Mr Perry, it would be best if you read this.

I came across your YouTube channel and I liked your recent video about mental blockages that prevent you from achieving your dream physique.

Overall, your whole channel is based on guiding people in the face of mistakes - your dedication to helping others will quickly skyrocket your subscribers on Instagram&YouTube.

I thought I'd be of help to you and make you an e-mail template for you, it would drive more quality traffic to your course. (You could test it out in a zero-risk way)

Are you interested in seeing what I had in mind?

Best,

Paul
