

Construction Technology

About:

This is an instructional and hands-on program that prepares an individual for employment or continued education in the occupation of carpentry. During the course it will introduce them to other sub contractors associated in the field of carpentry. This course teaches the fundamentals of safety, tool use, and basic skills and knowledge in the field of carpentry.

Objectives:

Worksite baic safety

hand /power tools identification, operations and safety

Introduction to reading and interpreting blueprints

Framing procedures

Basic construction/ installation of roofing and shingles

Insulation differences and proper installation

Learn how to hang interior/exterior doors and windows.

In the course of the school year to construct a house, shed and/ or

Other misc. Projects people may ask us to build

Course Offerings & Instructors: Mr. Rushton

You are required to pass a basic safety chapter in our construction book. Tool identification and proper use. After that this class is very hands-on work.

This course will give you a chance to see if you have any desires to pursue a career in carpentry. See some different trades that might interest you as well.

Useful Links:

Advisory Committee Member

Carson Hanson

Jeff Haider