

0007 digital tech prompt questions

How has digital technology and the internet changed the world? What is good and what is bad?

1. Describe the world before digital technology. How did you make phone calls, contact someone that lived over seas, do research for school, write papers, find your way on a vacation and socialize?
2. Describe the changes that digital technology and the internet have created.
3. Which of the following media are transmitted over the internet using code or computer programs:
 - Written information
 - Sound and music
 - Pictures
 - Video
4. Name some ways that the internet allows us to get more information and get information quickly.
5. Do computers make people smarter? If so, how?
6. Is all information on the computer truthful and accurate?
7. How are computers used to do harm?
8. How are computers used to do good?

*Use your notes to write a paper about the question - How has digital technology and the internet changed the world? What is good and what is bad?

Your paper should be 300 to 600 words long and will be 3 to 5 paragraphs. Write your paper as a google doc. And name it last-first-0007