

OUR CHANGING CLIMATE IN A POST-HELENE WORLD

Where: The Collider, 1 Haywood Street, Suite 401*

When: Wednesday, December 4. Doors open at 6:30 pm. Program: 7 - 9:00 pm. Dr. Hausfather will speak at 7 PM, Q & A and panel of climate science experts to follow

Admission is free

Dr. Zeke Hausfather is a world-class, oft-quoted, climate scientist. He recently reported that 2024 will be the first year above the 1.5°C climate threshold. Dr. Hausfather is visiting Asheville and will explain current climate trends and forecasts for the future. Following his presentation a panel of WNC based experts will discuss what each of us can do to respond to climate change.

Introduction by Deke Arndt, Director, National Centers for Environmental Information, NOAA

Panelists \(bios\):

Andrew Jones, Executive Director and Co-Founder of Climate Interactive

Kathleen Lawlor, Associate Professor of Economics, UNCA

Dr. David Easterling, Chief, Climate Assessments Section, NOAA/NCEI

Sponsors:

*The Collider is located on the fourth floor of the Wells Fargo building at 1 Haywood St. Asheville, NC 28801 (by Pritchard Park) Entry: The revolving doors at the front of the building are no longer in service. Please use the ADA accessible door to the right of the building (facing the S & W building). Take the elevators to the 4th floor. Parking: City parking information can be found here. Rankin Parking Deck at 68 Rankin St. is convenient and street parking may be available.