

Writer Responses

I have a masters degree in public relations and am a strong writer, editor and communicator. <—not bad

I'm very interested in editing your articles. <—bad

My name is Madi, and I'm a graduate of the University of Florida's College of Journalism and Communications. <— great!

I am a world traveler, and business person. <—bad

I read your job posting and I thought I would be a perfect fit to assist with editing your travel and event service SEO articles. <—bad

I am perfect for this job. <—real bad

I'm a professional editor with experience in AP style, SEO, and MLA style. <—don't care

I will bring high-quality refinement to your travel and event experience service articles. <—gibberish

I am a Boston proofreader, writer, and illustrator. <—not relevant

I am an experienced proofreader and editor looking to add jobs to my portfolio and gain experience working with a wider range of material. <—too verbose

I'm a long-term freelancer, with experience writing and editing everything from travel blogs and marketing content to resumes and financial white papers. <—good

...

top 3

1. My name is Madi, and I'm a graduate of the University of Florida's College of Journalism and Communications. <—WINNER!!!
2. I'm a long-term freelancer, with experience writing and editing everything from travel blogs and marketing content to resumes and financial white papers.
3. I have a masters degree in public relations and am a strong writer, editor and communicator.