Allendale Columbia students Dom Infante, Jess Chapados, Wyatt Wilmont, Vany Mai, Eli Rubelman and Mari Martinez were recognized in the Regional Scholastic Art & Writing Awards. This program honors the top creative works in the region, with Gold Keys awarded to the top 7–10% of entries, Silver Keys to the top 8–15%, and Honorable Mentions celebrating outstanding achievement. With nearly 90,000 regional awards presented nationwide each year—and fewer than 1% of entries earning top honors at the national level—this recognition is an incredible accomplishment. Eli Rubelman and Dom Infante will advance to national judging.

Now well into its second century, Allendale Columbia is a leading independent coed school for students 18 months old through grade 12. Here, learning goes far beyond books and tests. We have the freedom to dig deeper so students can question more, discuss, debate and question again. As a result, our students develop critical thinking skills and become effective problem solvers. Our faculty members use their independence and experience to connect knowledge to real life so our students can make more sense of the world—and their place in it. It all adds up to a different school of thought: high expectations and relevant experiences that prepare students to succeed in a global community.
