

In the summer of 2024, the Sean fragment Painbody had found my associate, Machinator. I had been fiercely debating with myself.. Was this it? Was this finally time to execute The Eclipse? I still struggle to find a suitable vessel for it, but time is against me. Medulla had advanced greatly. Regrettable as this may be- I'm furthering the schedule. Painbody agreed to relay information to Machinator under the promise we would protect the rest of the Fragments. I agreed, knowing that I most likely wouldn't be able to.

- Macabre

I convinced Macabre that we should partially publish this. I can't fit it in the terminal, so this will have to do. - Machinator

BeatzzPurMinote/Beatzz/seil(?) = Sean Doherty (before assimilation by Medulla) thecrimsonblade2 = Rebecca X. (She doesn't like to acknowledge her last name at all. - Macabre) timeline:

12/13/24

STHS releases.

Echo gave a map to the users in the forest.

12/14/24

memorycapture is uploaded. No clue who uploaded it. (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XIHqhe9fxPc>)

To note: Previous person of interest Facelulz shows up for the first time here.

Rebecca creates a new tumblr and roblox account. (

<https://www.tumblr.com/thecrimsonblade2/769818987718721536/made-a-different-roblox-account-same-username-im>)

12/15/24

Rebecca confirms that Beatzz in memorycapture is Sean, and that jkcspartan is Jake.

(<https://www.tumblr.com/thecrimsonblade2/769972180867039232/to-make-more-of-the-funny-questions-a-video-has>)

12/17/24

First mention of "the program" (later confirmed as The Otherbox) from Rebecca. Sean and Jake were working on it before Sean passed.

(<https://www.tumblr.com/thecrimsonblade2/770133889559756800/you-mentioned-something-about-a-program-do-you>)

12/18/24

Jake makes his own channel and then uploads his first video. (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RT9ND-3DRhc>)

Jake says that he's locked out of the main channel. He also says the whole idea of the channel (including the uncle thing, what the hell was that about) was "a story i kind of made up".

12/23/24

STHS update.

Echo attempts to make contact(?) with the users/bystanders, adding a console message for others to find.

I couldn't find public mentions of this until January 13th.

(<https://www.tumblr.com/thecrimsonblade2/772567900437544960/it-lead-me-back-to-seil-the-high-seas-archived>)

12/24/24

Rebecca tries to communicate to Sean through STHS, begging him to let her help him, noting that she helped him with panic attacks 10 years ago. Sean cuts the conversation short, saying "I'm sorry." beforehand.

(This is a reupload;

<https://www.tumblr.com/thecrimsonblade2/771889431908139008>)

She posts about how deeply saddened she was.

(<https://www.tumblr.com/thecrimsonblade2/770785076740030464/ica-nt-stop-crying>)

Rebecca then says that she's gonna get drunk at a Christmas party. Jake is implied to have been there but left early.

(<https://www.tumblr.com/thecrimsonblade2/770787095774183424/iohg-nmy-god-i-think-you-need-to-rest>)

12/26/24

The "Post-Christmas" meeting. (page 2 of the transcript, #3 - 4 in the playlist)

The night prior (christmas) Rebecca and Jake were at the same party together but Jake left earlier.

Jake confirms that he was locked out of the Seildirectory youtube channel, and that the unlisted uploads are from Sean.

The rest of the meeting is Rebecca and Jake arguing if the Sean in the computer is the same Sean they knew in real life, and whether they can consider him to be "alive" or just an imitation of Sean.

Jake says something revealing here; "whatever 'sean' is left in there doesnt want me there anymore, so at this point i dont care either way".

1/1/25

computer problems is uploaded.

1/2/25

fragmentation is uploaded.

fragmentation is a direct response to 'computer problems', some of the audio of computer problems being heard in the background.

This is also where the fragments show up in the flesh for the first time, although their complete appearances are off screen.

1/3/25

memorycapture(2) is uploaded.

This shows the origin of the cabin in SSB1, and also shows how close Jake and Sean were to Facelulz.

1/5/25

memorycapture(3) is uploaded.

To note here: Sean mentions recovering from something, among other things. This might also be around the same time Rebecca and Sean's relationship starts. (Or maybe it started before that. Rebecca doesn't wanna talk about it with us.)

Jake reuploads Rebecca's footage of her trying to help Sean.

1/11/25

Rebecca tells Jake that she wants to investigate STHS further in Studio. Jake vehemently tells her not to, and that her computer will get infected if she does so. (<https://www.tumblr.com/the crimsonblade2/772352322100690944/like-yeah-he-has-the-power-to-change-player>)

She gave her followers a choice. They said to investigate. (I have no idea why they picked yes. This severely put Rebecca in danger, and seemingly for their own amusement.

(<https://www.tumblr.com/thecrimsonblade2/772352674998943744/investigate-yes-risky-no-safe-i-dont-care>)

After the posting of the Niobe video following the choice players made in Rebecca's tumblr for her to investigate STHS, her personal info gets leaked through a file she posts on filebin.

(<https://www.tumblr.com/thecrimsonblade2/772442699111546880/filebin-4h9zy3vnis7jsh31>)

Sean uploads Niobe and makes a community post of text messages detailing a miscarriage Rebecca had a few years ago.

1/12/25

The first Echo meeting. (page 5 of the transcript, video #5 in the playlist)

Echo formally introduces himself to the community at large, and introduces the initial four to the Safe Harbour. "Made from the same cloth as the portal room."

Echo says Sean's Icon of Thorns rotates whenever he experiences extreme emotion.

Echo confirms that "The Medulla" has been here from the start, and that it even predates Sean arriving in Nilspace.

Echo calls the bodies in the background of fragmentation “previous iterations”, and the Sean players saw in SSB1 is not the same Sean you see later on, implying that different iterations of Sean exist.

Echo: “..Think of it like this. Everything around you is Sean. The particles, the parts. All of it. You are all inside something greater than your understanding. An organism. Nature has a new meaning here. One where roots are skin.”

Echo says that Jake has his own motives, one he would lie about.

Echo: “What exactly are you all looking for, here? In this place? What are your goals?”

Echo foreshadows selling out The Marked later on, or even saying he'd out right use them to his benefit.

The first Painbody sighting. (page 10 of the transcripts, video #6 in the playlist)

In the video, the player LimeDotJPG interacts with Painbody, a seemingly mute fragment. Painbody seems to warm up to the player over the duration of the video before disappearing under the cabin after someone unknown says to “Come.”.

1/18/25

Rebecca wakes up to sounds coming from her computer, Echo informing her that her computer was compromised via a text file and image. She is then (assumingly) assimilated/digitized into Nilspace, putting her into a coma.

Rebecca's tumblr goes completely dark, until March 1st.
(##entry.)

1/23/25

The players from the first Echo meeting (see 1/12/25) discover a message Sean left for them in STHS, generally being: "Leave me alone and stay away from Echo", or just "Don't trust Echo.". But we are going to highlight Dragon's message.

(<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-bFpTdbkzLk&list=PLBKqXZbU3Kua8UNUJYqBtR7uWJGUCVpAv&index=8&pp=iAQB>)

Sean: "I'm impressed, truly. You and I are more similar than you think. A lifetime ago, I used to investigate paranormal things myself. But.. people like you, are the ones who keep poking at places where they shouldn't be."

2/7/25

The cabin confrontation meeting. (page 11 in the transcript, video #11 - 13 in playlist)

A recording is taken of Sean being found ingame.

Talking with them, Sean mentions how he ended up in snowball brawl by chance as he tried going back to sleep.

Jake joins shortly after this, immediately berating Sean for putting Rebecca in a coma; confirming she is still in hospital at this point.

Jake still affirms that the Sean that is ingame is not the real Sean but rather an imitation of him. Sean calls Jake out for this, about bringing him back to life, and speaks of being above humanity.

2/14/25

some updates is uploaded.

Jake establishes that he's been talking with Sam, and he goes through a video on the Facelulz channel that shows JX1 interfering with Niko's recording. He suggests that the JX1 nil-instance and Sean might be related. (We're not sure what Jake meant by this, this could've been a claim made out of paranoia.)

The imgur link in the other tabs shows Echo being chained up. (<https://imgur.com/a/cY7gCNw>)

The description of the image says "await further prompts".

2/25/25

ROBLOX: Flood Escape - with Friends! is uploaded.

First publicly documented sighting of Macabre in 15 years. (Previously seen here <https://youtu.be/ibkn-Ud6SN8?si=wPEUN2TdOdNETyK4&t=246>)

Note by Macabre:

I became aware of Sean and Jake's tinkering when they held open a remote interface for 15 minutes. It was alarming to me- this had been something Medulla pursued as a way to gain power in Nilspace. Remote interfaces practically grant network ownership upon startup and through that, the possibilities of permanently altering data in the real world.

Like Sean had warned the user 'Dragon', he was discovering something that he shouldn't have- a discovery that could be only used for malicious purposes. Something humanity as a whole isn't ready for, the average human mind already wasn't capable enough to handle the internet on a constant stream. As is the nature of the internet and their infinite perversion with tragedy, the more attention this gets, the more this game of telephone becomes tangled. Information becomes jumbled and confused, the complexities of personalities and people wiped from incompetence and misunderstandings of third parties. Sean predicted this. The last phone call in STHS: "We all put a part of ourselves in our creations, to the point where the creation becomes a phantom limb that only the audience sees. Jake's youtube channel gathers a certain type of audience that often creates their own stories from what little is shown, and with how things are now, what's real on the internet sometimes manifests into reality.. and Jake has expectations to live up to." (

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CCMA13d12V8&t=577s>)

You all must remember that your perception molds what reality is for Sean, Jake, Rebecca, The Fragments. Everyone. The internet is the unconscious collective, the internet is the only place where truth becomes post-truth. Where information can be posted and lost forever. A tree going down where no one hears it.. is a tree that never existed in the first place.

Be wise. Be gentle. Be vigilant.

Something beautiful will come of this. - Macabre
