Introduction: A Bill to establish peace between England & Scythia, while also setting up a border.

Section I: Purpose

- In an effort to avert an extermination war against the Scythians and put an end to a war stalemate, the Cag-Oba Convention aims to set up a framework for a new border and peace terms with them.

Section II: Terms for Peace

- The following are terms of peace that both England and Scythia will follow moving forward:
 - English Terms:
 - i. The following cities will fall under English control;
 - » The city of Olbia
 - » The city of Issyk
 - » The city of Pokrovka
 - » The city of Solokha
 - ii. England will receive gold and resource reparations.
 - » Resource reparations are referred to Strategic resources (iron, nitre, etc.), diplomatic favor, and great works
 - Scythian Terms:
 - i. The city of Gelonus will be returned to the Scythian government.

Section III: New Border

- A new border will be established between the two countries. The border will be established between Caguna and Kul-Oba.
 - Any troops beyond this line must be sent back towards the English border.

Section IV: Violation

- Should Scythia break one of the following, England may be allowed to declare war:

- Scythia produces WMDs.
- Scythia declares war on Caguna.
- Scythia declares war on our allies or us.
- The Scythian military exceeds 850 points.
