

Summer Technology Institute

Instructional Technology Programs

August 4-6, 2020

Workshop 4

No Stress, Assess: Leveraging Choice & Creativity in Secondary Distance Assessments

Felecity Treptow

Integration Specialist
D.C. Everest Area Schools
Weston, Wisconsin
ftreptow@dce.k12.wi.us

@FelecityTreptow

Workshop Description

We have all been challenged with the task of creating effective teaching during distance learning, and assessment has been part of that. In this session we will look at strategies for creating learning opportunities full of choice, creativity and effective ways to assess!

Presenter Biography

Felecity is an Integration Specialist with the D.C. Everest School District in Weston, Wisconsin. She holds Bachelor's in Elementary Education and Learning Disabilities (UW-Stevens Point) and a Master's Degree in Science Education (Walden University). In her current role, she works with educators to create engaging, innovative experiences for learners. Prior to being an Integration Specialist, she was a 4th grade Gifted and Talented teachers for 15 years. She loves to spend time with her family in the great outdoors! In 2017, she was recognized as an Apple Distinguished Educator.