

Regarding The Sega Scourge

DISCLAIMER: The purpose of this document is purely to inform those of an individual who has previously caused harm to myself and others. Please do not harass this user via death threats, doxxing, etc. I just want to move on. I'm tired. So please don't make this harder for me than it already is. Be respectful.

EDIT: Misremembered the year of our mutual friend's wedding, sorry about that. I've corrected it.

Opening Statement

Hi all

I want to start by saying that, despite my feelings and treatment from this person, I never ever wanted to actually post this document. It's a document I've continuously gone back and forth on in terms of creating for various reasons. I didn't post it at first to protect the individual it's about, then to protect myself and (as shallow as it is) my reputation. I never want to be known as "that one person in a community who wrote a whole ass google doc about their ex", and there are also screenshots which showcase how messed up and quite frankly toxic I was back when these events happened. I also have somewhat feared what would happen to me and him health wise if I ever did post this. All I've ever wanted to do was move on, not bring this back up in my life and to such a large scale. I told myself and friends that I would only ever do this if one of these two situations happened:

- 1) He tried to spread lies about me publicly
- 2) He became an actual danger to the community

Given you're seeing this, one of these things sadly happened and I've been left with no choice but to do this. A user by the name of Valaura on Reddit recently made a post about her experience with Scourge back in 2017 (that I was a witness of). You can read her statement here:

https://www.reddit.com/r/SonicTheHedgehog/comments/1eamres/addressing_thesegascourgemy_interactions_with_him/?share_id=3bbyi49q02UkTbME41jJ4&utm_content=1&utm_medium=ios_app&utm_name=ioscss&utm_source=share&utm_term=1

This sadly proves that he is a danger to the community and I now cannot keep silent about his behaviour. I 1000% understand if those who view this document have a more negative perception of me afterwards.

However, this document is mainly about one person who is pretty well known in the community, The Sega Scourge.

This document is going to talk about some of the things that were done to me by this person in the hope that others won't go through a similar situation like myself or Valaura.

TW: Gaslighting, Manipulation, Discussions of Sex

My Relationship with The Sega Scourge

For those who are unaware, The Sega Scourge and I dated from 2016-2019. Now, I wouldn't classify Scourge as an abusive boyfriend (despite his actions during the relationship) as he never once laid a finger on me nor threatened my life. He was, all things considered, a good boyfriend. However he did have moments where he was manipulative and overall nasty, mainly when things didn't go his way. As a person I still believe he isn't inherently evil and has good in him. But sadly the cons outweigh the pros.

February 2019, I announced our breakup on Twitter (since we were public with our relationship), with me stating that it was a mutual breakup and things were civil.

Just wanted to say thank you to everyone who has been so supportive to myself and The Sega Scourge recently

It's going to take time to adjust but it just means a lot that you've all been positive by avoiding spreading nasty rumors and have respected our privacy 💜

Screenshot from a tweet after my initial breakup post. I must have deleted the original at some point

I'm sorry to say that I lied. The breakup wasn't entirely mutual. He cheated on me with his current girlfriend, and I broke up with him once he confessed.

Cheating

The cheating was something I had my suspicions about for a good year or so. This girl would often want to hang out 1-on-1 with Scourge and I expressed to him several times that I wasn't entirely comfortable given the amount of times she wanted just the two of them to hang out.

Now I'm a girl whose friends mainly consist of boys. Always did when I was a kid. However the reason I had my concerns was because before Scourge and I met, these two previously had feelings for each other. So in my mind she wasn't over him and was wanting him for herself. As I said, I would often ask him to maybe restrict the amount of times the two of them would hang out alone, and asked if he could maybe hang out with her more in group settings. At one point I even asked him to not see her at all unless it was a group outing. After about a week at most, I felt guilty and thought I wasn't being fair to this girl or him, so I rescinded this request.

I felt that I was being paranoid as this was my first serious relationship and I had been lied to in the past by people. Scourge would even tell me I had nothing to be worried about and that his female friend did confess to having feelings for him but he didn't feel the same. He pretty much painted her to be the only one of the two with feelings, which clearly turned out to be one of his many lies.

Screenshots taken from Facebook - I've censored Scourge's real name as well as any other personal info

So I got onto my PC and looked on Twitter and was going through my settings when I came across my block list, was looking through users on there just to check if there was anyone that didn't deserve to be on it because it'd been a while since I looked. Then I got onto [REDACTED], went on her profile because I got curious as I do when it comes to her 😊 and when I did (and because of the display size of my pc) I noticed in her profile pic she has a necklace that looks identical to the one you gave me, the silver sterling heart necklace, and she doesn't seem like the kind of girl to normally wear that unless someone important like a guy gave it to her. So I wanted to ask, and as brutally blunt as this question is, are you seeing her? Or give that to her? Because it looks identical to mine and it just got me concerned and I do trust you but at the same time it's a huge coincidence that she has the same necklace as me when as far as I'm aware she's single. Just please be honest with me because it's panicking me a bit, even if I'm wrong about this 😞

If you are seeing her just please tell me

I feel sick to my stomach even having to ask because I know it's shitty if I am wrong but there's just something not right here and I can't let myself panic like this all day to wait to ask

I've been panicking for the past hour or so thinking about the pros and cons of asking

No, you're right to ask, it's not shitty. I'm sorry you've gotten sick over this

Frankly, I am too

I gave her that necklace, yeah

Its not the same as yours, it's smaller, with a different design

In January time, ish

Oh my god

Oh my god

So you are seeing her?

Yes or no

Fuck it, I was just thinking how [REDACTED] you'd be with me, or maybe suddenly message her, which I'd hope you wouldn't but

Recently

Idk what you'd call seeing her

Romantically

Kissing

Doing what we should be doing as a couple

I can honestly only answer these under the pretense that this is a discussion between you and me, right here

I'm really sorry to say that

Just fucking tell me [REDACTED]

Have you cheated on me?

Yes or no

Yes

In 2017

Whilst drunk

And I never told you

So is it still going?

Because with what happened in December I can't help but think

And this necklace

December had me doubting everything as you know, ya kno. Around that time, if I saw her, I actively agreed to things like hand holding and such

That slut

I fucking knew it

Nicole

No

Don't Nicole me

Are you doing a [REDACTED]

Excuse me

I have every right to be upset [REDACTED]

Call me if you want, give me shit

I welcome it

FULLY

No just answer me this

Because I get it

So the last time you cheated was just that once in 2017?

Yes or no

Nicole think what you're saying, cause I feel like you're making allowances

You told me about cheating okay

And your opinion on it

And what it would mean

Just answer

Yes or no

I'm not making allowances

Just answer

I'm sorry to put you through this, and I'm sorry things changed along the way, you hopefully could tell from that call in December that I really wanted to keep knowing you, really did

Sorry, I know

Not answering

Just wanted to say that quickly

Just answer

Tho I think I know the answer already

Like I said above, it sounds bad no matter what

But no

But, like I said, XYZ

What's XYZ

don't be vague with me

Other stuff that's not that, but still, like

Like what?

For example been nude around each other

Or hugged

Or stuff like that

So sex

Tell me everything

I have the right to know

Not sex

But after the thing I'm December with the neighbours, let's just say my mind wasn't right

Wasn't been for a while

I was there for you with that

And you still thought "oh I'm gonna go cheat on Nicole with an ex"?

Why don't you call me, you can say all this to me on voice, you can ask me questions, I can answer on the spot

I wish I could say that after we broke up, we continued as friends and that his cheating habit stopped once he started dating this girl, but sadly I can't. As he cheated on her several times, with me.

I'm not at all proud of this, as I would sometimes initiate flirting via text messages, just as he initiated sexual hook ups both via text and in person. I feel disgusting and despite friends reassuring me that I'm not entirely to blame given I was still in love with him and was manipulated, I will carry with guilt with me for a good long while.

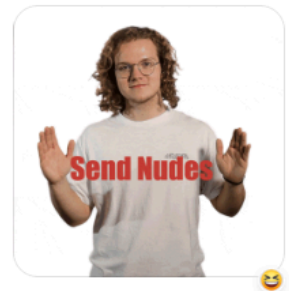

The first time this occurred was in May 2019. We had a meet up with some friends from The Sonic Show (back when it was run by Jay Eggman). This was the first time myself and Scourge had seen each other since our break up so it was a tad awkward at first.

We were all sleeping over at Jay's house to the launch of Team Sonic Racing and to see Detective Pikachu. Originally, Scourge and I wouldn't be sleeping in the same room, but we both decided that we would, purely for platonic reasons on my end. Whilst I was still very much in love with him, I wanted us to try to find closure and walk out as friends. I figured us sleeping in the same bed wouldn't be an issue as we had done in the past and I stupidly thought he wouldn't try anything, and that if he did I wouldn't give in.

It started with a cuddle (stupidly initiated by me) which led to him kissing me, and initiating sex. At first I said "No" as I felt it was wrong and asked about his girlfriend, he kept going despite my "No"s and I eventually gave in. This was the start of our many hookups behind his girlfriend's back. It makes me feel sick even typing it out and if I could go back in time to stop myself from even suggesting we share a bed to "talk", I would.

After this first hook up, I was led to believe that there was a chance we would get back together. It's why despite him always being the one to initiate sex, I would go along with it as at the time I felt what I can only describe as gaining "brownie points" with him. As if sex would help boost my chances of him dumping the girl he cheated on me with and getting back with me. Since I was at such a low point mentally, it made me possessive about him and admittedly I would sometimes pressure him to rethink his choice of girlfriend. It was a super toxic mindset to have and I am so sorry to his current girlfriend for this. I wish I could prove these sexual encounters happened but as they were in person, obviously it's hard to do so. The only thing I can do is show a screenshot from one of the last instances of our flirtations, back in 2020.

STOP

But

Penis

I kno I kno, it's tough

I can vibe with that

You can vibe with not getting nudes???

Send tiddies then, go on that's my vibe

W H O A

So forward

And aggressive

Frankly, I think you want to send nudes

You know you want to

Excuse you

I asked for nudes

You don't saying no 😊

*you're not oops

sorry, I was so distracted with nudes

Wut?

Wut?

Tiddies and vag?

Yeah??

Show me your vag first

But mine don't work that way - I gotta get all full-power first and the only way to achieve that is with your assistance

You have nudes of me, soooo

Are you in a horny mood?????

I approve 🍷

I would very much like to suggest that you channel your horny energy into something right now

You should recoooooord somethingggg

But wHy tho

They were amazin
Just wanted to see moreee cause the camera was so close in

I've always envisioned you having a camera leaned somewhere, and then you do something - even something as simple as get undressed cause THAT'S amazin too

And your booty would be out and MMMYESSS

I asked first
Bitch
I swear you got no manners 😂

You have nudes of me already Sooooooo

Yeah but Fuck you
Send nudes
Please

No shit
I haven't had sex in months

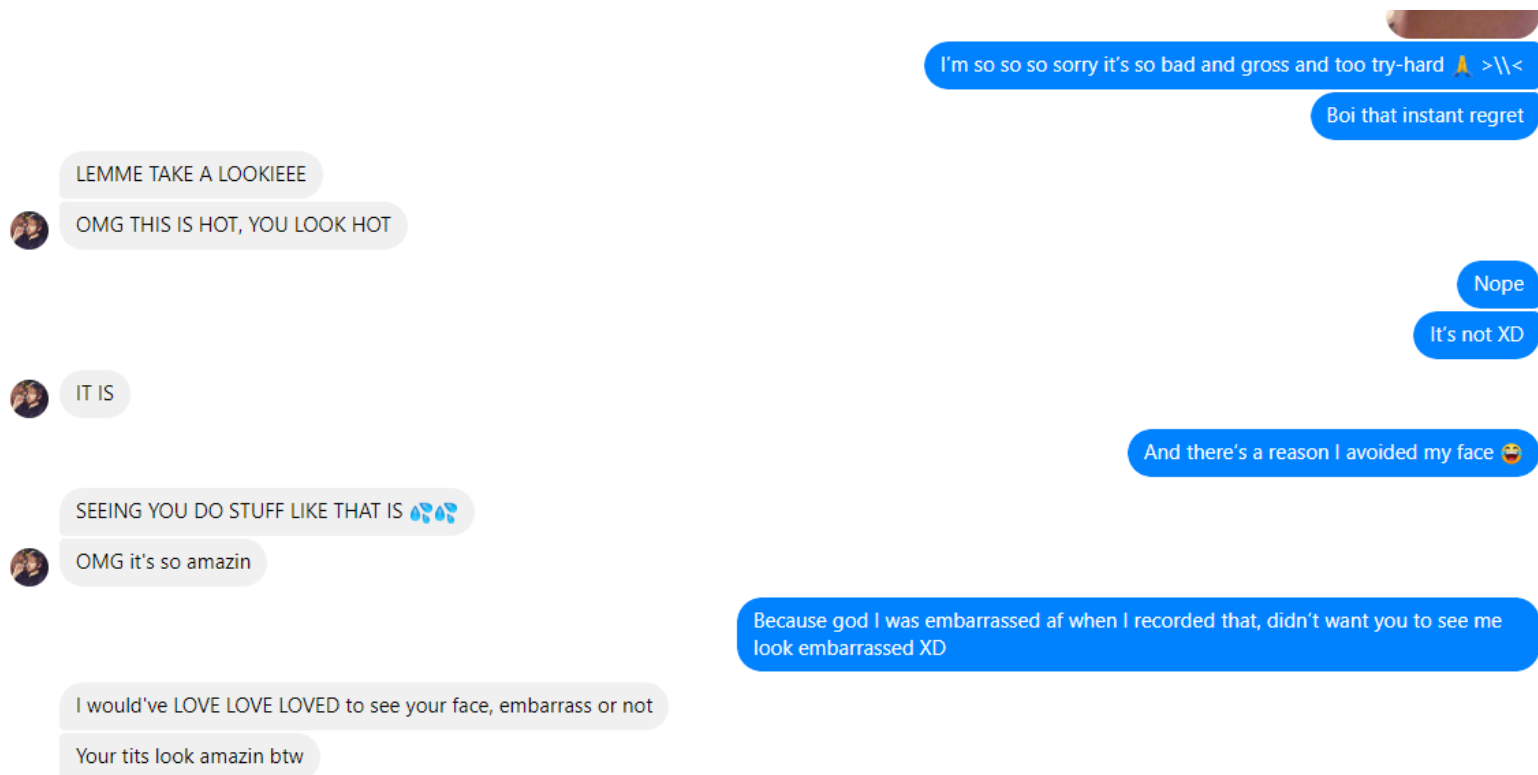

I mean overall I've been in a sort of needy mood with romantic stuff??
But yes currently I am the horny

Pfft XD
Nah

You know why! XD
It's embarrassing to record myself
Even those two videos I sent that one time was embarrassing because Ignore the because

STOP

STOPPPPP
that's so embarrassing DX

After many back and forths, especially on my end mentally, I cut ties with him. A year later (2022), we attended a mutual friend's wedding and I opened up conversation since we hadn't spoken for a year and he looked sad. We got to talking and things seemed good, except he kept commenting on my appearance and would constantly ask if he could stay in my hotel room that night "just to talk" and that he would "sleep on the floor". Thankfully, at this point I had wisened up and kept saying "No", despite his constant asking.

This was when I started to fully realise how he treated me and had already vented to some friends about it in the past.

I originally wasn't going to include this but was advised to by my friends and they are right that this needs to be shown, as much as it fills me with dread.

Nicole 11/03/2021 8:56 PM

So I want to start by saying that the reason I was scared to tell ANYONE this was because I was and still am frightened of how people will think of me. The only person who kinda knows this is but even he doesn't know the full story.

To put it simply, Scourge and I slept together, several times for a good year after we broke up. It would always be the same process, he'd come over, I'd give him space and hang out like we normally would minus the romance parts, and then he'd ask to go up to my room to "watch tv" tho it would always end up with him asking me for a cuddle and then he'd kiss me and well, it'd lead to sex. The first time it happened it actually happened at a sonic show meet up for team sonic racing, originally we weren't going to share a bed because the others were worried it'd be awkward. But somehow he convinced me to so we could "talk" about things which we did, I stupidly gave him a cuddle in a platonic way. Hell I went into that room with a platonic mindset. He kissed me, I said no since he was with fiona but he kept going and got more sexual which I kept saying no to more so because he was with fiona. Eventually I gave in and...sex. I didn't say anything and tbh you're the first person I've told. Besides that I've had to deal with this on my own for a year or two, more so because I was terrified and still am of what you'd all think of me. That you'd see see as an asshole for sleeping with him on

11/03/2021 9:00 PM

As I said in dm's. You didn't do anything wrong and have nothing to be sorry about. Everyone makes mistakes, especially when they are vulnerable and emotional. But what happened here wasn't a mistake on your part, it was emotional manipulation at best and rape at worst. You were taken advantage of. He cheated on you, made you break up with him, got with the girl that he cheated on you with, then pushed you at a time where you were broken and weak into cheating on his current gf. He used you knowingly, and physically and mentally took advantage of you. You did nothing wrong, and nobody here is going to look at you any differently for being put in a bad situation at a bad time by somebody else.

Nicole 11/03/2021 9:02 PM

But it wasn't just the once it was multiple times

11/03/2021 9:04 PM

That doesn't make it anymore your fault. Sure you shouldn't have hung out with him in person while you were still attached to him. That was a mistake, but you weren't in your right mind, and you were manipulated into going farther than you wanted to. He initiated the engagements, he pushed you after you'd say no. None of this is your fault.

You're naive, you were short sighted, you were still grieving a lost relationship. None of that is a

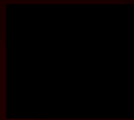

Nicole 11/03/2021 9:20 PM

I'm not defending him. He is guilty but I'm no better since I agreed to those times and let my feelings get the better of me and made me think he still genuinely cared

I'm the girl who was easy to sleep with

And no better than [redacted] and what she did

[redacted] 11/03/2021 9:21 PM

Nicole you didn't "let your feelings get the better of you" you were used

[redacted] 11/03/2021 9:21 PM

he manipulated you, it really wasn't you saying yes it was him making you say yes

[redacted] 11/03/2021 9:21 PM

Nicole 11/03/2021 9:22 PM

Please don't tell him I told you guys

[redacted] 11/03/2021 9:22 PM

You may think that you wanted to say yes, that your emotions made you want to. But he put you in that position

Nicole 11/03/2021 9:22 PM

Or tell anyone else

[redacted] 11/03/2021 9:22 PM

I don't talk to the guy

So hearing that Scourge was not only following Valaura around at Weston Super Sonic 2017 but also asking for inappropriate things despite being told “No”, tracks.

I feel personally responsible for a lot of what happened, I feel responsible for cheating with Scourge on his current girlfriend and I feel responsible for letting the relationship go on as long as it did even with his emotionally abusive tendencies. However, I've been informed time and time again by my close friends that what happened with me was textbook manipulation. That when I was cheated on I gave him a second chance because I still loved him. I kept him in my life even though my friends said he didn't deserve it. And because I still loved him I allowed myself to be around him physically even when I was warned against it, and that I was emotionally and physically manipulated into engaging in a sexual relationship with him again while he was dating the person he cheated on me with. I've been told that even though I feel responsible for all of this, and that I should be held accountable for some of it, this is an example of a person I dated for years cheating on me, dating the girl he cheated on me with, then coercing me back into a physical relationship behind that girl's back until I finally wised up and broke off all of that.

We haven't spoken since late 2022 (after I became strictly platonic with him) as he never messaged me again.

Birth Control

As I mentioned, during our time together as a couple, Scourge for the most part was a good boyfriend. He would look out for me and help with my anxiety. However, he did have moments where I would feel pressured by him into doing things I didn't feel comfortable doing. Such as taking the contraceptive pill.

Back in 2017, Scourge and I were sexually active and at the time were using condoms as a form of protection. He eventually approached me with the concept of me starting the contraceptive pill instead, at first I was very hesitant and stated as such. He kept explaining his side and whilst I still had my reservations, I eventually agreed to try it. I was on the pill for a few months but suffered from the worst migraines I've ever had, to the point some days I wasn't able to get out of bed.

One day in Spring 2018, I was rushed to hospital after suffering from a TIA - also known as a Mini Stroke. I couldn't see much, was slurring my words, couldn't raise my arms, etc. Overall a very scary experience. The doctors ran tests and everything came back normal. They asked if I was taking medication and I mentioned the birth control pill. After sending them a picture of the box, the doctors deduced that the pill was the cause and that I had a bad reaction. They advised me to stop taking the pill and that if symptoms continued, to report back to them for further testing. I stopped taking them the same day and immediately felt better and haven't had a single one of those symptoms ever since.

Scourge, after hearing of this, didn't take it well. He refused to believe that I had had a bad reaction to the pill and would often chastise me for it, even after we had broken up.

The reason I bring this up is to help back up Valaura's claims of Scourge getting annoyed when one of his requests wasn't met.

Screenshots taken during our relationship where I first started the pill

Well the nausea's gone down so that's good. So glad I don't have class till 2. Turns out the lesson today is just us working in class so I probably won't stay in for long.

My god that nausea hit me like a ton of bricks tho. I'm assuming it's my body getting used to the hormones from the pills.

I'm guessing? 😮

I know that nausea is the most known side effect from the pill tho my doctor said it depends on the body. Might have to ask mum if she had the same thing when she first went on the pill

Alrighty 🙌

Yeah

Of vomit

I have Emetophobia and it sucks major dick

Vomiting shouldn't be a thing when taking a birth control pill 🤢

No no it's not just vomit itself

The feeling of nausea can trigger Emetophobia sometimes. Tho with normal nausea like that I can handle pretty well, in comparison to a few years ago

It really is just a shame that this whole process is so difficult

This isn't supposed to normally happen

I'll get through it, my body is just getting used to it is all

It's just a pill 🥵

I'm sorry if my body reacts the way it does [REDACTED] 😞

Yea but that's your own fault, in the nicest possible way

I just see you stopping taking the pill coming

Excuse me?

"Excuse me"

lol

I didn't do anything to cause me to suddenly feel sick. I felt completely fine before it happened

Excuse me?

"Excuse me"

lol

I didn't do anything to cause me to suddenly feel sick. I felt completely fine before it happened

Then it just kinda hit me out of no where.

And why do you have to say stuff like "I can see you stopping taking the pill"?

It wasn't an argument, stop being triggered by me stating a fact

For goodness sake

You saying that you can see me stopping the pill isn't a fact tho lol. I never even implied that I would stop

I don't want to stop and I don't plan on stopping

 All I'm saying is I have a feeling

Please don't

Please trust me 😞 I'm not going to stop

 With your body behaving this way it's looking bad

It was just some nausea

If I actually threw up THAT would be way more concerning

 Yeah, but what if it keeps up?

I doubt it tbh

Even if it did I could handle it

I doubt it tbh

Even if it did I could handle it

I know you doubt me when I say that 😓 but please trust me

 I'm just stressed is all, that's why I say stuff

I know, and I know lately you've been especially stressed

 This process has been long and drawn out 😓

And I'm doing it now, so there's no reason to stress out over this

All I said was "I felt some bad nausea but it's fine now"

All I said was "I felt some bad nausea but it's fine now"

Not anything that hints to me wanting to stop taking it or anything like that

If anyone said that, it was my mum because she overreacts and she doubts me too 😊

Tbh minus the nausea part, I feel like I've reacted pretty well to the pill! 😊 plus I think my boobs have gotten slightly bigger, only slightly lol. So that's a good sign

 I just worry because I feel like you'll resent me

What do you mean?

I worried about this ages ago that's why I said to not bring up the pill again for a while

Ages back

 I wanted to do this for us. Because I know condoms can be a pain for you and in a way for me, plus whenever we tried without condoms it felt so much better (not that sex with a condom sucks lol) and I know the symbolism of it all means a lot to you and it means a lot to me that you want us to do it.

Plus it means we don't have to worry about buying condoms as much now lol

But please don't think that I'll think that you forced me because I don't think that at all!

And please don't think that I'll stop taking the pill because I won't. Not all because of some nausea lol

 Ok, I'm sorry 😞

After I had suffered from the TIA and stopped taking the pill, every time we had sex from that point on we used no birth control as Scourge refused to use condoms.

Screenshots taken during our relationship when I stopped taking the pill

5 MAY 2018 AT 12:18

Ya nevah shoulda stopped da pill

If yous worried about contraception

But dw, all is well x

Whoa whoa whoa

I didn't exactly choose to stop the pill

But but but ya kinda did 😏

So if I ever got pregnant it's my fault?

Oh boy I'm out 🙌🙌🙌🙌🙌

Im sorry if I get a little concerned at the chance of getting stuck with a baby, the pill isn't the only method to prevent that you know, it's not all on just me

Im sorry if I get a little concerned at the chance of getting stuck with a baby, the pill isn't the only method to prevent that you know, it's not all on just me

I have no comment

😞 I'm just saying is all

Your method to prevent pregnancy provides you with comfort, all girls have to do is swallow a pill and sit on their ass 😏

Mine involves wrapping a tight piece of shit round my sensitive organ

Ya know what let's wrap rubber inside your vagina

Tight, chaffing, uncomfortable rubber

And then I'll poke it

And it'll rub and grind and take a small layer of powdered skin off

I know and I understand that condoms aren't great for guys, but I DID try the pill and clearly it didn't work for my body

WRONG

You let the doctors convince you it didn't work

I obviously had some kind of reaction to it tho

I am sorry, but I will never stop believing that you hypochondriacized yourself into that

I truly, 100% believe that

I'm just saying, when your body has been lying down horizontally all night and then gets up, it's very common to experience dizziness

I swear to god I'm not BSing here

I'm really really not

I just think you trust quack doctors too much and I really don't like that you do that at all

Quack doctors?

Why don't you believe me at all?

Plus I already established that I'm pretty sure you don't know what a migraine feels like

You got out of bed one morning and thought that dizziness meant something was wrong with you

That isn't what I told you at all!

It wasn't one morning because I was tired or something

It was multiple times, like one time before my parents came to pick me up from my dorm before Christmas. Even in the evening I felt dizzy and could barely walk when I had that migraine

Christ all because I had some concerns about there being a chance that I could end up pregnant with the method we're doing now

EH? NO, when the quacks said OH IT'S THE PILL you went okkk

I wouldve gone ahem

EXPLAIN?

Please tell me the physiology of WHY it's the pill?

Oh sorry you can't? You're just assuming shit?

Hence, quack doctors

But at the same time I also don't want to wind up with a baby that neither of us want

Also, don't throw this at me, miss fkin defensive

Oh I don't want us to argue despite being defensive and starting to argue

Get that stick out ur ass

Can't STAND ppl like that Actually you were the one who pinned the blame on me first

Did I?

DID I???

Read back

Saying that if I shouldn't have stopped taking the pill

[REDACTED]

I physically cannot take it

They literally have it on my medical record now

Even if I wanted to keep going which I actually did, which I said MANY times, they wouldn't let me

Of course they do, and yet you still can't explain to me why that is Why? Because you didn't ask

You went OK

I just had a mini stroke [REDACTED]!

All the more reason to FUCKING ASK QUESTIONS

I was out of it and fucking terrified

Ohhhh so I should be saying why didn't [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] ask questions riiight, my bad

Okay fine

We'll keep doing the method we've been doing

But don't blame me if we get stuck with me being pregnant

You literally just confirmed that you were terrified and thereby willing to accept any answer they give

Tell you what I'm gonna talk to [REDACTED]

Id like to know how "out of it" you really were.

You're not going to bring her into this

She doesn't need to get involved in our disagreement

Tho once again I see you don't believe me

I've never lied to you [REDACTED]

I just don't like excuses is all, and I wasn't myself feels a bit excusy

But when have I ever lied?

I swear to god I wasn't myself at all that day

I'm not saying you're lying in saying you're making excuses

I was freaked out and felt out of it despite me talking to people, tbh I barely remember what I said that day

But you need my mum's confirmation on that? That fucking hurts [REDACTED]

Instead of admitting that maybe more questions should possibly have been asked you're hiding behind the "I was terrified"

I'm not like you [REDACTED]

I guess [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] mustve been too terrified to ask too

You're better at recovering from stuff like that

You're able to, I'm not

Even now it still freaks me out

Even tho it's been a month or so

And my main concern in relation to this is that we're using a method that some would say is unsafe against pregnancy, I just wanted to talk to you about it peacefully, not all this shit with us arguing and stuff

I'm done arguing [REDACTED], I REALLY don't want this to cause a rift between us, we clearly can't agree and I guess we don't need to, but I know we both don't want me to get pregnant, I just don't know what to do about it, and I don't WANT to force you to use a condom because I can imagine it's not pleasant for you

If you really think tho that I'm not bummed out about not taking the pill anymore then you're dead wrong

It honestly makes me feel like less of a woman, especially in your ey

You refuse to see what I'm saying and that bothers me, I'm giving you logic and you're refusing to absorb it

I know I should have asked more, even at the doctors and I'm sorry I didn't

Trust me I regret not asking more at the hospital too, but like I said I was still freaked out and stuff that it never came to my mind at the time to ask thoroughly

I don't have anything else to say on this really

If you want to have 1950's sex forever that's cool

Please don't be like that, I'm trying to make amends so that we can maybe come to a sort of compromise about this

Please don't be like that, I'm trying to make amends so that we can maybe come to a sort of compromise about this

I don't really know if there is one

Yeah that's the shitty part

The only thing we CAN agree on is that we don't want a kid right now

Well that means I'll have to avoid sex with you

What?

No no no

You don't mean that right?

Sex > either condom uncomfort, which means I'll hate the sex itself OR bareback, and you'll worry and worry and worry later on and I'll never hear the end of it

Those are my options

So yeah

If I could shrug via message I would

So you're put off from having sex with me now..?

Nicole srsly, what do you expect??? I'm supposed to not be?

Of course I'm unsettled now

Please don't we'll figure something out I swear

Sex shouldn't be as mad as this, it's insani' ↓

Sex shouldn't be as mad as this, it's insanity

It's just something people do, not something they have to FIGURE OUT

Jesus

I know and I'm sorry

I really am

I love you and the sex we have and I don't want that to change

I shouldn't have said anything 😞

I know I worry probably too much I'm probably over worrying with the sex thing and pregnancy

Especially when it's quite a low chance that'll happen

Let's leave it for now, but I'm not dropping this

I'll want to talk about it more

Do you still love me..?

Oh ffs

Yes nicole I love u

I didn't mean it in a bad way

I just wanted to make sure is all, I don't want to lose you and I feel like I am and I'm pushing you away 😞

Well bringing that up after an argument doesn't help the cause

"argue argue" followed by > "LOVE ME" is difficult to swallow

I'm sorry

I'm really really sorry

Screenshots taken after our relationship where I initiated the conversation by asking what factored into Scourge cheating/choosing his girlfriend over me

She's just very multifaceted, and can be very intense and does a lot of stuff

The pill thing is unfair, I know

So why does it factor into you cheating? 😂

And I was intense, our sex wasn't exactly gentle

And I got better

Anaemia of course affects the contraceptive. Fixing the iron-deficiency would then allow the pill to work. But we never got around to that, and the thoughts on the pill became "I'm never taking it"

And you did get better yes, but there's just a lot of things. Like verbalizing during sex, or oral, or the things you weren't willing to do but did two years later

██████ I am telling you that my anaemia had nothing to do with it

It really does tho

Even the (very shit doctor) said it

And we never agreed to do it again

Huh?

In fact you were accepting of condoms like a month ago

Only cause I gave up trying to prove to you what's causing your problems

IF

I tried the pill again

IF

I tried the pill again

To everyone else, I'm considered the smartest person (for better or worse), but with you, you didn't listen to me

Bruh you didn't listen to me either lol

Even tho I was telling you that's it's the anaemia affecting the pilll

 unsent a message

After the break up i suggested you don't jump into a new relationship and focus on sorting your issues out

But you didn't listen and jumped into a relationship anyway

After the break up i suggested you don't jump into a new relationship and focus on sorting your issues out

But you didn't listen and jumped into a relationship anyway

That's not the point tho

That's completely different yo

My point is that I don't see how anemia gave me horrible migraines and then ended up with me having a sort of stroke

From what I've seen if anything the pill affects anemia, not the other way round

Oral contraceptives highten the risk of ischemic strokes

And that's related to anemia how?

What is an ischemic stroke anyways

Because women with anaemia suffer from migraines, do you not? Well, if the taker has a history of migraines the risk increases tenfold

Answer: fix the anaemia. Fix the pill.

OR

Try another method

A different form of contraceptive, like the implant

Look

I might be interested in trying other forms or the pill again

Look

I might be interested in trying other forms or the pill again

But I'd only do it if I was in a serious relationship and there would be two conditions

Yeah now that we're NOT together 😊

I always knew that when it came down to it, some other guy would reap the benefits

Did I say that?

How do you know it wouldn't be you?

You never know

We might not end up getting back together tho Nicole

There are other instances of Scourge showing annoyance when I didn't want to appeal to his sexual urges/kinks that I won't show here as I feel the above screenshots are proof enough of my earlier statements.

Interaction W/ Another Minor

Sadly, this instance with Valaura isn't the only occasion where Scourge chatted to a minor with potentially inappropriate intentions, as he once DMed my friends who was a minor at the time.

Screenshots taken from these DMs, permission granted to me by my friend

I'm ashamed to admit at the time I didn't entirely believe anything malicious was happening here as my headspace was dedicated and loyal to Scourge. I've since apologised profusely to my friend for this and we have moved on from this instance.

Weston Super Sonic 2017

Now in terms of the original Reddit post and Weston Super Sonic 2017, I mentioned earlier that I was a witness to Scourge following Valaura around. Throughout the day he would stare at her and excuse himself from our table to hang out with her. It got to a point where I got annoyed and confronted Scourge about it after. He told me he felt bad for her being alone so felt she needed company. Based on Valaura's statement in her Reddit post being that she was with a small group of friends, this clearly was a lie.

I'm kinda worried to tell you what happened in case you take it the wrong way 😊

I think I just need to be more mindful, and not go overboard

No no it's okay, I understand that dreams are subconscious fears and stuff but don't think stuff like that, even for a second. I would never do that 😞

How did you go overboard?

Overboard is flirting and stuff, which you didn't do

Nor be abusive to you

Well, when I felt bad that she was on her own and that I told her to do that shadow thing, I kept walking over to talk I shouldn't have done that

Damn you saw 😊

"Message deleted" my ass

I guess the merlina thing bugged me more than I thought, probably didn't help that I watched the stream last night and read too much into seeing you look for her and walk off to see her. I know it's all silly and I'm overreacting and I'm sorry

You think going over to talk to her is overboard? Because it isn't

I just read into it too much, please it's ok

😞 I'm just sorry I made u feel this way

😞 I'm sorry

You didn't, it's all me

I'm being clingy and controlling

After being sent the Reddit post, I got in contact with Valaura to apologise for what she dealt with. I feel responsible in some way as I saw it happening but chose to believe him and not question it further, when I should have.

I'd always hoped any bad behaviour Scourge had was only targeted at me and no one else in the community. Deep down I always feared that there would be other girls affected too, and often thought about this Merlina cosplayer ever since the event.

I'm disgusted that Scourge would go after a 14 year old like this and to use a live stream of mine that he was in to make a creepy video aimed at her. I always saw good in Scourge, even now, and I know I shouldn't by all accounts. But actions like this make it impossible to do so.

The Sega Scourge is a danger to this community.

Conclusion

I want to apologise for keeping this from you guys for so long, and for selfish reasons. As a content creator with a decent platform, I have the power to help protect those from people like The Sega Scourge and I failed, so for that I severely apologise and wish I could properly make up for it in an actually effective way. As I stated in the beginning, I understand if people who have read this far no longer wish to support me or my work. I understand if you view me in a negative light. Because whilst Scourge is 1000% the more guilty out of the two of us, I'm not innocent.

One last thing I want to ask, please do not harass The Sega Scourge. The ONLY reason I made this document and told you guys the truth was to spread awareness. To help protect people in this community from the likes of him. By going to him and harassing him, it doesn't help anyone.

As it is, he will most likely be made aware of this document, see it and react in a negative way, as he has the right to. I don't want more trouble to be brought to my doorstep due to fans who think they're helping me by attacking him when they are not. Plus, despite all he put me through, I did once love him with all my heart. So there is still a level of care I have for him and don't want to see him going through with any death threats he receives. The main outcome I personally want from this, is for him to leave the community at this stage, and live his life outside of the Sonic community.

So please for the love of god listen to me when I say to LEAVE SCOURGE ALONE. I know most likely there'll be those who won't listen, and I ask that people stop anyone you see attack Scourge publicly. I wouldn't have made this document and told you guys everything I just did unless it was for the better of the community. The safety of the community is the most important thing here.

If I wanted a witch hunt, I would have exposed him years ago. But I didn't for a reason. Just block him/report him/whatever and leave it at that, for my sake and in a weird way his.

Hopefully I got everything that would be needed in something like this, but if not I'll be sure to update this Google Doc. I'm so sorry if this is all over the place, again I never wanted this to become a reality.

I'm just so sorry.
