborative authors from foreign country