

One day, Amy Fujita went out to take out the trash. After taking out the trash, she was going to take the trash bag and put it in the trash, but she couldn't find it. Where is it? Amy Fujita searched the house, but still couldn't find it. There were only two rolls in the house. Garbage bags, one roll is in her living room drawer, and one roll is in her kitchen shelf. Maybe I can ask her. Amy Fujita asked her mom whether she had seen the trash bag and her mom said no. Her mom asked her to look for it one more time in the house. She thought that she could ask her dad. Her dad recalled that he used that last one. Her dad forgot to buy new ones to replenish the living room. It turns out that Amy Fujita's garbage bags were used up by Dad, then he forgot to buy new garbage bags to put in the living room.
