ABSTRACT (CALIBRI Size 14, Bold)

The abstract should be typed in Calibri size 12 between 150 – 250 words. The abstract should be informative and completely self-explanatory. It provides a clear statement of the problems/points/topics of discussion, the theory, approach/research method, and point out the (expected) major findings/results. The abstract should be typed in one space with 1.5 cm left and right indent and written in the past tense. Standard nomenclature should be used and abbreviations should be avoided. The keyword list provides the opportunity to add keywords, used by the indexing and abstracting services, in addition to those already present in the title. Judicious use of keywords may increase the ease with which interested parties can locate your article.

Keywords: 3 - 8 keywords (conceptual words as topics and subtopics under discussion)

1. Introduction (Calibri 14 bold)

(Calibri 12)The concerns in the article are important to the field of language, literature or language teaching. The main text format consists of a flat left-right columns on A4 paper. The margin text from the left, right, top, and bottom 2.5 cm. The manuscript is written in Microsoft Word, single space, minimum 9 pages and maximum 12 pages. The paragraph is indented first line 0.75cm, and do not leave a space between paragraphs. Organization and citation of the bibliography are made in APA (American Psychological Association) 6th edition. The terms in foreign languages are written in italics. Authors are suggested to present their articles in the section structure: Introduction - Literature Review - Research Method - Result and Discussion - Conclusion - and References.

Introduction should provide meaningful purpose(s) to the manuscript. It should provide a clear background, a clear statement of the problem, and the new value of research which it is innovation. It should be understandable to colleagues from a broad range of scientific disciplines.

2. Literature Review (Calibri 14 bold)

(calibri 12)It provides the relevant literature on the subject and the difference(s) of the manuscript from other papers so that it is an innovative one or presenting novelty. It must be appropriate and adequate.

3. Research Method (Calibri 14 bold)

(calibri 12)It provides the proposed approach or solution, and describes the steps of the research, and the method used to support the analysis. The techniques used are appropriate for the collection and analysis of the data. The research method should be set systematically. It explains research chronologically, including research design, research procedure (in the form of algorithms, Pseudocode or ot her), how to test the data and data acquisition. The description of the course of research should be supported by references so that the explanation can be accepted scientifically.

4. Result and Discussion (Calibri 14 bold)

(Calibri 12)The research results and the comprehensive discussion are deeply and clearly presented. Results can be presented in figures, graphs, tables and others that make the reader understand easily. The discussion must be clearly and deeply conducted. The discussion can be made in several sub-chapters.
