

Dimension Survival Log

By:Camden

Prologue:lab

Hi. Let me introduce myself. My name is Dr. Dimensions, due to my love for other dimensions. I love studying dimensions so much, I made a portal to other dimensions. So I turned it on and voila it worked. I could see people on a cob, houses on a cob, trees on a cob, even bats on a cob. I will tell more when I uncover more tomorrow by going into that dimension.

Week 1: Cob Dimension

The cob people are fascinating, and they told me that even their universe is on a cob. Also, when they burn someone, they turn into popcorn, and everyone takes out their buckets and feasts on the popcorn. Another interesting fact: they taste more delicious than earth's popcorn. But to allow me to stay for a week in the cob dimension, I must do their ancient ritual: running through a corn maze in 3 minutes. So I tried my best and failed miserably. So I got out of there while I was still alive!

Week 2: Fast Track Dimension

Today I am going to the Fast Track Dimension where everyone must do something active. Even moving your mouth counts! All they eat/drink are protein shakes, which are not bad. Oh! I almost forgot! My assistant Max is coming. But just between you and me, he's probably going to die. But, if he miraculously makes it and doesn't die, I get to kill him since he signed a contract. Anyway, there I was in the FastTrack dimension and all of a sudden I was moving super fast! Literally, I can't even see my hand unless I move it super slowly. Then, Max fell into the wormhole and fell into a cat pit. "Umm that gave me a idea for the next dimension. Thanks Max!" "No problem.By the way, Tell C.J. he is dead to me for signing me up for this," said

Max. Spoiler alert: he's now dead.
(Obviously!) Well, I'm leaving before I die.
Bye Fast Track Dimension!

Week 3: Cat Dimension

So I told C.J. that Max is dead, and that Max is dead to him as well. But C.J. will love this one, because he LOVES cats. No joke! Check out this pic of him at the dimension.

This is us seeing the great cats of China, after we got arrested for not being cats. It got awkward, but we did get to see a cat fight. but we have to go now so we don't get executed, and what is it with all of these dimension and almost dieing, P.S. Max doesn't count. So by Cat Dimension.

Week 4: Lego Dimension (not the game)

C.J. is still frightened from the Cat Dimension. So once I step into the world, I was stuck so I had to pull myself into the portal and I promised myself to never go there again.

Week 5: Prolog: Dimension Control Dimension

Today I am ↓↓・躑 5 ∙ ∴ ← ↘ ≡ † MAX!!!!!!!!!!

What are you doing here? “Dr. Dimensions all of the dimensions are falling apart”. But how did you, “Escape from the cat pit never mind all of that, the thing we need to focus on is how to save the dimesions”. O.K. how do we do that? “We go to the Dimension Control Dimension”. But I don’t know the coordinates. “I do”, O.K. then punch in those numbers and I will get C.J.

Week6:Dimension Control Dimension

O.K. Max I got C.J. and whaaaaaaaat. We have to fight them? “Yes”, but they have balsters. “I know that why I stole three blaster to fight them with. O, O.K. then, let's go kick some whatever they are butt, “they are called Artificial alien dimensional fighter guards or A.A.D.F.G. for short.

8 hours later.

We are in, and man did that take forever.

“So now to destroy all other dimension except ours” yay, wait what. “Did you guys think that the dimension are in danger, yay right, but they will be soon. But why, “because C.J. signed me up and almost made me die in another dimension.
