2. Once in the rotunda of the Convention Center, you will turn left and go down a long hallway passing "Governor's Halls" as you go.
3. At the end of the hallway, you will need to go back upstairs to the street level (there is also an elevator there if you need it).
4. Once on that level (street level) you will turn left and go back in the little "cove" behind/beside the bathrooms.
5. There is a hallway that goes to the left.
6. Yell 2 is the first room on your right in that hallway.
