Monday, May 1

Void Moon from 4:52 pm - 11:08 pm PST [Virgo to Libra]

- Emerging out of intense productivity and solitude towards socialization
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Earth to Air = Introducing flow and balancing heavy with light energies

Waxing Gibbous in Libra begins at 11:09 pm PST

Polish with Wax

- Network and bring people into your world by engaging new groups
- Create a dialogue with others to learn more about who you have in your audience and how to connect with them
- Go over work you've already completed and edit anything that needs to be polished (content, writing, graphics, layouts, etc.)
- Let others help you when you need it, relationships are your strength
- Waxing Gibbous: Active & busy, implementing new skills and pushing for completion of tasks and projects

If you're high energy/in a work mood: The best way to take advantage of Air Moons, especially with Waxing Gibbous intensity is to use it to go over work you've already created. This is not a time to start things unless it involves networking, but it is an excellent time to get a fresh set of eyes on something that you've already been working on, but needs to be expanded, or clarified. Air moons thrive on asking deeper, more philosophical and strategic questions about our work. It's the time to go over ideas, concepts, teachings, and offers after the core of the structure is there and to find a deeper way to teach, share, and spread their ideas.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: This is also a great time to address smaller stuff in your business that has been nagging at you - you won't have the focus, so best to not beat yourself up over not accomplishing more, notice that the networking, and philosophizing and doing small stuff in your business is just as important as the bigger stuff. Acceptance of the energy we are in reduces our resistance and agitation to it. This moon is also great for engaging with your audience in more conversation, replying to post comments and getting them talking to each other. It's a great way to 'get things done in your business without having to sit down and sweat through more mentally demanding tasks.

Social Media & Clients:

- Use this period to focus on your brand visuals, strategy, and storytelling process. This moon favours any focus on creating polished, well-lit and high-quality lifestyle-oriented content, feeds and profiles.

- If you are selling your product or service, focus on the after, what is their happily ever after? How can you tell/demonstrate this story through your marketing?
- How does your business help your audience live their dream life? How does it help them become or be seen as the person they want to be?
- How does your imagery tell a story? Where does your ideal client fall in that story and how can you elevate them to the Hero, with you and your business in the supportive role?
- This is also a great time for online collaborations, virtual summits, IG Giveaways, etc.

Moon Boost:

Gemini Venus is about nourishing existing relationships in our lives that are of high value as well as fostering new connections and collaborations

Aquarius Pluto is helping us transform aspects of how we create community and approach innovative technologies, both moving us quickly into the future of business.

Sun Conjunct Mercury

This aspect is excellent for planning in business and communicating our plans with others in ways where everyone can benefit. Our solar energy (physical energy) is aligned with our mental energy (mercury) uniting our thinking with our physical energy and excitement. The energy is most strongly felt when we are engaged in negotiations and the rapid exchange of ideas. The teamwork vibe is potent now and if we have wanted to include new team members in our business, this is a great time to assess the value potential candidates bring to the table.

This is also a great time to take action on your thoughts and share them publically, sales, marketing, and projects get a great push forward with this transit.

Pluto Retrograde in Aquarius (May 1 - June 11, 2023)

0 degrees 21' - 0 degrees

The last time that Pluto retrograded at 0 degrees Aquarius was May 1, 1777 - August 20, 1778, which saw France fighting back against the British Empire, the formation of treaties between France and the US, and France becoming a supplier to the US of military supplies. This marked an important era in the birth of the United States and also saw some of the bloodiest battles in the American Revolutionary War.

Something is being birthed right now and as a collective, we're going through labor pains. In terms of governmental overreach, we may see some leniency at this time as Pluto is retrograde alongside Saturn, this lack of restriction will likely carry us until early October before things gear up again.

For the first couple of months of this retrograde, we will also see Jupiter squaring Pluto which will amplify the shifts we're seeing, this may trigger some amplification of spending without boundaries, especially on more survival-based aspects of our lives. This may also show up as an increase in legal action against the governments regarding lockdown measures, civil rights, and restrictions.

During this time we may feel a temporary relief from our fears as we get a little bit of a break, at least psychologically. But while this may seem like a respite, it actually is an opportunity for deeper introspection on where we're going as a collective and what is within your control moving forward. What is important to you in terms of maintaining your wealth and longer-term security? What are your digital assets? How are you using them, protecting them, securing them?

Thursday, May 4

Void Moon from 2:16 am - 7:32 am PST [Libra to Scorpio]

- Conversations deepen, becoming more introverted and inwardly focused
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Air to Water = slowing down and feeling

Waxing Gibbous in Scorpio begins at 7:33 am PST

[Combined with Full Moon Phase]

Venus Square Neptune

This can be a very enjoyable transit, especially for creative or artistic pursuits, inspiration, and play. We will be more tapped into our intuition at this time and may get more insights and great ideas than usual. What's important with Venus is that we don't just ruminate on the ideas but we also explore and embody them. Let them out on a piece of canvas, by moving your body, or otherwise living it in some way. We may be a bit disconnected when it comes to our finances and spending so be cautious of where you are putting your money, we may have some unrealistic ideas in our spending, or what the spending will yield for us. This is also the case in romantic or personal relationships at this time, we may fall in love with our ideal rather than what's real. We tend to shoot for the unattainable at this time because Neptune clouds us and struggle with determining what's possible or not. Try to avoid life-changing decisions as you are quite impressionable right now.

Venus Sextile Jupiter

Under this transit things just flow, especially relationships, financial endeavours, and opportunities. You will feel more generous and open, and this will expand into your relationships and friendships. Whatever is undertaken during this transit is likely to have a very positive outcome. You may find that focus or commitment to larger tasks and projects is more difficult at this time because you will feel playful and expansive and won't want to waste your energy on seriousness. If you have big plans for today when it comes to your business, it's best to try and plan the heavier-duty work to happen before or after this transit because you won't be able to 'make yourself' do the work. Leave the bigger tasks for another day, the work will still be there when you return as you make the most of today. Go out and enjoy yourself, there is plenty of work to go around later, playing a little 'hookie' over the next couple of days isn't going to make that much of a difference.

Full Moon (Penumbral) Eclipse in Scorpio 14° begins at 8:14 am PST

- Celebrate how far you've come on your journey. Full Moons are a time for us to reflect on the actions we've taken since the New Moon
- See your limits in a new light and adapt in a new way so that you can grow your business without breaking the bank
- Find that balance between your big creative dreams and the tools you have right now to help make it a reality
- Full Moon: High energy and last push to complete tasks, outward efforts

This Lunar Eclipse is all about birthing your best creative ideas into the world with an eye on what is tangible and possible given your finances. The grand balance is being struck between having lofty artistic goals and whether you have an intelligent plan and container to hold that successful work.

We are being reminded during this eclipse to focus on the glass being half full with Venus sextile Jupiter and Mars trine to the Moon and Neptune, making a semi-kite pattern, we are likely to see the possibilities, even though they may not be fully formed.

This is an opportunity to look at what resources you do currently have and how you can leverage them, sometimes our resources are our ability to transform difficult situations and lead to gold, others are old skills we have mastered through various stages of our lives, that we can bring back to the table with a new purpose.

The chaos of this Eclipse will most likely come with waves of fear and doubt over our belief that we're strong enough to weather any storms that try to take us off our path. That we'll be supported on our journey by those on our team and that we have the power of the universe backing our decisions. This moon challenges us to crystallize our ideas in a tangible way so that we can feel more conviction about our power and ability to make things happen regardless of our inner obstacles. There is a world of raw, creative power at your fingertips so what will you do with it?

During this time we are being reminded that even though there is a storm brewing outside, within us we hold the key if we give ourselves some breathing room to find it.

Eclipses work in 18.5 -year cycles, this eclipse is a repeat of eclipses that occurred in May 1985 and May 2004, Think back to that period in your life, and the events you were moving through, did you experience major life changes around financial or career security, changes to your home environment, health, routines, job skills, or other significant life shifts? You may find similar themes repeating during this eclipse for you. And this may be the period that you find closure to those areas of your life or a sense of completion in some way. *

Scorpio rules psychological development, fears, taboos, manipulation, sexuality, healing, trauma work, losses, debt, protection, and mystical work.

Eclipses can channel the North Node (taking in and guiding direction) or South Node (releasing, showing us where we've been). This Eclipse is a South Node eclipse and so it is asking us to release ourselves from the past. We may be asked to give up something, surrender something, or accept something that we don't like during this eclipse. We may be asked to lean into our fears, and accept what we can't control. The more we try and protect ourselves, the more we find energy being lost to being guarded and the less we have for ourselves and our own healing.

Globally this could show up as gaslighting, the appearance of crisis, the need to control others or invade their privacy/secrets, or utilizing psychological or spiritual beliefs or tactics to gain control or confuse.

There is an opportunity here to explore your own healing, and what protections and guards you've had in place that have prevented you from moving to the next stage. It is through surrender that we often find what we're looking for. This is not a giving up, but rather a facing of realities that may feel uncomfortable.

In regards to business we need to be cautious of giving up money, or psychological inquiry in exchange for security, we cannot trade our personal responsibility off to someone or something else, otherwise, we will find we're paying for it later at a much higher cost. This is not the time to go into debt, but rather lean into self-sufficiency, working with what we have, or developing a new skill.

Social Media:

- Reveal your secrets, talk about the taboos, talk about something painful that ultimately led to transformation, be transparent, have the difficult conversations. Stay away from the superficial. They'll thank you for it.
- Water moons are excellent for client calls that dive deep into emotions. Be prepared to hold space for others as they explore new caverns of their inner world and come face to face with fears.
- Our clients and audiences need to hear from us that fears cannot kill us if we face them head-on.
- Because of how mysterious and private Scorpio Moons can be though, don't be surprised if you do not hear much from others about your impact on them. Trust that you're making an impact anyways.

Moon Boost:

Cancer Mars: A sensitivity to stepping out of our comfort zone and taking action before we're ready. Internal struggles but also increased motivation for taking care of and meeting our own needs. Strong focus on family and health.

Scorpio South Node: It will feel more important than ever to step away from what we can't control and into navigating our own spaces and choosing what we allow into them. Also, lean into your own intuition to determine what's true for you and trust in your truth to guide you.

Pisces Neptune is dreamy, creative, forgiving, compassionate, and boosts intuition and spiritual abilities.

Saturday, May 6

Void Moon 7:37 am - 1:03 pm PST [Scorpio to Sagittarius]

- Moving through a transformation and feelings of being in limbo
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Water to Fire = cleansing and releasing

Full Moon in Sagittarius begins at 1:04 pm PST

- Shine a big spotlight on the WHY in your business and reach for bigger, broader and more expansive goals
- See the bigger picture of what horizon you're moving towards and the major milestones you will need to plan your way there
- Use inspiration to connect with others and fuel passionate content
- Focus on learning more advanced levels in a skill or topic you know is necessary to develop expertise in your industry
- Full Moon: High energy and last push to complete tasks, outward efforts

If you're high energy/in a work mood: Be bold in putting yourself out there right now because how much you show up in your business with clarity will make a big impact. Productivity, implementation and action meets big visions, far-reaching goals and inspiration. If you've resurfaced after a period of deep solitude and personal revelations, you might feel the need to share something empowering with the world. You can strategically use this to promote an offering or program, as a powerful vehicle to both help your audience and express yourself. This Sagittarius energy is perfect for not only taking action but to also spur others into action as well, so let yourself be bold about it!

If you're low energy/in a self care mood: Go out of your way to plan a personal journey of nourishment (aka vacation) in whatever form is possible for you. It could be 10 minutes in the shower, an afternoon playing a fun game or a trip to the park. Regardless of what you do, the idea here is for you to identify what is most going to make you feel good right now and go get that need filled.

Moon Boosts:

- Chiron in Aries: focuses on our own identity wounds and how they've held us back from living our authenticity. How can we move through them and heal?

Social Media & Clients:

- Illustrate the benefits of your offer through the perspective of freedom, knowledge, and personal growth.
- If your content helps them to become certified, to learn a new method, is hands-on, this is a great time to share it/teach it/show it.
- Schedule any clients now that need a pick me up, pep talk, inspiration
Dreaming big is the best focus for content with this moon
- Sagittarius is also interested in personal and professional freedom, so emphasizing how your offerings will help your clients achieve that can be especially lucrative
- The strong influence here is on developing self-awareness, creating abundant mindsets and pushing beyond one's previous limits

Full Moon in Sagittarius - All Day

Venus in Cancer (May 7 - June 5, 2023)

This is a highly emotional and sensitive transit, where we experience the merging of our needs and wants. Our security, our home, the place where we feel safe, and a sense of connection and belonging will feel very amplified at this time. Our primitive needs around money, survival, belonging, and approval can all be highlighted here. It is important to notice where our needs compromise our safety if we feel that we need to accept something that we don't feel comfortable with in order to be accepted, approved, taken care of, or loved. This is a good period to question the differences between survival and love because the two can get mixed up. Where we intimately connect the two when they are in fact separate and need to be so, for our own well-being and health. The positive aspect of this transit is that it is a very good time to be healthy with family and friends and to let yourself be loved on and supported. To really reconnect with your circle and create pleasant memories.

Ongoing Transits

Mercury Retrograde in Taurus Retrograde (April 21 - May 14, 2023)

♊ Rx

15°37' - 5°50'

This is the second Mercury Rx through Taurus, the last one occurred between May 10 - June 3, 2022. When Mercury moves back into Taurus during this cycle, we'll get a chance to see the financial structure of our business from the perspective of how many roles exist within it. Every person is a valuable resource that helps the day-to-day run smoothly and you may be revising how you go about creating more security for yourself and your team. Are there routines, systems, or tools that would help make everyone's lives easier? This is a good time to explore what's needed, what's worth investing in, and how you can help bring ease to the infrastructure of your business. Expect there to be some delays and kinks throughout this process and honor the patience needed to navigate it all.

Each Mercury Rx gives us an opportunity to go back to the drawing board and make improvements, or re-direct our thinking. During Taurus, we are being asked to focus on our finances, our routines, habits, behaviors, skills, and resources, and how to make things more stable for ourselves.

As with all Mercury Retrogrades, we are being offered a revisit/redo period, and Mercury is here to show us what needs to be re-done, re-visioned, and re-understood, and because it knows we're stubborn and like to put things off, it's going to make sure we pay attention by creating mass interruptions and disruptions to the things we need to fix or heal.

With any Mercury Retrograde through an earth sign, we will want to be aware that our focus will be on the tangible areas of our lives, especially with Taurus as it rules business, finances, creature comforts, food, our home environment, and our habits. This is the time to re-examine what's not working, and what we need to bring true happiness to our lives.

How to use this retrograde:

Mercury Rx is best used to evolve the way you approach your work and how you nurture your community under difficult conditions. How connected we are in our circles and whether we (and our people) feel real belonging in our business.

This Mercury Rx will specifically target social platforms like Amazon & Udemy.

Take note of the house(s) of your chart where this will be taking place to get a hint of what area(s) of life will be highlighted by this retrograde.

To Launch or Not To Launch?

Launching and Marketing through Mercury Rx is a touchy subject, with often varying results.

I've had very successful (although frustrating, and tech glitch-filled) launches through Mercury Rx as well as ones that will go down in history as the.worst.launch.ever.

What determines this is a few things, while the sign that Mercury Rx is going through plays a big part (you can't pay me enough to launch through Mercury Rx in Cancer), what often defines the success of a marketing or launch venture through Mercury Rx (outside of having a good product, clear copy, aligned pricing, etc) is what houses it's moving through.

In your chart, you have private and public houses, and there are also houses that clearly are business-oriented and others that are more personal.

When to 'sit the bench'?

If Mercury Rx is going through your 8th- 12th houses, you may want to sideline your launch until after Mercury goes direct. The reason for this is that whatever does go sideways, often becomes a public spectacle, and can in some cases ruin our reputation, or make us look clumsy, disorganized, or otherwise cross some communication signals with our community. Or we just may not be operating at our best,( I'm looking at you House 8 and House 12), and we may not be in a good mental space to be in the spotlight and running all the things. This also goes for Mercury Rx through your 4th house, we will just want to be couch potatoes and our home life will be calling on a lot of attention, so it's best to not make it compete.

Some other things to consider are the sign that Mercury is Rx'ing through and the flavors and experiences that will bring.

Sun in Taurus (April 20 - May 21, 2023)

Taurus Focus: Slow building, micro rewards, routines, habits, food, luxury, gifts, templates, bonuses, sales, high-end products/services, chocolate, sugar, done-for-you, business, income, skills, creature comforts, easy, step-by-step, dopamine, immediate gratification, laziness, working from home, homebody.

The Sun rules our physical vitality and natural energy flow, and in this case, it highlights a specific area of our lives and businesses where we (and our community) will feel naturally drawn. So it only makes sense to use it for goal setting and theming our marketing out in one-month cycles.

The Sun first moves into the sign and then within a few days, we have the Moon join the Sun aligning our emotions with our physical vitality beginning the one-month lunar cycle.

Where the Moon sets the stage for task planning, and emotional energy (both mental and how we're feeling) on a daily level, the Sun sets the stage for the one-month container that we're working within. The Sun Is the Macro while the Moon rules the Micro (the daily tasks that will help you get there).

In this case with the Sun moving into Taurus, we can expect that our energy will slow significantly from what we experienced with the Sun in Aries. This is a time to begin going at your own pace and to take things one step at a time. We won't feel super motivated for new adventures, or big changes, making this a non-ideal time to implement new rules, routines, diets, or any other big changes, but that doesn't mean it can't be used well. Under Taurus energy, we're stubborn and set in our ways, so this can actually be a great time to stick with what you already have in motion. If you do have to do new things or have a big project on the horizon the best way to address it is to break it into much smaller chunks and build in micro rewards throughout so that you stay on track.

It may not be flashy or new, but it will stabilize you and keep you steady as you build out the rest of your business goals through this year. This is also the best time to offer any programs, services, or offers that involve done-for-you services, luxury products/services, templates, savings, bonuses, or limited supply.

When the Sun moves through Taurus our focus is on living more fully in the lives we have, about taking what we currently have in our lives and growing it, making it better, and increasing our comforts and security. It is about moving from surviving to thriving, about building a strong, long-term foundation where we can not only see things grow but also enjoy ourselves and really live a good quality of life. Here our focus is on physical things, finances, structures, systems, and strategy. How are we going about what we're setting out to do? Is it grounded? Is it sustainable? Does it bring us joy?

This is a period of work, but it comes with the reminder that you're writing this story, you're setting the stage and you can create the rhythm by which you work and how you do things. That's a big part of the fun for Taurus, so let yourself get creative with the pieces that you can during this period, play with them, move things around, try things in a new way and see what feels right. Much here will be decided by the gut test - how does this feel for me? Let yourself experience, and then make up your mind.

Venus in Gemini (April 10 - May 7, 2023)

This transit opens us up to more money making ideas and ventures, allowing us to think outside the box in a fun and playful way. What are your passions right now? What ADHD rabbit holes have you been exploring? Maybe others are interested in these topics too and you can turn it into something that brings in more money for you, amplifying your happiness and joy in your current interests. Whatever it is let yourself be a little avant-garde you might just be surprised at what new ideas you generate and that your passion is shared with others who love the way you think.

FEELINGS: During this transit, we feel more open, lighthearted, and playful. We aren't as easily swept up in the seriousness of life, or things that would traditionally stress us out. There is a desire for love, affection, and enjoyable conversation. We want to be filled up with the fun, more experiential aspects of life, and if these things have felt lacking for you, you will get your fill during this transit. Long, stimulating conversations, new connections, networking, and opening up to your playful, fun side will really amplify this transit for you. We want to understand more about the world and our lives and if it has felt like a lot of work and no play for you recently, it will be like someone turned the lights on, and you can see more clearly what's been missing in your life.

ACTIONS: This is a good time to commit to blocking off times in your schedule for fun, networking, and friendships, as well as more intimate relationships and date nights. To feel human again, and to explore relationships of all kinds at this stage in your life. We don't have to be in grade school anymore to find playmates and those who are just as excited and obsessive about their lives and work as we are. Have fun love!

Mercury in Taurus (Pre-Retrograde Shadow) (April 7 - 21, 2023)

05°50' - 15°37'

This period marks Mercury's entry into the 'shadow'. The shadow is the area it will re-pass through once the retrograde officially begins.

This period can show us WHAT will be affected and in what AREAS as it will start to go wonky, almost like a field distortion. We may notice our tech starting to act up, people behaving strangely, miscommunications, and more. This will give us a preview of what areas to prepare to focus on during the retrograde period.

Pay special attention during this time to themes, issues, challenges, and hiccups that occur, as it is a foretelling of what is to come during Mercury's upcoming retrograde.

Mercury in Taurus is where we find ourselves worn into the grooves of our habits and comfort zones, as we edge into the retrograde energy, we may find that we either stick or even move firmly into our habits, in a way that does not serve us, or they may stop working altogether. It's important to not get too attached to our way of doing things, or hide away when things get challenging. We can still nurture ourselves while also acknowledging when old habits have outstayed their welcome. We may be moving slower at this time than usual, because Taurus is a sign of creature comfort, and doesn't particularly like change. Go gentle with yourself, but also be willing to adjust your sails when necessary.

As Mercury slows down before turning retrograde, we're revisiting similar social themes that were brought up during the last Mercury Rx Cycle through Gemini which occurred in May-June 2022. Think back to that period and the challenges or issues that arose in your business or life, this retrograde is not transiting the same degree but will trigger similar themes. This time we're taking a closer look at the human nuts and bolts that help our business run on the inside. Start paying attention to the framework that holds up your financial and day-to-day activities and prepare yourself to take the time to determine if you're working with a well-oiled machine or not.

Launching down low -

We can still initiate projects during this time, or wrap up launches, just be aware that time starts to behave strangely once we enter the shadow, things will seem to slow down, or take longer to complete so make sure that you add in additional time in your schedule to accommodate it.

We may feel a bit off, unable to focus, or struggling with an influx of emotions or overthinking during this time.

Note: During this shadow period, we will be given hints of what's to come when Mercury enters retrograde. There will be themes of focus around daily routines, ingrained habits, behaviors, food and diets, finances, business security, sales, and skills. Pay special attention during this time as this shadow will show you the purpose of this retrograde for you.

Mars in Cancer (March 25 - May 20, 2023)

This transit packs a powerful punch. Cancer is the sign of the past, home, family, childhood, childhood issues, mothers, needs, and emotions. When Mars moves through this sign we can expect a significant stir-up. Mars represents war, anger, intensity, and aggression.

We may experience a flood of emotions, memories, or experiences that trigger the above challenges. A challenge with this transit is that we often suppress emotions to 'keep the peace', which ultimately causes a meltdown or boil over of these emotions either towards that person or within that seeps out into other areas of our lives.

This is a period of big change, confrontations, triggers, and addressing your own truth and needs. If there isn't an opportunity for understanding and healing we may feel compelled to cut off emotional connections with others, in order to 'save ourselves'.

Use this period to create a sense of security, home, and connection for yourself, however you can. Create a place that feels safe for you to be you and share your feeling and experiences in a healthy way. And allow this transit to release anything that's no longer serving you.

Pluto in Capricorn (March 24 - April 30, 2023)

Retrograde in Aquarius April 30 - June 10, 2023, then leaves Aquarius returning back to Capricorn until January 21, 2024

The last time that Pluto was in Aquarius was between 1777 - 1798, and the last time it was at the critical point of 0 degrees Aquarius was 246 years ago. This is a profound transit that outside of a short retrograde back into Capricorn between April 30th, 2023 - January 21, 2024, will carry us forward into 2044. Pluto carves out generations and what the structure and transformation of those generations will focus on. Between now and the next 20 years we will see significant changes in our world, from business to agriculture, to government, technology, and belief systems. Pluto in a chart shows our power, often hidden, and in some cases misdirected. It also shows our fears and the challenges we may face in gaining our true power.

Historically speaking if we go back in time to the last time that Pluto left Capricorn and entered Aquarius was the very formation of the United States. In 2022 the US began its first Pluto return, marking one cycle of an empire, the complete results of which we won't fully grasp for another couple of years.

At the birth of the United States, Pluto was at 27 degrees Capricorn (Rome's birth chart had Pluto at 26 degrees 47 Cancer - opposite the US, both marking the degrees of Empires) signifying a country that benefitted from hard-won freedom, and the structures of a republic, but the costs were high, as Pluto edged its way out of Capricorn and into Aquarius we saw the formation of a country. At that time what became the US's power was its people, and its ideologies around advancement, capitalism (movement from Capricorn into Aquarius), and mass development of cities, communities, and eventually technology.

It marked the end of a traditional governmental era controlled by Britain and the beginning of an entirely new country. Pluto represents not only power but Big Government often taking the form of (Capitalism, Socialism, Marxism), resources, and control, and in this case, as it makes its second round of Aquarius since the birth of the United States we are witnessing the next power shift into people, and ideologies, in this case, human capital, and the governmental structure that will be forming around this new found 'resource'. The beginnings of Technocracy, Plutocracy, and other structures that we may not understand the full ramifications of until much later.

But the old era isn't completely gone yet, Pluto will still make one last transit back into Capricorn between May 2023 and January 2024 before it crosses finally back into Aquarius. These transits will not only affect the US but the world as the structures of the US have been imparted on the world from the US Dollar, the markets, and the governmental power structures created through relationships with a multitude of countries. In that time I would expect to see the last of the old structures fall away, and slowly be replaced by new technological advancements, and ideological bureaucracy structured through new infrastructures like blockchain, digital currency, credit systems, and other such tracking and counting mechanisms.

Saturn in Pisces (March 7 - June 17, 2023)

Saturn's entrance into Pisces marks the beginning of a new structural, commitment, and mastery container. Saturn spends approximately 2.5 years in each zodiac sign and has just left Aquarius, its entrance into Pisces will add tangible structure and meaning to the confusion that has reigned in our media with Neptune's transit through Pisces, affecting our ability to think clearly and see 'reality'. If you have struggled to make heads or tails out of what has been unfolding for the past 3 years, you will find that you are able to cut away the unnecessary fluff with this transit and focus on what's 'real', for better or worse. This transit between now and 2026 will not only have us examining our own inner workings, fears, beliefs, and psychology, but it will also have us analyzing what we are receiving from various sources from the government to media, to public health, institutions, and science. This can show up as governments try to exert more control over individual media, free speech, and censorship bills.

We may find our faith tested during this time, while Saturn takes its time moving through Pisces where it will remain for the next 2.5 years, we may be confronted with the consequences and results of our actions (or lack thereof), our successes and our failures will both become apparent during this time. This is a period of psychological testing, where we may be faced with unavoidable realities, the experiences themselves are not nearly as important as our willingness to confront what makes us uncomfortable, and be willing to digest the truth. This is a forging of our new psychology and will ensure fortitude as Saturn moves to catch up with Neptune in February 2026 at 0 degrees Aries, fully dismembering the illusions we've been living under for the past several years.

Saturn often gets a bad rap, with many afraid of its transits, especially to our natal charts, but Saturn is the forger, what is formed under Saturn withstands and endures. It rules iron, and when we think of the empires that were ruled under the Iron age, many of their buildings stand even today. As Saturn makes its transit through Pisces between now and 2026, this is a time to assess, re-evaluate, commit, and master. We are being asked to stick through things, and not give up easily, especially if things get difficult because what we are building now matters - maybe more than it ever has before.

Under Pisces often what we are facing are our worst fears, our belief systems, and our inner psychological mechanisms, this isn't to say that what we're facing isn't real, in some cases it may not be, but the changes it makes are crucial and long-standing in not only your business, but how you run your business, how you see yourself, and how you face challenges moving forward.

Saturn is karma and whatever is given under Saturn cannot be lost. This is the time to ask yourself where you will draw the line in the sand. What is non-negotiable in your life, in your business, in your finances, and in your relationships?

Saturn also rules time, and in Pisces which is the dream world, this acts in two ways, first that we can bring our dreams into tangible reality through commitment, effort, and good old-fashioned hard work, and the second is that this is actually a period of bending time, where what maybe took eons before may seem like it occurs in no time at all, we will also be faced with the deepest psychological pressures we've faced in 27-30 years (the last time Saturn moved through Pisces). We must also make sure that we are making the best use of our time, and not letting our fears overtake our ability to act toward our dreams, even if it seems like those dreams are a distant reality, or we struggle to see how they are possible.

Without dreams (Pisces) and tangible action (Saturn), along with a strategic plan we cannot create matter. And the forging of matter, moving energy from the 5D to the earth plane takes longer than we expect. And while it may not occur at the rate you'd like, it doesn't mean nothing is happening, it just means you can't visibly see it yet with your Earth-based eyeballs :)

Commitment is the meaning of this transit. One foot in front of the other, the more your mind screams at you, berates you, or activates your fears tells you that you are in fact on the right track. You are stirring something deep within you that is ready for the spotlight of examination.

From a business perspective, Saturn shows us what needs to be built for the world, and what our community and clients will be dedicating time, energy, and finances to (even if reluctantly, or to all-out avoid). We can expect to see an expansion of art, music, therapy, counselling, and commitment to mental health support, as well as an increase in spiritual and metaphysical interests such as psychic work, religion, research, writing, and psychology.

If you have a spiritual or therapy-based business this is the time between now and the next 2.5-3 years to build the foundations of your business whether it's from scratch or to solidify what you have already grown. This can feel like a lot of hard work, but remember what you're building now isn't for now, it's for the next 30 years, and so when we think of our efforts through the lens of the long-term future we can understand and even become comfortable with the wait. Our market won't especially be excited about focusing on these topics but they will feel it's a need, a necessity even, and even though we may find more resistance to this, know that we'll be building the infrastructure of support that our community needs to feel secure in the world moving forward.

Governmentally we may see more restriction on free speech or even 'free thought', with politicians in many countries trying to quell platforms where free speech and dialogue is allowed, as well as adding additional restrictions on currently operating platforms to censor individuals who don't share popular views. We may also see advances in AI technologies (including possible AI Sentience), smart devices, predictive behaviours, and marketing based on these technologies. Amazon already does this when it comes to their algorithms knowing what you are going to buy before you buy it, and stocking it in their warehouse before you even think of ordering. Saturn is about materializing, and Pisces is the immaterial world.

We may also see an increased interest in topics such as psychic intuition, dreamwork, energy work, ufos, hypnosis, energy-based medicine, homeopathy, conspiracies, and psychic phenomena as Saturn makes tangible the things that we cannot fully explain.

Globally with the lockdowns in effect since 2020, we have seen repeatedly that when Saturn is direct, lockdowns and governmental restrictions are enacted and maintained. It is likely we will see an uptick of lockdowns and governmental restrictions while Saturn is direct, with a rescinding of restrictions when Saturn retrogrades again. However the previous Saturn transits and retrogrades were in the sign of Aquarius (the people/the public), and Capricorn (the government, buildings, and world infrastructure), whereas this is the first Saturn Transit and retrograde cycle to take place in Pisces since the events of 2020, so it is likely the restrictions and release of restrictions will look differently, in this case, it may be in policing what can be said online, freedom of speech (and thought), and an uptick in programming and media directed to guide public belief and perspectives, as well as potentially reproductive rights.

Uranus Direct (January 23 - August 28, 2023)

14°56' - 23°04' Taurus

Uranus will remain direct in Taurus from now until August 28th, 2023.

When Uranus moves from retrograde to direct, we are being gifted the opportunity to act on those big, bold ideas and innovations that we've been marinating in.

This is a time to regain our bearings. Uranus has been retrograde since August 24, 2022, and has been not so politely nudging us to pay attention to our finances, how we go about earning, spending, and saving our moolah, so that we can create a more stable financial future for ourselves, especially during a time on the planet where there is a great deal of change.

It is asking us to not get distracted by the surface changes, to the algorithms on social media, or the next new platform feature, but rather how do we create consistency, security, comfort, and long-termness within financial and governmental structures no longer offer us the sense of safety that they once did. Uranus brings with it innovation, a rebelliousness that isn't interested in doing things 'the old way'. It doesn't like externally or socially imposed structures, it is here to help you form your own, oddly enough in the comfort-seeking nature of Taurus.

Taurus loves its food, its home, its friends, and keeping things kosher, and when it's met with change-agent Uranus, this area of our life is bound to see the most dramatic upgrades (which may feel like mini earthquakes)

What areas of your business have shifted over the past 6 months - a year?

Have you had financial sources dry up, or change?

Have you been compelled to create a new income source for yourself?

How can you create consistency during a time when there is so much inconsistency in our lives and society?

Uranus will remain in Taurus until July 2025. The last time that Uranus was in Taurus was post WW2, when new systems were created to ensure the welfare and balance for all, things like social welfare and standard work weeks. Necessary and important to the financial stability of both the family, community, and country's welfare.

As Uranus embarks upon its remaining 3+-year journey through Taurus what we can be sure of is that by 2025 the way you have looked at, used, and generated money, financial security, government, law, and growth will not look the same.

Chiron Direct in Aries (December 23, 2022 - July 23, 2023)

Degrees: 11°56' - 19°57'

Chiron has been in Aries since 2019 and will continue to move through the remainder of Aries energy between now and 2027 with a few retrogrades between help us be reminded that healing our wounds comes in layers. We are never really 'over something' but we can find new facets of ourselves and our own medicine with each revisit.

Chiron reminds us of our tenacity, our ability to heal ourselves, and to share that medicine with others, to transform otherwise difficult experiences through alchemy. When Chiron is in Aries it is a time of action, to walk our talk and to enact real change in regard to our wounds. It is a time when we may impulsively react due to our wounds, so we will need to take a pause before jumping in fully but it can also be a very powerful period to bring the wounds to light. If there is something that you have experienced that you don't want someone else to go through this is a time to bring that cause to light.

With Aries we're not messing around, we need to mobilize our healing, and we need to create movements around it. It's a time to allow our anger and fury to become channelled into positive change in our world. To use our words and actions in an empowering way, to become the light. It is a period where we will no longer be silenced, and where we will allow our wounds to help us to become who we are meant to be.

Jupiter in Aries (December 20, 2022 - May 16, 2023)

This is THE transit for entrepreneurs, leaders and anyone wanting to make big, bold moves in business. Right off the rip, this transit delivers a punch, like hitting nitro on a race car so make sure you're wearing your seatbelt! Whatever it is you're wanting to achieve over this next year, you'll get a chance to do it in a way that will put your name out there in a huge way. Fortune favours the bold so risk-taking is positively supported right now and it could serve you well on the professional front.

The last time that Jupiter was in Aries was in 2010, so it's only natural if you find yourself thinking back to that time and what you were learning to initiate in your life back then. What ball were you desperately trying to get moving and what have you learned since then? Similar lessons might present themselves to you, along with all new opportunities to succeed. At times it could feel like somewhat of a roller coaster and when Jupiter turns retrograde, we'll have some reflecting to do about our leadership qualities and deeper motivations in our work. Overall though, the jet fuel that is this transit will bring a world of joy and excitement to your projects. You might find you wake up in the morning feeling a renewed sense of purpose and a powerful drive to get things done - perhaps things you didn't have the courage to pursue before.

Neptune Direct in Pisces (December 3, 2022 - June 30, 2023)

NEPTUNE DIRECT (and POST RX SHADOW)

22°38' - 27°41'

Direct Until June 30th, 2023

Neptune is making its way through Pisces where it will remain until 2027. This Journey it is taking is quite extraordinary and only happens every 165 years.

Neptune in Pisces is here to connect us not only to our intuition but to our subconscious and to all of life on the planet. Neptune is the ruler of the seas (all water on earth) and Pisces is the fish that lives in them. Like a fish we don't notice our environment we aren't aware we're 'IN water' and yet without it, we would not be. All living beings on Earth need water and are made up of water to some extent. We are 70%+ water, and this transit is here to wake us up to who and what we are and the damage that is being done to the world around us. To help us question what is real (as Neptune also rules illusion and delusion) and the ways we have been lying to ourselves or believing the lies of the 'mainstream'.

We have in many ways disconnected ourselves from all of life ignoring the way we are damaging the planet and how each choice we make every day has an impact because we feel sad and depressed at the state of the world, its problems feel too big to solve. But when it comes to Neptune in Pisces the solution comes from within, to acknowledge our internal environment and discern the true from the false within us. To ask ourselves deeper questions and to receive the answers from within us. TO remind us that WE are a part of this source, just like all drops of water are a part of the bigger ocean, we are not separate. Often when life and the state of the world become overwhelming we try to distract ourselves by focusing on things that cannot nourish us, that cannot fulfill the deep hunger and longing we have inside of us for meaning and healing, but with this transit we are being called within, to find our own nourishment and sustenance from within (rather than from outside of us which is contributing to the damage and harm we are seeing in our planet and world on all levels).

This is a time to cultivate your intuition, to listen to your dreams, and to work with yourself to dive deeper into understanding the mechanism and patterns you are repeating (Pisces is also the natural ruler of the 12th house, which is where we hide things from ourselves, and where our subconscious and trauma reside). The way to heal the planet is by more of us working with this unknown and often scary part of ourselves and bringing awareness and healing to it. This will create a ripple effect that has the power to change and heal the world to a magnitude that we cannot yet comprehend. If you are feeling drawn to lean into your own intuition to use it in your work, to use it to work with clients, this is your nudge. The veil between you and source (your intuition) has never been thinner than it is right now.

Uranus Retrograde (18° - 14°) (August 24 - December 31, 2022)

18°55' - 14°56' Taurus

**look at areas of focus/events that occurred between May 7, 2022- August 24, 2022 to give you insight into what area of life this retrograde will be felt for you**

Uranus rules rebellion, war, change, revolution, freedom, confronting fear, speaking our truth. It is 'the great awakener'. This retrograde highlights what doesn't feel aligned and where you're sabotaging and holding yourself back. Be honest about who you are and what you want. Go with your hunches/intuition. Uranus helps to clarify a new direction. Embrace change and 'not knowing'. This period often forces us to deal with our dark side, parts of ourselves that don't align with our values. But if you allow this to move through you when Uranus moves direct you will have the opportunity to make a massive change. Watch out for: Following formulas, systems, and the 'norm'. Systems and structures can tend to feel suffocating at this time. Be careful to not interpret this as a sign that you're not capable or that you've made a poor choice. Personal changes may feel slow or difficult at this time. And the need to feel independent and rebel may be felt strongly right now. Uranus Retrograde can mean massive changes often in areas we weren't expecting or desiring, but it is for your long-term benefit. The truth will set you free. To see what area of your life will be influenced by this retrograde, see your chart and the current transits and locate what house Uranus transit falls under.

North Node in Taurus (December 22, 2021 - July 12, 2023)
South Node in Scorpio (December 22, 2021 - July 12, 2023)

North Node in Taurus

The North Node transit shows us what we are moving towards, and the global trends that we should expect over the next 18-month cycle.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the North Node moved through Gemini and the South Node transited Sagittarius.

This showed a moving towards new careers, education, educational formats (homeschooling/online learning/distance learning), as well as working and staying within our more immediate environments with an emphasis on very short distance travel, this saw a massive decrease in commute times through lockdowns and business restructuring.

This presented the ability for many to telecommute, explore grocery delivery and overnight delivery, work from home, telemedicine, and traveling within our more immediate neighborhoods.

In terms of business, this showed up as an explosion of technologies like video conferencing through Zoom, and the transition of businesses that were primarily in person into the online space. We also saw a massive explosion in online learning, new careers, online training, and many stepping into the updating of their businesses into a more online space. The development of new skills, especially highly specific training saw massive growth.

Now with the North Node moving into Taurus, we will see a continuation of much of our lives, whether through work, friendships, and domestic lives growing from right from the comfort of our own homes. Whether it's the continuation of online education, reskilling ourselves, exploring homegrown food, home-based health, and creating rhythms and routines around our more immediate environment.

The return to commuting or long-distance travel or education will continue to remain slow, if not completely and forever changed.

We will look to create more of our luxuries from home, whether it be foods we enjoy, health care, gardens, learning and education, and growing our businesses.

The emphasis will be on creating quality life experiences, which may have many exploring new ways of living, relocating, or new ways of creating sustainability in their lives that they felt they didn't have time (or motivation) to before. We will also see an increase in new currencies especially as the North Node conjuncts Uranus on July 26, 2022.

These trends will continue into 2023, lasting approximately 18 months.

From a business perspective, this is a perfect time to either launch your business into the online space (and home space), and to also explore new training, and slowly build out more security for yourself. If you teach business in any regard, the next 18 months will see massive growth in your industry. This can also be a good time to explore alternative income streams, currencies and creating a side business.

The North Node shows the potential for increase/advancement and opportunities for the themes of the sign it is transiting through.

What to watch for during this transit:

Personal Assets/Personal Income/Cash in hand - Cash and tangible resources will become more important

Banks/Banking (trends or changes in interest rates, mortgage rates, loans)

Currency (changes to - shifts in currency, new currency, re-valuation of old currencies, gold, silver, gems, land, and other tangible assets)

A movement into trading, stocks, currencies, securities

Budgeting (more people will be watching their finances and likely stepping into budgeting if they haven't before)

Commerce and New Business -especially online, or from home

Focus on Skills that Earn Money/Earning Capacity

Government Finances/Currency/Shifts in Employment

Trends/Treasury/Country Reserves and Natural Resources (value)

Property/Mortgages/Purchasing of Land/Homes

Real Estate

New Hobbies that can be done from home

Increase in Taxes & Costs of Food/Resources

Issues of Health Care Systems /Access

Health Issues specifically targeting the Head/Base of Skull/Neck/Glands/Diabetes/Fertility/Illnesses in Children and Grandchildren

Home Based Entertainment (both digital and hands-on)

Food Security/Agriculture/Self-Sustainability

Health Food/Vitamins/Herbs/Supplements/New Diets/Home Health Care

Home Education and an increase in new educational methods (Reggio Emilia, Waldorf, STEAM/STEM, Montessori ) for younger children and for older children, teens, young adults, we will see an increase in more young people creating their own education and future employment from home, or through alternative means.

South Node in Scorpio

The South Node shows us what we're coming away from as a collective on a global level, and rules 18-month trends.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the South Node transited Sagittarius.

This showed a moving away from long-distance travel, higher education, retreats, and trips geared to personal development, and for many even a change in their belief systems, traditions (family/religious), and long-term goals.

We saw a massive increase in the consumption of media (Gemini), learning new information and an attempt to determine truth from fiction, while also attempting to form our own opinions for ourselves.

The South Node's transit through Sagittarius saw a complete change in the airline and travel industry, a coming away from global travel, and more to towards local travel, with many of us stuck in our homes or limited to our local areas for staycations.

This also saw a massive increase in learning from home, and a step away from long-distance or higher education, and a shift into choosing your own education for yourself, through the use of online or distance materials.

Now that the South Node is moving into Scorpio, we will see a disillusionment with any forms of manipulation and gas-lighting whether through media, friendships, authority, or governmental figures.

We may also find ourselves questioning previous healing methods, and possibly even avoidance of navigating our own trauma when things become too much.

It will feel more important than ever to step away from what we can't control and into navigating our own spaces and choosing what we allow into them (any negativity may send us into a downward spiral).

We must be cautious of seeking quick fixes at this time, and avoidance doing the deeper work on our health, mindset, psychology, beliefs, and fears.

This is not necessarily the best time for the healing and metaphysical industries, as they will see more people turning away from doing deeper work, even though it is obviously needed, on the other hand, we may see a rise in more manipulative and unethical techniques either through media, competitors in our industry, government authorities, and previously trusted sources.

It will be more imperative than ever to lean into your own intuition to determine what's true for you.

The South Node either obscures, ends, or creates obstacles to the themes of the sign it is transiting through.

Things to monitor during this transit:

Changes to Relationships/Divorce/Morality Rates

Debt/Credit

Death/Endings

Taboo Subjects

Joint Finances

Lawsuits

The Withholding/Gaslighting of Medical Advancements/Truth/Scientific Discovery

The hiding of facts/figures/numbers/data/results
