Your Proposal

Proposal title

--

Describe your idea for a collaboration. It can be a concept you have already developed or a completely new concept. You will be working with an Ipswich-based artist (to be identified later). (max 3000 char, approx. 500 words)

--

Which of the programming principles does your proposal best respond to?

(Please select one or more principles)

- Courageous in Creativity – We aim to support artists at all career and development stages, whose creative and professional aspirations are solidly grounded on the creation of original work of the highest quality and relevance possible.
- Determined in Diversity – We aim to ensure that diverse stories, voices and expressions are duly represented, and that they are embraced and welcomed into a platform of creativity, conversation and cross-pollination.
- Enablers of Change – We aim to drive positive social change towards the elimination of racism, discrimination and exclusion by fostering self-determination and cultural safety with the agency to freely express.

How does your project respond to the programming principle(s) you selected above

(max 1800 char, approx. 300 words)

How does your project align with Melt Festival's aims of "fostering inclusivity, provoking thought and celebrating LGBTQIA+ communities and artists"? (max 1800 char, approx. 300 words)

The collaboration will conclude with two public outcomes during Melt Festival - 22 October to 9 November, 2025:

1) A free performance, dress rehearsal or community engagement (workshop, masterclass or artist talk).

2) A ticketed performance at Studio 188, Ipswich.

Tick the box below to confirm your availability to deliver the public outcomes during Melt Festival 25. (Specific dates will be determined during the creative development)

Your online presence

Please list links to websites, social media and other online channels for you and any other artists involved. If you need to add more links, you can upload a list in the attachments section below.
