JC: Although Revolution didn't win the ICW world title on that occasion, it showed he had now reached the top tier of the company as he head lined pay per views and challenged for the World title. He was also in the middle of the company's biggest feud involving the Prez of the company, Easy E....Next we switch to the WWO. Revolution was a huge star in the company and here we see him defend his WWO world title to a man you may have heard of before....Wishmaster! We have footage from the WWO weekly show Meltdown which shows you the storyline leading to the match we will show between Revolution and Wishmaster form the WWO PPV Zero Tolerance. On commentary is Nick Schivone and Jerry Harley.

Footage is shown from 'WWO Wednesday Meltdown- Apr 18th-

"Diesel Power hits" and the fans pop as Paul Lagraddi comes out to the ring.

Nick Schivone - Paul Lagraddi is just one week away from facing his father Vince Lagraddi at Zero Tolerance.

Jerry Harley - If you ask me he has made a big mistake indeed.

Paul Lagraddi - You may all be wondering what I am doing out here on our secondary show. I knew that the Brotherhood and my pop Vince Lagraddi wouldn't be here tonight so I can come out here and say my piece without getting disturbed or interrupted by any of them. Since I came here and announced to the world my 50% share of the company, people have been asking me what am I going to do with it. Well I could have already stepped in and made an impact on the cards that we have been putting out. However I am not that kind of guy and so instead I will just have to wait until I beat my father Vince Lagraddi at Zero Tolerance and then I will assume full control of the WWO. The first thing I am going to do is to make sure that The Revolution loses the World Title to The Wishmaster because let's just face it The Revolution isn't a company man like The Wishmaster. I am going to make sure that Jeff Jarrett isn't screwed out of the US Title by Mr Perfect and they compete in a fair match. There is one thing I really want to address and that's the EIWF. It seems that my father Vince Lagraddi has a real dislike for the EIWF and wants to beat them at everything. I on the other hand don't feel the same way about them. I see the EIWF as our friends not our rivals at all. We have Chris Chaos and The Revolution who compete for both companies and I hope that in the future we can work together and maintain a good relationship which will be among my priorities when I have sole ownership of this company. In my opinion the fans and the workers should come first and not the fat cats like Vince Lagraddi who has never stepped foot inside a ring.....

The Perfect Theme hits" and the fans boo loudly as Mr Perfect comes out to the ring.

NS - What is he doing here, he had the night off ?.

JH - I think he is going to shut Paul Lagraddi up.

Mr Perfect - I know I had the night off but I was out back talking to a few guys and I heard you coming out here and spewing this crap out. I just couldn't let it go on anymore. Why the hell are you talking about forging a good relationship with the EIWF and do you really believe that you can stop the Brotherhood. You have no idea of what we are capable of or what we can achieve. We have the power in this company and we will go to unbelievable limits to keep it that way. Listening to you harp on about how you are going to bring The Brotherhood down and how me and The Revolution will not walk out of Zero Tolerance with any gold around our waists in just laughable. Do you really believe you can take any of our power away from us ?.

Paul - Not only do I believe I guarantee that after Zero Tolerance the Brotherhood will be no more.

NS - Oh no the masked man is out again, he is behind Lagraddi. Paul turns round □.OH !!!!!!! he is speared out of his boots. Mr Perfect runs down and slides in the ring. Mr P and the masked man stomp on Paul Lagraddi, someone stop this please. The masked man pulls up Paul Lagraddi ..JACKHAMMER !!!!!. Here comes security.

JH - Paul Lagraddi has been snapped in half by that Jackhammer

Footage Ends.....
