

Family Day

A Fiction Story By: Eldana Kidane

Hi, I'm Maya and I'm eleven years old. I have one brother, Matthew, and unfortunately one sister, Lucy. It's a boring rainy day, with nothing to do. My whole family is still in bed, but It's 7:00.

I got up and tiptoed downstairs like a sneaky mouse trying to get some cheese. As I went down I noticed that my whole family was still in bed. So I decided to prank them. I grabbed my phone from the kitchen counter and went onto an app called voice changer.

“Greetings, mortals. I will be challenging you in a scavenger hunt and if you cannot pass, you will be sacrificed. When you finish the hunt, you will find an item that needs to be returned to me” I said into the mic. Then I picked a spooky voice and then saved it. After that, I put my phone down, and started to make a ghost.

I grabbed my wheely chair, and put a tissue box on top. Then I grabbed some black paper and made the eyes, and then glued them onto my white blanket. I put the blanket on top of the chair and put my phone in my back pocket and covered it with my pj's . It looked so realistic, like a real ghost. Then I made the scavenger hunt. When I finished, I tiptoed back upstairs and woke up my whole family.

“Guys, Guys there is a ghost in our house!!” I screamed. They all jumped out of bed and ran downstairs.

“Where!? I wanna see a ghost! Then I can bribe all my friends at school that I saw a ghost.” My brother Matthew replied. My whole family ran down as fast as they could, making me in the back. As they all got downstairs they were amused by the ghost as I took out my phone and played the recording. They were amused and shocked by the talking ghost. They were all recording, except for my mom who was traumatized since she thinks that ghosts don’t exist. I left the room and went to the kitchen. As soon as the ghost stopped talking I told my family.

“Guys I think I found the first clue. I found it in the kitchen and it says number one on the top.”

Run, Run as fast you can but you won’t see me in a glance

“I know, it’s something that you wouldn’t see. And you wouldn’t see a ghost, so he must have the first clue!” My sister Lucy noticed. My whole family ran to the fake ghost, and my brother Mathew ran as fast as he could.

“I wanna find the note, I wanna find the note” Matthew shouted, still running. Since my brother got there first he looked everywhere in front and behind the ghost. He accidentally tripped and pushed the ghost a little, and the note fell out.

You see me here, I cannot move. You will not see me forever, but you will not care. But if you do not have me, you will die. What am I?

"I think that might be in the kitchen," Matthew told us. They all went to the kitchen, and started to rush and find the item. I looked back and saw my mom dropping everything that was 4 inches near her.

"I found it!" Lucy exclaimed. They read the note.

I start with t end with t, and have t in it

"I have heard this riddle before. Wasn't it something related to the tea that you drink?" My mom asked. They all ran to the dining table, and checked the tea set. My sister shook the teapot, and saw the note. But before Lucy could pick it up, Matthew stole it and opened it himself.

I'm Bored lets play a game

"Ohh, I know this one. The two main words are Bored, and Game. If you put that together that would be the incorrect spelling of a board game! Let's go there! They emptied out chess, and checkers and found nothing. Then they finally looked in Monopoly and found a box. They ran to the ghost and opened the box.

"Here, we got you the box. Is this it?" Lucy showed the fake ghost.

"Maybe, we should open it then show the ghost" I snickered. They believed me and opened it.

Hahahahaha that was all a joke. Let's go get some ice cream.
