Page 5 – Last Things...

- How did you hear about us?
- If you don't mind sharing, what is your disability?
- Are there other community identities that you would like to share with us?
This is NOT required and will not be shared publicly without permission.
This data is only used for demographic purposes, which helps with future grant submissions.
 - Category examples from past years: BIPOC, LGBTQIA+, Plus Size, Immigrant, Socioeconomic status, Veteran
- Are there any accommodations that we may be able to provide that would help you more fully participate in our festival? While we cannot guarantee to fulfill all requests, we will try our best. Please note that live captioning will be available for the entirety of the festival, and ASL interpreters will be available during the live show.
 - Some accommodations could include extra reminders for due dates, alternative communication methods, sign language interpretation at the in-person workshops, extra space for wheelchairs, assistance at the venue, etc.
- If you are interested in supporting the DisabiliTease Festival behind the scenes, please fill out our volunteer application.
