

The REC Fieldwork Protocol Interns (2) will work with the REC faculty and staff to develop guidelines that promote safety and minimize risks associated with the execution of research and educational activities in a field setting or take place outside of the traditional classroom or lab setting.

Job Responsibilities:

- Research existing fieldwork protocol guidelines and gather top college and university examples
- Write REC guidelines that are inclusive and accessible for all researchers and students
- Work with a committee of students, staff and faculty to edit and finalize guidelines.
- Publish results

1-2 hours per week, $16 per hour

Qualifications / Skills:

- Strong written communication skills
- Experience with project management and independent research
- Experience with group field work preferred