New Audiobook Playlist “Hope On The Outside” Helps Returning Citizens Re-enter With Confidence, Skills & A Plan

Free on YouTube—Bart Smith’s step-by-step guide turns preparation on the inside into success on the outside

Las Vegas, NV — September 12, 2025 — Author and creator Bart Smith has released the free, full audiobook playlist of Hope On The Outside—a practical, compassionate roadmap to reduce recidivism and help people transition from incarceration to community life with dignity, skills, and momentum. Stream the complete audiobook on Smith’s YouTube channel at BartSmith.com/youtube.

Hope On The Outside distills 100+ actionable tips across 90+ bite-size topics—from mindset shifts to job-readiness and money fundamentals—so listeners can prepare on the inside and execute on the outside. Smith wrote the book to help lower the risk of returning to custody by replacing uncertainty with structure, support, and daily, doable steps—benefiting not only those returning home, but also their families and communities.

What’s Inside The Audiobook

The playlist mirrors the book’s fast, straight-talking format with short tracks you can listen to anywhere. Representative track titles include:

- Message From The Author
- #1: Forgive Yourself
- #2: Make This Vow Now
