

Aurora Taxes Under Richard Irvin's Leadership

Aurora Utility Taxes

In Just 4 Years As Mayor, Richard Irvin Raised Aurora's Utility Tax On Natural Gas By 400% And Raised Tax Rates On Electricity.

Year	Utility – Natural Gas*	Utility – Electric
2017	1 cent	0.202 to 0.330 cents
2018	1 cent	.3 to .61 cents
2019	3 cents	.3 to .61 cents
2020	5 cents	.3 to .61 cents
2021	5 cents	.3 to .61 cents

Measured per therm*

 Measured per kilowatt-hour*

City of Aurora, Budgets, [2017; 2018; 2019; 2020; 2021; proposed 2022]

Aurora Property Taxes

In Just 4 Years As Mayor, Richard Irvin Raised Aurora's Property Tax Levy By $11,332,793 – 13.09% – From When He Took Office.

2017 Aurora Levy: $86,598,400 [Aurora 2018 Budget]

2018 Aurora Levy: $88,726,400 [Aurora 2019 Budget]

2019 Aurora Levy: $95,086,250 [Aurora 2020 Budget]

2020 Aurora Total Levy: $97,931,193

2020 Aurora Levy: $84,700,300 [Aurora 2021 Budget]

NOTE: The decrease “is caused by the removable of the Library Operating Fund from the city's budget.” [Aurora 2021 Budget]

2020 Library Budget: $13,230,893 [Aurora Library 2020 Budget]