To Do List

- Get complete list of people to interview
- Read Uhtred's statement and integrate into data section
- Get some background on key servers (BruhMoment, ComedyHeaven, OKBR, FunnyOmega, WhenThe, OKBR 3, DogeLore)
- Formulate complete timeline
- Publish as book :trol:
- Win Pulitzer Prize
- Unban josemon?

Unanswered Questions

- "there was one time when we like allowed in on trial and just made the whole server riot for like 2 days lmoa" ←----- More details on this please!
- Details on the kirbizia split?

People to interview

- Seannerz

Basic Timeline

- Kirbizia created r/OKBR and several other subreddits to store memes she found funny, and others began to join in. This was around late 2017.
- The mods mainly consisted of people she knew off r/bonehurtingjuice (seannerz, netwiderogue, pizza)
- The OKBR1 was created in around may of 2018. It was sort of an anarchy server, with a series of regular users who would have normal conversations to a backdrop of 'degenerate meme spam' as Uhtred put it.
- There were lots of prolific users on the server at this time, one of which being a Brazilian Integralist (unironic fascist) called Skeleton, who used to rant about exterminating the unclean.
- Kirbizia was the owner or 'Queen Buddy', and the roles were 'Ok Retard', 'Ok Buddy', 'King Retard' and 'King Buddy', those last 2 being mod and admin.
- She used to be relatively chill, but started troll-banning people and clearing music queues.
- She went inactive for a while at one point
- All of these mods at the time were old friends off bhj and Kirbizia's girlfriend (garfieldkart/ava)
- The bhj mods didn't really care at the time, so the server was ran by her and Ava.
- The first user to get admin outside of Kirbizia's friends was a guy called Vati, who modded for a while but was in a car crash and quit the server.
- Alstolfo Lover and Veemo were around at this time also.
- The new moderation staff told Kirbizia to get rid of the BHJ mods because they were all relatively inactive on server and Kirbizia agreed.
- Pizza added them all back acting like a head admin, but they were quickly demoted and Pizza never spoke on server again
- Kirbizia was close with alstolfo lover and ava.
- Modding was very unstructured at this time, mods could not ping everyone in mod channels so mod votes went unnoticed
- Venomi began to integrate a lot of stuff from other meme servers, the dumbass role, modvotes, mod apps and the wiab chat, which were stolen from the deepfriedmemes discord (all staples of the modern whenthe experience, thanks to Venomi)
- This also included the inclusion of the Shapiro Squad, Doge Squad and Garfield Gang roles, which would all become their modern equivalents
- Garfield Gang was shortlived and died very quickly
- Roles were originally given based on messages sent, but this sucked, so it was changed to actual quality and time spent on server, despite there still being a remaining issue on what makes.
- Around this time, while the server was at 500 members, Cmonster made an offshoot server, which would become BruhMoment
- There were a lot of jokes in it about raiding and nuking OKBR and Alstolfo Lover's friend joined and told Kirbizia about it all.
- Kirbizia's reaction was to ban every single person from cmonsters server off of OKBR, including around half the mod team and active users

- Deg became a moderator around this point also!
- Venomi tried to stop Kirbizia from committing server suicide by telling her to unban all the users
- People stayed on BruhMoment and continued to talk there. Alstolfo Lover and her friend left the server.
- Alting on OKBR revealed Veemo talking shit frequently, who was a trans mtf who vented frequently and was really into vore.
- This was actually set off by some light jokes about vore from Venomi and lead to Veemo being bullied by them and Belphegor, Cmonster and Famicon.
- When the group got unbanned, Veemo had been demoted and remoted several times.
- Venomi was banned by Veemo and became mod again, and began modding both OKBR1 and BM.
- Eventually Kirbizia was bullied off the server and subreddit and Lunar became the discord owner and Grant became the subreddit owner.
- Kirbizia would go on to apologize to Venomi and CMonster for some of the stuff that happened (in a now long forgotten tweet)
- Lunar, who was a relatively new user, unbanned all of the BM people as owner, except Yazawa Nico, who remained banned for unknown reasons
- He was made admin early during his stay on server and its suspected that he was given owner in an attempt to kill the server by Kirbizia.
- He was revealed to be a super horny teenager later on, beginning to hit on all the girls (and some guys) in the server, including LTC and Venomi.
- Kirbizia would use this to accuse Lunar of sexually harassing LTC and she used 3 reddit threads to do this. This failed, Lunar continued and Kirbizia gave up
- When he took a break from being a moderator, he gave his alt a role above all the others with full admin, and fucked about with the server.
- Eventually, Lunar decided that democracy had gotten too slow and him and a user called Tobias made the admin and mod roles useless.
- A large majority of people decided to quit the server around this time, and Lunar and Tobias became the sole admins of OKBR1
- Lunar locked the server when he went to sleep and after a while, Grant took over and immediately banned him. Tobias remained head admin.
- Tobias would later succumb to his retarded urges, deleting the mod chat history and pinging everyone with a very bad 'you was at the club fnaf' meme.

- After this point, Ohtred, the 'Other Uhtred', (which would become Whiskers) became hacked and was replaced by a scrapper bot. This was catastrophic, as it was second only to the owner of the server.
- After the server was destroyed, the appeal server became a refuge for several members.
- Penez and Veemo attempted to make unofficial OKBR servers, but a new one with a link to the subreddit was created and they were kicked out.

- A bot allowed them to keep people banned from OKBR1 on OKBR2, and a backup bot was implemented.
- The bot was scrapped, because it could be used to erase every message on server, which would be catastrophic.
- The Grant Era was pretty quiet, with Grant's main interactions being an attempt to bring the discord and the subreddit closer.
- This would eventually lead to the downfall of OKBR2 and the birth of FunnyOmega, a short lived interlude in the continuing story.

Assorted Events not in the timeline or without a time period

SPACEMACE

A much more serious mod who talked a lot about politics in serious chat. They were an argumentative liberal type. In mod chat, he talked a lot about elitism a "non-existent problem" (shoe) that shoe opposed them over. This led to a circlejerk about shoe in admin chat which then eventually led to a demod which was exceptionally dodgy. Shoe wasn't given the 'ex-mod' role and the demod was put in announcements.

(shoe interview)

LUNAR

Lunar was the second owner of OKBR and was considered one of the worst. He was caught being weird towards female users and making reddit posts talking about getting a girl.

LUNAR'S DEMOTION

Lunar was sick of democracy in the server and banned a bunch of mods and the rest of the mods left in protest. He opened mod apps for around a day and recruited a bunch of new people. He eventually conceded when Grant got involved and told him to step down and most of the mods rejoined and were unbanned and given back staff positions. Lunar became more inactive on server after this.

ORACLE

Oracle sucked mod dick and fucked a girl on her period? (chatlog, may need clarification)

SHOE

Shoe was a mod at one point on the server and was demoted illegitimately because he wasn't agreeing with Dun and Spacemace. (OPINION)

DUN

Dun used to disagree frequently with Shoe and used to complain a lot about the server's issue

THE DEATH OF OKBR1

OKBR1 was taken out by Uhtred's bot after a key was left in the code and a scrapper found it and used it to purge the server

THE STATE OF MOD CHAT

And in addition, (and I actually saw this when I became a mod) there used to be a mod serious channel, that was just mods venting and talking about Suicide, which got deleted i remember everyone was angry at the mods because they kept calling the server shit and they were always acting so shitty to the members even though they would hide in mod chat.

AURASPHERE

Aurasphere was a server with somewhat quality users but a venting problem which turned into excessive depression circlejerk also apparently modhating (involved names spacemace and subbg?). it sparked aurasphere 2 and when that was gone i think liea made her own server exactly like it

RISING RETARDS

Rising retards was a role which mostly egirls got. The concept of Rising Retards was to promote extremely quality Buddies/WS, bypassing RE. It was essentially the epitome of mod favouritism.

WHATEVER WAS GOING ON WITH METS

Mets was dumbassed, banned, given pr, then kr alll within a week

THE SPLIT

The plan was set a really really long time ago between squid harmonic and grant. The original plan was set because there was a growing divide between the subreddit and server, exemplified by the fact that most sub mods were banned from the server. The original plan was for harmonic to take the reigns of

HARMONICS DEMOTION

Ok I'm just gonna tell the tale of harmonics demotion cause I was in mod chat when it happened and that shit was stressful So harmonic had been having some anger management issues and the biggest user that harmonic got pissed at was zslayer. Users never saw it but he used to go off about zslayer in mod chat. So one day he gets Uber pissed at zslayer and essentially tells him to fuck off in petition discussions, and that causes zslayer to get pissed about harmonic and leave. So all of the mods including me started talking to harmonic about like bro wtf that shit was wack. So then grant comes in and fucking instant demotes him and that made harmonic leak the split plan which even the mod team didn't know about, so it hit me like a bag of fucking bricks. So that became an issue cause everyone got questions, and mods could not answer them cause we didn't even know the answer ourselves. I remember when harmonic was handing out warns left and right because of the nazi mod jokes. Not even the mods were able to escape from Spacemace and Dun hiding in mod chat because they also went into Admin chat and shit talked the mods

Random leads/bits of stuff that I don't know where to put

DANNY CHEEZITS

Notable figure this was just in the chatlog.

SOMETHING ABOUT RANDOM FRIEND SERVER

(i was in my friends private server and they were talking in general chat and she was venting about her mod problems here and i told her not to vent or talk about her issues there too much because it would flood the channel with venting and shit) no clue what this is referring to

NO IDEA SOMETHING ABOUT SUBMODS

Nah this was around the time the sub mods came in. what happened was the mod vote limit got changed to 5 and there was the new sub mods so he just lied to the sub mods to have them vote to ban people

SHOE SAYING SOMETHING

when grant made that huge change that caused all the mods to leave, looking back on it no one should have even been mad. Its why my demotion is shady as fuck because it was an announcements post saying like "uncooperative in arguments" which was basically what Dun and Spacemace had been saying because they always had shit ideas and I constantly contested them
