13:36:30 From Jessie Huntsville AL to Host and Panelists:

one of the panelists is onscreen

13:38:18 From Andrea Norouzi Frederick Friends Meeting to Everyone:

I can't change the setting which says I'm seeing a shared screen. I have a split screen seeing George Lakey on 1/2 the screen. I'm in full screen mode.

13:56:42 From Andrea Norouzi Frederick Friends Meeting to Everyone:

Just found that function and it's much better now. Thanks for your suggestion.

14:05:30 From Nathan Shroyer we us they/him Nanticoke lands to Host and Panelists:

Breathtaking historical correction

14:09:49 From Barbara Foushee to Everyone:

I have to leave in a few minutes thank you for all that you have done

14:43:20 From Mary Roberts Bailey to Host and Panelists:

I saw this film many years ago. So good to see it again with new eyes. Thanks so much for presenting it again.

14:43:33 From Andy Grannell to Host and Panelists:

One great soul with the courage to love in the face of all wrongs. Beautiful and honest in its portrait. Thank-you

14:43:43 From Jane A Smith to Host and Panelists:

Do you think the Poor People's Campaign and March will be a sea change in a way similar to the 1963 March on Washington?

14:44:51 From marlena to Host and Panelists:

Do you agree that the issue for human rights is no longer about Black people but now about gay/lesbian rights?

14:48:45 From Mandy Carter she/her National Black Justice Coalition to Everyone:

Thank you for this powerful program . Mandy Carter . she/her . National Black Justice Coalition's Bayard Rustin Commemoration Project. www.nbjc.org

14:49:27 From Anne Wright &/or Bob Lohaus to Everyone:

It's wonderful to see this again. Saw so much more this time. Grateful to all who brought us together today.

14:53:44 From Stephan Ball to Host and Panelists:

Hiw do you think Bayard would respond to the expansionist leadership of Putin and his ruthlessness with peoples' lives (bombings...) today?

14:57:11 From Jeanne Diller to Everyone:

Yes, the working-class has to be united--black, white, brown and all sexual preferences to bring down the empire.

14:58:24 From Cooper Vaughn (The BlackQuakerProject) to Everyone:

Please feel free to begin entering questions in the Q & A box for our audience Q & A !

14:59:57 From Nathan Shroyer we us they/him Nanticoke lands to Host and Panelists:

Are we ready (Quakers, peace and antiwar organizing) to rekindle the March for Justice?

15:00:54 From Norman & Peter to Everyone:

Thank each of you for your wonderful presentation and for helping educate all of us.

With appreciation. Peter & Norman

15:02:25 From Stephan Ball to Host and Panelists:

How do you think Bayard would respond to the current situation with the war in Ukraine and Putin?

15:04:51 From Annie Patterson to Host and Panelists:

Right on George (from Peter). You called it

15:06:02 From Maurice G. Eldridge to Host and Panelists:

George, good to see this film; helped me get to know him after having met him on campus all those years ago. Maurice

15:06:52 From White Crane to Host and Panelists:

Thank you so much for this wonderful program!

15:08:34 From julie beer to Host and Panelists:

Great insight about the people in the North not being as active as black people in the South. Thank you for that thought.

15:09:37 From White Crane to Everyone:

Greetings from Virginia Schelbert, Evanston Friends Meeting, Evanston, IL on the land of the Potawatamy

15:09:51 From Nathan Shroyer we us they/him Nanticoke lands to Host and Panelists:

Nathan Shroyer we us they/him Nanticoke lands (You): How do we understand harms and reconciliation within this Civil Rights Peace and Justice movement in the context of struggles and conditions we've face today? Has our humanistic struggle of 1940's to 1960's moved from justice seeking to reifying state sanctioned violence and racism? Or, is a condition for retrospective justice demanding that the state or systems concede their harms? Thanks 😊

15:10:55 From SJ Murdock to Everyone:

GREAT QUESTION; The one about the Quaker community favoring AJ's position OVER B Rustin's.

15:11:09 From Stephen McNeil to Everyone:

The published forward up in 2012 by AFSC has disappeared from their website. FOR's apology (2015 on the occasion of their centennial) was fulsome and done in a more spiritual manner.

15:11:37 From Nathan Shroyer we us they/him Nanticoke lands to Everyone:

15:11:57 From Stephan Ball to Host and Panelists:

Greetings from Sheffield in England, UK. What an amazing man in so many ways. I thank God for his life and witness

15:12:25 From Jane A Smith to Everyone:

Thank you for this excellent, enlightening, thoughtful, and moving presentation. Thank you to the host and panelists for forming a bigger picture of who Bayard Rustin was and what he accomplished. Inspiring!

15:12:27 From Laura Herman - she/her on dena'ina lands to Everyone:

Annie P - great question - though I think Bayard's family is probably the first place to start about if they would like an apology. A true reckoning on how we've failed as Quakers is always the right thing to do, so we continue to learn the lessons and not repeat our mistakes

15:12:59 From Annie Patterson to Host and Panelists:

We've taken good steps towards LGBTQ people in recent years but I don't think we've truly faced our own legacy of homophobia and transphobia for 350 years - just as European descent Friends have not fully faced our deep enmeshment with structural racism, Much of this reckoning still needs to be done (this Peter Blood not Annie actually,,,)

15:13:44 From SJ Murdock to Everyone:

Stephen thank you for that direct AFSC reference. 'Looking forward to researching it.

15:15:44 From Laura Herman - she/her on dena'ina lands to Everyone:

Annie P - a good place to start would be making sure AJ Muste's legacy accurately depicts his relationship with Bayard.
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/A._J._Muste IN the Wikipedia article there's no mention of him throwing out Bayard

15:15:57 From Annie Patterson to Everyone:

To Laura: straight & European descent Quakers still have a very long way to go to come to grips with centuries of homophobia & structural racism...

15:16:23 From Laura Herman - she/her on dena'ina lands to Everyone:

100% I agree. I felt Walter's response lacking.

15:17:20 From Jack Janssen to Everyone:

Where are people posting the questions? I am not seeing them in the Q&A.

15:17:41 From nancy wilson to Everyone:

How can we find copies of Mr. Rustin's music and his articles, such as "From Protest to Politics"?

15:17:57 From Rachel Garcia to Host and Panelists:

Thank you so much for both of your answers to our questions.

15:18:23 From nancy wilson to Everyone:

Jack, look in the bottom strip for the Q&A icon and click on it.

15:18:52 From Annie Patterson to Everyone:

I will hunt for Rustin's singing on YouTube and see if I can put together a playlist on our channel RiseUpAndSing on YouTube

15:20:01 From Walter Naegle to Everyone:

Bayard's singing is available from me. You can reach me at: rustin@rcn.com

15:20:49 From Anne Wright &/or Bob Lohaus to Everyone:

Have you upgraded from tapes to CDs?

15:21:05 From Walter Naegle to Everyone:

Yes, we have CDs.

15:21:35 From Anne Wright &/or Bob Lohaus to Everyone:

We'll talk

15:22:48 From Alissa Vandembark to Host and Panelists:

Thank you!

15:23:46 From Eleanor Andrew to Host and Panelists:

Many thanks from Toronto, Canada

15:23:47 From Ted Siedlecki to Host and Panelists:

Very worthwhile program. Thank you.

15:23:51 From Folami Prescott-Adams to Everyone:

Thank you all for this time and thoughtful conversation.

15:23:54 From Steve McKnight to Everyone:

Thanks to Walter and George for their insightful and loving comments!

15:24:33 From Mira Tanna (she), Orlando to Everyone:

Thank you! Loved the movie and the dialogue.

15:24:59 From Jack Janssen to Everyone:

Thank you! Yay! Thank you!

15:25:09 From nancy wilson to Host and Panelists:

Thank you so very much for this wonderful program! The film is spectacular, and the opportunity to hear from Mr. Naegle and Mr. Lakey deepened the whole experience!

15:25:09 From Rachel Garcia to Host and Panelists:

Thank you for this wise, loving, and inspiring discussion!

15:25:20 From Pamela Williams to Everyone:

Thank you for the courageous viewpoints presented.

15:25:21 From Elizabeth Ohle to Everyone:

Very meaningful and moving. Thank you.
