

JJ,

As a stock investor, I'm trying to track my dividends.

Then your YouTube channel popped up, a dividend investor's holy grail.

Your video is very useful, "3 New Stocks Added To My $27,000 Robinhood Portfolio: UPDATE!".

You had great talking points about Activision and the Microsoft deal.

The Dividend Tracker is great but you can take advantage of a warm welcoming sequence.

Loyal fans will be begging to see your next piece of content.

Your very own new introduction will get your customers to be excited about your brand and what you stand for.

The email below is an example of how a pleasant greeting for your fans looks for your business.

If you like the new added touch, let me know.

Thanks,

Shanna
