NOTE TAKING EXPECTATIONS

Steps	Picture	Link
Write down Categories and Subcategories (main ideas)	18 May Region of College 1970 Berlin Charles 1	Video on taking notes
2. Read the section three times	Physical Characteristics The Central Valley is a long, large flat valley that covers the central part of the state of California, it is 400 miles long from north to south and can be 40-60 miles wide. The Central California is a 400 miles long from north to south and can be 40-60 miles wide. The Central California is the secure and to the west, the Central Regular Service is an instance of the central California is the secure and to the west, the Central Regular Service is an instance that the secure of the central countries in this area.	The same video as above
3. Highlight important informationbut don't go crazy!	CONTINUE VALUE CONTINUE OF THE PROPERTY OF TH	Same video again
4. Take notes, but remember to follow the Rule of 5!	Mr Keck Mr	It's the same video as above
6. Try to include a quote in your notes!	IB Mr. Keck #D Mr. Keck 9/23/16 Southern Pacific Coast Physical Characteristics According to the document, the Southern Pacific Coast has: "rolling hills which gradually rise to mountain ranges." The article describes the beaches as: "long stretches of sandy and pabbly beaches."	Link to the anchor chart with resources. This is a new link!
7. Write a 10-12 word summary in the box.		