

Master Permanent Makeup Specialist Colette LiPari has built her career working with leading plastic surgeons and aestheticians in prestigious medical centers across the Philadelphia and New Jersey area. Her work blends art, science, and luxury.

Specializing in realistic results, she excels in Nanoblading, the new microblading technique for 3-D hairstroke realism for brows, soft shaded eyeliners, and lip blush tattooing.

At Femme in Ink LLC, Colette helps clients simplify their beauty routine while restoring confidence. Whether enhancing brows, defining lips, or providing reconstructive tattooing, she is dedicated to making her clients feel beautiful and empowered.

Her fine art skills, honed at Parsons School of Design, elevate her Areola work for cancer patients, while her experience in Fashion Illustration drives her interest in feminizing faces and Top Surgery for the transgender community. Colette finds deep fulfillment in creating 3-D Areolas for breast cancer survivors, winning 1st Place in "NewPMU's" Best Areola contest among 900 international professionals.
