BÉIS AND MOROCCANOIL ANNOUNCE NEW TRAVEL COLLABORATION

BÉIS and Moroccanoil have announced a new travel-inspired collaboration, combining luxury beauty and travel essentials in one collection.

The limited-edition collection features BÉIS luggage and travel accessories in signature blue, orange, and white colorways, along with a new travel shower caddy designed for travelers on the go. Each shower caddy comes stocked with Moroccanoil mini products, making it easy for travelers to bring their favorite haircare essentials wherever their journeys take them.

Launching Saturday, June 13, the collection will be available for five weeks before concluding on July 18.

“This collaboration captures the tropical, beachy feeling so many travelers seek during the summer months,” said AP Stewart, Lead Collaboration Specialist. “We wanted to create products that not only make travel easier but also help people carry those vacation memories with them long after the trip ends.”

The collaboration reflects both brands’ commitment to combining functionality and luxury, offering travelers a seamless way to pack, organize, and care for their beauty essentials while on the move.
