Oliver Ross

Basic

Name: Oliver Ross
Nickname(s): O-dawg
Gender: Male
Age: 17 (19 as of 5/27/26)
Godly Parent: Ares
Sexuality: Bisexual
Birthdate: May 17th
Birthplace: Eau Claire, Wisconsin

Abilities:

As is natural for a child of Ares, Ross is naturally athletic and fit with great battle instincts and greater than average potential when it comes to strength and agility than mortals or even most non-Ares Demigods although this particular attribute is not really special amongst the children of Ares.

The main ability that Ross has inherited from his father is his Battle Precognition which acts almost like a sixth sense in regards to predicting the trajectory of attacks in the heat of battle allowing him to have an almost impregnable defense against conventional weapons although while he has this sense, it doesn't mean he will have the time necessarily to block every attack. It is still quite possible for him to be overwhelmed by attacks that are simply too quick or from too many from different angles. In addition, it doesn't exactly help as much against non-conventional weapons/attacks like if a child of Poseidon hit him really hard with a wave of water or something else of that like.

Physical Description: Oliver has a full head of moderately long brown hair that he usually keeps well-trimmed with various bouts of not caring from time to time. He has blue eyes and often has the appearance of being in the process of judging those he puts them upon, something that comes naturally as he often automatically sizes up the threat of each person he comes across. He stands at a height of 6 feet and weighs about 181 pounds with a fair amount of muscle on him counting for most of the extra weight.

Personality: Oliver , like many of his siblings, has a fairly competitive nature and wants to be the best warrior that he can possibly be and bring pride to Ares as well as having an eager attitude when it comes to the idea of a ‘good fight’. In addition, Oliver can often let the Ares side of his nature get the better of him when he perceives weakness in others and resort to bullying like many of his siblings would. Although he does have a better side to him that can win out sometimes as he doesn’t always like to be a ‘complete dick’ all of the time. In addition, while he is comfortable in battle, he can be somewhat uncomfortable in situations outside of it, especially in regards to those when someone is actually kind to him without any sort of conditions or deal having to be made. Lastly, Oliver doesn’t have too much patience and can easily be a bit over-eager in his various pursuits and ambitions due to this.

Backstory: WIP

I will probably do a backstory at another time.

As of 3/6/2022 I still didn’t write out the backstory lmao, I hope to actually write something out tomorrow as I’ve had head-canon ideas forever

As of 2/27/23 I’m so sure that I’ll eventually do that

As of 5/5/23, So true

As of 2/13/24, Hello there reader, I hope you are enjoying this “backstory” 🙂

As of 9/17/24….hmmmm, nope

Oliver was not always such a hostile or aggressive person as he is now. He had actually been a relatively well-adjusted and even somewhat kind child growing up on his mother’s farm around Eau Claire, Wisconsin. Growing up, his mother did their best in raising him as normally as they could. There wasn’t too much trouble while he was growing up
