Dear [Mr. /Mrs. /Ms.] [Manager's name]

I am framing this application letter for the position of QA tester at [mention the name of the company or organization]. I consider myself to be the best candidate for this position as I believe that I have all the desired skills, talent, academic qualifications, and experience needed to work in this role.

I am a responsible, diligent, hardworking, and efficient individual who has always been able to top the exams. I became a university topper in the year [mention it], in [mention the name of the department] and after that, I went ahead and pursued [mention the name of the degree] from [mention the name of the institution], and solidified my chances of achieving greater success in life.

Previously, I worked at [mention the name of the company or organization] for [mention the number of years]. Functioning there as the junior QA tester, I was able to absorb all the best ways to grow in this line. My duties there included detecting, logging, and reporting program glitches and bugs, helping troubleshoot errors, tracking defects, etc. With time, I was able to gain praise for my efforts and hard work, thus gaining enough recognition.

Stating my skills, I have all in me that you would want to see in an efficient QA tester. From analytical and critical thinking skills to the ability to work in an agile environment, and great collaboration, and social skills. On top of these, I have a willingness to learn more and achieve greater success and higher posts in my life.

I would request you to kindly consider me for this role as I can assure you that if you hire me then I will never ever let you down or disappoint you. My sole aim will be to think about the advancement of the organization.

Thank you,

Sincerely,

Signature
