- You can demand as many changes to the commission as you like during the sketching process, but once the final sketch has been approved there won't be made any new major altercations.

How to commission?

This is just a helper for those who are not used to commissioning!

- You must create a description of what you want (looks, poses, what commission are you looking for? etc.) Sketches are also welcome, you do not have to be an artist!
- Twitter private messages is where I will be taking the majority of my commissions, but you are welcome to contact me via email too!
- Make sure you check my price listings! these are available both via linktree and pinned on my twitter page.
- If I do not reply at first, you may have ended up in my spam inbox, do not worry though, I do check my spam inboxes frequently!
