The expense for the arbitrator's services and the proceedings will be borne equally by the District and the Union. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record and makes copies available without charge to the other party and to the arbitrator. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon both Employer and the Union and upon any employee or employees affected thereby, provided it will in no way alter or expand the provisions of the Agreement or contain any recommendations thereto, and is based only upon facts and arguments, either presented by the parties or on which an opportunity to comment has been furnished the parties by the arbitrator. The arbitrator, in rendering his written decision, shall clearly state his findings of fact and conclusions upon which his decision is founded.

Article VI: Seniority
