

Rules and Addendum for ENTM YT-3

- I. No photo manipulation software is allowed throughout any period of the try-outs or competition. (This includes SweetFX, Photoshop, etc.)
- II. Screenshots may be taken with the use of others taking them for you with the same rules above applying. You do not need to use your own PC,PS3/4.
- III. Always be courteous towards your fellow models, the judges, the mentors, and of course the host(s).
- IV. Host and judges ruling are the final say. Please try to remember, we all are taking time out of our own personal time to put this together for us all as a whole for the community.
- V. Respect each other with lots of love. If multiple harassment cases come up or finding out any rule has been broken, you will be automatically disqualified from the competition.
- VI. Have Fun!

Model Information:

Any and all players may try out for ENTM YT3, with the exception of former winners of both Forum and Youtube editions of ENTM. All genders and anyone on any system, PC/PS3/4 are all welcome!

Judge/Mentor Information:

In order to try out for a judge or mentor spot, you must have participated in at least one round of ENTM any previous cycles. If it calls for asking outside help, I'll figure that out when we come to that bridge. You are also allowed to try out if you were a judge/mentor in a previous cycle as well. You must have made it past the prelims from earlier cycles as well and been an actual model for the Judge/Mentor position. Thank you all.

Judges Score System:

- First and foremost do not take actual screenshot quality into consideration. All platforms are welcome, and that is not the point of this competition.
- Stand firm with your judgements and critiques. Stand by what you say, your face and character/voice will be up front for all to hear. If you can't say these things to someone in person to their face, I'd suggest not attempting to say them here. Please and thank you.
- Give actual critiques. Show them what went wrong, give some ideas that might help them improve further into the competition! And above all else, do not be rude or nasty. Your critique will be asked for resubmission if any foul language or dishonest means comes up after being reviewed.
- A new point system!
- Judges shall submit their scores for the following categories:

1. Glamours and outfit - 25 points
2. Location - 25 points
3. Lighting and angles - 10 points
4. Over all theme and execution of said theme - 40 points

With a possible score of 100 total, being the highest.
