

Widen your Worthiness

Say each of statements with each tapping location. So with eyebrow, “statement.” tapping under the eye, “statement.” etc. With each round you begin again at the top of the list with tapping. First you find your way into the issue using all the tapping points. Then you clear it using all points again. Then re-set the field using all tapping points. Use the AroMandalas if you have them.

Round 1 – Clear the belief about worthiness. Use Passage AroMandalas, the Magdalene Trilogy or Angel Guidance. (Clears loss or Victim energy or Helplessness.)

I recognize and allow that in the past I have believed in failure, not being good enough, helplessness and charlatanism. I recognize and allow that in the past I’ve let down, disappointed, broken trust and been unsuccessful.

Round 2 – Clear the Violation. Use Andean Alchemy, Genie in the Bottle or Fountain of Youth AroMandalas (clears Heartsick, or Overwhelm or Frustration energy.)

This is the end of false humility. I now reclaim my full achievement, success, victory and in humility. I am aided and accompanied by the Guides and surrender to their guidance and leadership.

Round 3 – Release being trapped –Use Mantra, Pyramid Echos or Fountain of Youth AroMandalas (Clears Being Trapped, Disappointment, or Irritation/Resentment energy)

- I am now always continuing to learn and grow and attract people to me in my personal life who are continuing to learn and grow.
- I am now always in humility as a servant of God and the Record Keepers and Guides and attract people to me in my personal life who are humble and serving to me and the God we both serve.
