

Aliens or Extra-Dimensional beings as we all should know by now have done and are still doing many terrible things to human beings and they always try to justify it and brainwash people into thinking "it's not so bad, you guys do this to your animals" or "it was all necessary for our and your survival" or even "you chose this before you were born" in an attempt to numb humans to their obvious abuse and outright sadistic tendencies. I've already made a post in the past showcasing some of the more terrible actions done by NHI so this one can be seen as a sequel post to that.

This is the previous showcase post regarding negative NHI actions and behavior:

In this post, we will be delving into some more alien encounters that not only reveal how these beings view us as a species but also how they treat us on the whole because of said views. As mentioned by these beings many times to abductees, experiencers, contactees, channelers, etc, these beings "love us" and tend to lovebomb these individuals and paint themselves as wise sages compared to our 'young student' minds. In reality, this is all just an act to brainwash people into their propaganda and when you actually get these beings to take off the new age mask they wear in front of us, their true view of us is shown crystal clear as day.

"Do you understand who I am?" "Yes." Said the witness; "But why you assume such shape?" The alien then told her that he just wanted to talk to her. The witness then invited him into her bedroom. Strangely, her husband was nowhere around. She then asked the alien if he understood the Russian language, he answered in the affirmative. "And why don't you communicate during the daytime? People would gladly let you come in and enter in contact with you." The alien answered, "I would gladly answer your question at the end of our conversation. And I would like to talk with you on how you imagine the history of the development of your society... She then asked the alien visitor, "Why don't you want to communicate with us?" He answered that they had already studied the Earth in depth and that humans would not understand their interest. The alien added that the Earth could not be a member of their interplanetary "relations" since its level of morality was very low. He explained that their task was to establish new ties between civilizations in the Universe, but that it was very difficult to establish communications with humans, explaining that firstly, human science denies them and that humans were very aggressive. He added that somehow humankind had taken the wrong path and was at a dead end. He said that humans had a very inert way of thinking, a trait inherent with all humans...

The alien's answer was short and to the point, "No you don't understand. You have too many dark bestial areas. You must get away from your own excrement." (?) The alien also added that he has not seen such an intricate planet as Earth in the whole Universe as of yet. And added that if science really wanted to, it could understand many basic things about interstellar communications, but it was at this present moment excluded due to our aggressiveness... She then asked the alien what was his place of origin. He answered with a question; "Do you know astronomy?" She answered that since she was a biologist she didn't know a lot about it. The alien then said that he was from "so far away" that it was impossible to explain in terrestrial terms. Next he mentioned that the Earth was a very "convenient" place for them "to communicate." The witness was under the impression that humanity or Earth was not something important or significant for the aliens. She took offense to that and the alien apparently sensed it and told her, "We won't be here for long, we are only gathering information."

The alien then said that their kind was amazed to see how humans separated each other, in states, provinces, countries, races etc. He emphasized that their society had no such separations. The alien society had only a substantial difference between the young and the old. He insisted they were trying to learn more about humans, but his answers to her questions were mostly short and evasive, at times explaining, "You will not understand." He added that he did not understand terrestrial "love;" he understood the family unit and said that they did not have families. He said that there were no states in their society, the state order or tribal system was pure savagery, according to the alien. He then went on to say that the act of reproduction was not an act of love, that it was a "business" and necessary matter. He added that their kind of love was quite different from that of humans and it was mainly an exchange of information and knowledge. Only those who love could spread the light of "knowledge" and to prevent surrounding entities from remaining in the evil darkness. They emanate information in forms of "ecstasies" that human beings do not understand. He then mentioned that it was a good feeling that for him to know that the witness really loved her planet.

The Alien added that they were surprised at the fear of death that existed on Earth. It seemed to them that the feeling of fear was the ruling force on Earth. Death was just the process when one's "worn-out biological suit" is taken off. "Do you have hatred?" The alien's reply was; "We don't understand that concept and also we do not understand the concept of human love. You simply speak and believe what you have been taught or just speculation. Humans are complete contradictions..."

"What is our future?" asked the witness. "Your planet will not die," he replied. However the witness felt that the alien had an uncaring attitude towards humans, as if he really did not care one way or another. His last statement was; "You have an awful way of dictating knowledge to your Children. When the way of your cognition changes, so will your morality."

What's especially interesting about this 1977 Russian case is that the entity did in fact confirm that there is an afterlife and referred to the physical body as a "worn-out biological suit". This type of terminology regarding the human body in reference to death is very common among alien abductions and encounters where they always say that the soul persists after death and that they have knowledge on where these souls go (since they're the ones who control the afterlife). A few other interesting aspects to this case is that the alien said that it didn't understand human emotions like love and hatred, it's kind didn't have any differences and were essentially like a hivemind of sorts, and that earth and humanity were not important in its eyes. All of this shows something that I've talked about many times before in the past and that is that these aliens want us to become a hivemind like them. As stated by the entity itself, it said that all of the things that make us human are savage, simple minded, and are holding us back from being let into the big galactic clubhouse as it were. The entity not understanding love really says a lot about how these beings behave in general since many times, the aliens that are reported in encounters show clear signs of sociopathy in that while they can fake emotions and make people feel certain things, their actions show complete apathy and even disdain towards humans. The fact that the alien called reproduction a 'necessary business' is also concerning as the language used implies that they need people to procreate in order to fulfill an agenda (harvesting loosh from more trapped souls).

There are many other cases where these beings outright state or heavily imply they hate humanity and an interesting correlation I've noticed is that the cases that involve misanthropy or apathy towards humans, the beings most of the time state that there is an afterlife and knowing what we know about how these aliens treat souls in the afterlife with the reincarnation soul trap and false astral afterlives, it becomes very eye-opening as it confirms that these beings view us as nothing more than food and slaves who need to submit to their rules.

"A ladder came out of the object and three aliens descended from the bottom section of the disk. When the round hatch opened, Bodnya clearly heard metal clacking. The aliens were very tall, close to 3 meters in height. They looked very much alike, almost like twins. Their faces were elongated, large eyes, rounder than the humans, long noses, high foreheads, grayish-bluish skin, and thin lips. They were dressed in silver reflecting tight-fitting overalls with head covering. One of the aliens was obviously the leader, he was gigantic in stature with broad shoulders; at least one meter taller than the other two aliens, and he wore a sort of "apron" in the front with a light on his breast area. He was apparently giving orders to the other two. The giant had even white teeth, wide dense brown beard, and light brown hair, light colored eyes and a powerful voice. One of the younger crewmembers was in great distress as a result of their misfortune and was mumbling something and crying. In a harsh tone, the giant leader ordered him to stop. The witness could not understand a thing but the meaning was obvious...

Soon Bodnya noticed a wolf slowly approaching his horse and yelled at the leader, "Look; a wolf!" In a moment the leader stretched his hand and emitted some kind of thunderous beam that killed the wolf instantly. "Where are you from?" Asked Bodnya. The giant answered by pointing at the sky and said, "From there." "Is there a God?" Bodnya asked next, "God? Maybe," answered the giant, who then asked Bodnya what was he doing there alone. He explained to the giant that he had been pasturing the bulls and horses...

The aliens informed Bodnya that their planet was sterile and that they were vegetarians and that they had a base on the moon, which was covered with a transparent glass dome. They expressed contempt towards the human race and refused to reveal the location or name of their home planet. They confirmed to the witness that there was life after death and predicted coming catastrophes that would affect humanity. When Bodnya asked them why they didn't contact humanity openly, their curious answer was, "Why don't humans contact those in an insane asylum?"

In this 1947 case from Kazakhstan, the beings straight up refused to tell the witness where they come from and were vague in their answers on purpose since they expressed contempt for humanity and even compared humans to insane asylum patients. Just like with the previous case from Russia, the entities confirmed the existence of life after death and were vague on if God existed. An interesting side note to this case is that they mentioned having a base on the moon, if they had such contempt for the human race then why are they near Earth at all and on the moon no less exactly similar to other alien abductions where the abductees say that there are alien bases on the moon.

In some NDEs, it is shown that souls actually go up directly to or near to the moon (<https://www.trickedbythelight.com/tbtl/moon.html>) and combining this with the existence of alien bases there as mentioned not only by alien abductees but remote viewers/astral projectors as well and the reincarnation soul trapping system that humans are in currently, it becomes obvious that the moon is a soul catcher that recycles and harvests souls when they die and or try to escape Earth after death since as seen in some cases, if the person tries to escape the Earth, they are promptly stopped by "loved ones", "ascended masters", "angels", "God" etc.

So we've established that these aliens view us in an extremely inferior light but how low do they view us exactly? Well according to many cases, it has been shown and implied that these beings view us on the exact same level as the animals on this planet. Humans are not seen as 'sentient' by these beings and they treat us how we treat our animals here for meat. It becomes even more messed up when you realize that these aliens know that there are non-humans incarnated in human bodies and still perform all these horrific acts on them, I talked about this in my "The Betrayal of NHI incarnates" post (<https://www.reddit.com/r/EscapingPrisonPlanet/s/ukERKfaAcw>) but what this means is that whenever they harvest a human host body or enslave or eat it, they're torturing their fellow alien souls and are eating them physically and energetically which makes them inherently cannibals. Such cases showcasing humans being treated similarly or exactly like animals are extremely disturbing since these aliens proclaim to be "ambassadors of peace and light and knowledge" and yet they are shown treating us like meat in a butcher shop like in this 1948 case where a young Russian boy was put in a cage and had to convince the aliens to free him and other trapped humans onboard their craft and saw these beings kill a man right in front of him and take his organs:

https://archive.org/details/humanoid-encounters-1930-1949-by-albert-s-rosales-promo_compressed/mode/1up (Pages 369-373)

"After some time a door on the "saucer" opened and three humanoid entities walked out of it. They were very thin and tall, wearing silver suits. V.Z. stood transfixed or paralyzed to the same spot. The aliens approached him, took his hand and led him into the landed craft. At first they appeared in a very narrow and small corridor. The aliens closed a door and then a second one and took the boy into a small room along the narrow corridor. Half of the room was occupied by 4 cages made out of metallic rods. In one of these cages the boy saw a bear, in the second one; a woman and in the third; three men of Caucasian appearance, and in the fourth; a man of Slavic descent. The boy was then placed together with the last man, in the same cage. V.Z. recollected and comprehended all of this only later, because at the time he was seized with horror...

He could neither scream nor resist, he was in a trance-like state, his will to resist had been totally neutralized. As soon as the boy and aliens entered the room, the bear began dashing around the cage and growling, and the woman began screaming in hysterics. She was undressed, naked, her hair disheveled, her eyes fixed in a wild stare and she was foaming at the mouth. The three Caucasian men knelt down and began to pray loudly in an unknown language (evidently in Arabic). The Slavic man attempted to calm the boy, bringing the boy to his senses and distracting him from the horrible things around him... The aliens took out an "operation table" from the wall, and put one of the Caucasian men on it. The man seemed totally helpless and did not resist. The Slavic man then pulled the boy close to him and began talking to him, distracting his attention and calming him down. The boy remembered that the tall thin aliens were now dissecting the body of the Caucasian man on the operation table, and there was not even a folding screen to cover this gory and bloody event from the witness. Then the aliens collected all the pieces of the unfortunate man and placed them in a box, washed out the blood and left the room".

"These two aliens began to communicate with Sasha asking him who he was and how he was able to "resist" so well. The humanoids were curious as to why the other "creatures" they had captured were in such a low level of development. Sasha explained to them that the other three humans in the cages were of very low level of education and the female had probably gone insane from fear. As for V.Z. Sasha pointed out that he was a smart human but lacked "technique," he then pointed out that the last creature in the other case was not human at all but a "bear" or animal without any human emotions or intellect. In response the aliens told him that their aim was to study the surrounding space (space exploration). They had always considered the population of Earth as being at a very low level of development. But when earthlings began testing atomic bombs in 1945 they became interested and decided to conduct in depth studies of the human civilization".

The aliens in this abduction couldn't distinguish between our level of sentience and a bear's and even said that they viewed our species as being at a very low level of cognitive development. This shows us that these beings literally viewed humans as just another wild animal on Earth to be gutted and used for their own purposes, despite these beings proclaiming to be intelligent, they always seem to gloss over the fact that what they do is inhumane and humiliating for us and isn't something a fellow sentient being would do to another sentient life form and speaking of humiliation and inhumane treatment: <https://alienjigsaw.com/et-essays/Alien-Bathrooms.html>

"I remember seeing a very tan female but her skin looked like chocolate or something not of this world. Her hair was an intense blond color with darker stripes in it. She also had intense strange eyes. She was near a 7-foot tall alien who was very thin with a very tall head or skull. The skull was narrow and covered with dark skin. There was a distinct bathroom scene from this night. There was a shower with feces on the floor. It was a communal bathroom with three women in it. I told them, 'Well, I guess this means we're all abductees...' and one of the women nodded and sighed, 'yeah...' " (2006)"

"I think the next thing I saw was a tiny triangular area made out of wood that was supposed to be a toilet. Then the next thing I know, I'm in a small room using a toilet. There is a half-wall next to me and there's a lot of toilet paper around the toilet. There are also a pair of child's panties lying on the ground with what looks like urine saturated in them.

I used the bathroom and looked to my right and saw two young people watching me. They weren't normal. They were like children, but they were not children. I have been through this before and decided to keep urinating, since I had to go so badly. I looked at them and said sarcastically and rather tiredly, 'I just love using the bathroom with people watching me.' They do this a lot, and I'm tired of it." (2007)"

"I did have to use the loo whilst there and it was of typical ET construct; somewhat large and square with two doors on either side that bolted from the outside so one has no privacy whilst inside. They control these rooms in this fashion – it's always the case. This one had a square sink like object that someone had used as a toilet as it was full of white tissue saturated with urine and it also had feces on it. Attached to that and on the floor was a larger 'toilet' area that was raised about 6 to 8 inches above the ground that had a raised area, and this was also a toilet. I decided to use that since it was cleaner." (2015)"

That's right, there are indeed restroom like areas on these UFOs and in these alien bases for humans to use except that these areas offer no privacy, they're extremely unhygienic and disgusting, and yet again show how little care these aliens have for their human captives, treating them like animals at a zoo rather than individuals and the this article even says that they most likely don't care about doing the bare minimum for us here, "It's possible the communal or very public nature of most extraterrestrial bathroom settings is because of ET telepathy: "All is Known" so there's no need for privacy... Another possible reason for the odd and embarrassing alien bathroom scenarios is that most of the ETs simply don't care about servicing our biological need to relieve ourselves, just as a zoo or a veterinarian's office would not care whether the animal has privacy or whether it's kept clean. Some believe zoos are for educational purposes, but at the end of the day, they exist for voyeuristic and monetary purposes (tourism). A veterinarian's office or hospital visit is of a temporary nature, consisting of performing medical procedures and then releasing their patients back to their owners. Also, ETs probably do not defecate or urinate as humans do and if they do, their biological functions may be so different from ours that bathrooms such as we are accustomed, do not exist because they are not necessary".

The most shocking and disturbing account of these alien restrooms is obviously the one where it took place in an underground area and the bathroom had "child panties lying on the ground with what looks like urine saturated in them". This heavily implies that a child used this restroom and for some reason left their underwear behind, which means that whoever this was was not only in the nude but also since the bathroom offered no privacy, they might have been watched using the restroom... I don't have to explain how disgusting the implications of this are, these beings are allegedly so advanced and caring but they stalk kids using the restroom and allow kids to be nude in their presence even though they already have a firm grasp on our psychology which means they already know that doing stuff like this to kids is very wrong but they still do it anyways even if the child is uncomfortable as shown in many abductions where the kids are frightened by these beings and even breakdown crying.

Hammering in the point even more that these aliens treat us no different to other animals on Earth, there are some cases that suggest that some of these beings hunt us similarly to hunters who kill wildlife for food such as in the infamous 1977 "Chupa-Chupa" or blood sucking UFOs of Brazil, Colares that shot beams of light at multiple individuals which caused burning sensations and radiation symptoms to appear on their bodies alongside other negative side effects that the witnesses had to endure.

<https://www.ufocasebook.com/colares1977.html>

"In 1977, the Brazilian island of Colares was visited by flying objects of an unknown nature. Nearly all kinds of UFOs were seen: big, small, saucer-shaped, cigar-shaped, luminous or not. They arrived from the North every day, from the sky and sometimes from underwater, which lasted for months. Regularly, some Island inhabitants were targeted by the objects, sending strange rays to them, and many were badly hurt, with two reported dead. The Army intervenes, and the press follows. 35 people were hurt by the strange rays, and many fled from the Island...

Sr. Sebastiao Vernek "Zizi" Miranda described his experience as follows: "I was there with my wife, Palmira, in front of the church on the sea-front, when at about 8.00 pm, we saw an intensely vivid "orangish" light coming in from the sea towards the town. As it approached, it climbed, and then, moving rapidly, vanished towards the inner part of the Island." The barber Carlos Cardoso de Paula (aged 49), living at Travessa Deodoro da Fonseca No. 231, had a still closer encounter with the "lights", as he relates: "Everybody else was asleep. I was just still having my last smoke when suddenly a ball of fire entered our house up near the ridgepole of the gable. It started shooting round and round the room, and then finally came right close to my hammock. "It ran up my right leg as far as the knee (without touching my skin). I watched with much curiosity as it then moved across to the other leg. Then I started to feel feeble and sleepy. My cigarette fell from my hand and I came to and let out a yell. The fireball quickly vanished and everybody woke up. "I think it had been searching for a vein in my body but didn't manage to do so. As its brightness grew, I felt a sort of heat coming from it."

Actually, so many more people reported being attacked by beams of light from small UFOs in this area that only few of them are mentioned here.

On October 20, three women were hit in the breast by the beams of light: "All three were overcome by tremendous nervous tension and an unknown sort of lassitude as though they were receiving constant electric shocks," wrote a newspaper.

On the evening of October 29, Benedito Campos and his seventeen-year-old wife Silvia Mara were at home when "they spotted an oval, silvery object emitting a greenish beam like a searchlight towards the room where they were lying. "Filled with curiosity, they approached a small window and, as they did so, the beam shot in through it, and made straight for Silvia, throwing her into a sort of benumbed trance-like state." Silvia, who was pregnant at the time, then fainted, whereupon two entities entered the house carrying something resembling a golden torch and "once again the beam struck Silvia, this time hitting her in the left arm at the level of the wrist. "Her veins seemed to 'rise up out of the body' so swollen were they by the beam striking them." Later, while at a neighbor's house, Benedito was also briefly paralyzed by a light beam. Fearing a miscarriage, the husband and wife were taken at night by boat to the Mosqueiro Medical Clinic, followed by the UFO, which made no further attempt to harm them. They remained there for three days while the wife recovered, but Benedito "was in a state of severe depression for some days, his motor functions disturbed and, as his mother reports, weeping frequently."

The UFO activity over Colares Island was so intense that the people began to think the "Chupa-chupas" were trying to make some sort of contact with them. Such was the view expressed by Sr. Raimundo Ferreira "Mimi" Monteiro. He still believes the craft was coming up out of the sea or out of some underwater base located in the Bay of Marajó, possibly in the region of the Caldeirão. Alfredo Bastos Filho, a former town mayor, confirmed this and said: "Yes, indeed I can tell you, there wasn't a moment of peace. The populace were terrified by that "Chupa-chupa" affair. I even managed to see one of the injured victims myself - Dona Mirota, a lady who was receiving medical treatment at the Health Clinic." The locals became so frightened that many of the women and children left town. The men that remained lit bonfires to mount guard at night, letting off fireworks and banging tins whenever they saw the Chupa-chupas approaching. Others locked themselves in their homes for fear of the phenomenon. It was mentioned later that the more din people made and the more bonfires and fireworks, the closer the craft came.

By November 1977 doctor Wellaide Cecim Carvalho, the physician in charge of the health unit on Colares Island, took care of to some 35 people claiming to have been touched by the strange light.

She took blood samples, and concluded that the victims suffered from generalized hypothermia, superficial chronic headache, burnings, intense heat, nauseas, tremors in the body, giddiness, asthenia and presented very small orifices in the skin where they were hit by the rays. She wrote: "All of them had suffered lesions to the face or the thoracic area." The lesions, looking like radiation injuries, "began with intense reddening of the skin in the affected area. Later the hair would fall out and the skin would turn black. There was no pain, only a slight warmth. One also noticed small puncture marks on the skin.

The victims were men and women of varying ages, without any pattern." In describing their experiences with these light beams, most victims claimed that "They were immediately immobilized as if a heavy weight pushed against their chest. The beam was about [seven or eight centimetres] in diameter and white in color. It never hunted for them but hit them suddenly. "When they tried to scream, no sound would come out, but their eyes remained open. The beam felt hot, 'almost as hot as a cigarette burn,' barely tolerable. "After a few minutes the column of light would slowly retract and disappear." Most symptoms usually disappeared after seven days. "

At Agulhas Fincadas, Mrs. Maria Lopes, an inhabitant of Vila Gorete, to the margins of Rio Tapajós, in the neighborhoods of Santarém (Pará), tells her case involving "strange devices" that absorb energy from human beings, known as Chupa-Chupa. "I saw an object to settle quietly in the bushes here close... It had left two men and a woman, who had started to move with two fishing," counts Maria. Other people in the place had been paralyzed when observing the scene... In many cases, the marks left by the rays on the victims skin were marks that could have up to eight small holes. In these occurrences, the Chupa-Chupa term was proven right as many of them had lost up to approximately 300 ml of blood, from these wounds".

<https://documents.theblackvault.com/documents/MUFON/Pratt/prato.pdf>

"Claudomira Rodrigues da Paixão, 35 - Heard by the chief of the Second Section (Sgt. Flávio) - She said she was sleeping in a hammock in a room with her cousin and her children. She saw a light (the town's electricity had been shut off at 22:00) that traveled all over her body (like a lantern), striking her on the left side of her chest, sucking (blood from it), The light went down the back of her right hand where it felt as if she had been pricked by needle. She tried to cry out for help, but couldn't make a sound. Her body was half-paralyzed. Everything was totally lit by a greenish light. She felt a strange torpor. She was aroused by her cousin, who also saw the light and screamed. Claudomira cried out, "I am ruined (sic), the 'animal' sucked me. She felt great heat in the breast and the back of the right hand, a headache, and pressure on her chest. She was treated by Dr. Wellaide, who sent her to the IML (Instituto Medico Legal, or medical examiner's office in Belém). There she was examined by a doctor and told to come back for another examination".

In some of these reports of the "Chupa-Chupa" lights in the sky, there were humanoids being reported to have been seen inside of or leaving these craft and shooting people with the same beams of light that took away their blood. All of this clearly shows that during this 'flap' of activity in Brazil, they needed human blood (most likely for hybridization purposes/creating more humans or possibly even using the blood to drink since as shown and implied in certain cases, these beings do eat human flesh and organs) which again goes against the new age and more positive interpretations of these beings since it completely contradicts the whole 'consent' and 'love' narrative.

Do not be fooled by these destructive and unintentionally harmful narratives parroted by many individuals, these beings view us as animals to be hunted, eaten, enslaved (pets), and tortured for their own personal gratification and another example of this behavior is the most obvious and prevalent phenomenon of women being forced to give birth to hybrids or regular human children on UFOs similarly to how human breeders breed animals for meat and to prolong nearly extinct species. I've talked about this before multiple times in the past but these beings view human women as nothing more than incubators to pop out more humans and going back to that one 1977 Russian encounter where the alien said that "procreation was not an act of love but a business and a necessary matter" it becomes disturbing as the implication now is that women are only to be used as baby making facilities and nothing more and this is actually seen in multiple cases across the paranormal world which includes NDEs and premonitions of the future where women are only seen making babies and these entities say how 'good' it is. (I talk about this more in this document:

"Suzanne Brown claims she was visited numerous times by a 5 ft alien with shoulder length blond hair who wore a skintight membrane suit. Originally the visits which began when she was just 12 were relaxed and even "loving", but by the time they ended she says she was terrified. According to Suzanne the creature communicated via telepathy, he called himself Myriko. At one point she was taken onboard a spaceship where she met other humans. A few months later and while home alone she began experiencing terrible pain from pressure in her lower abdomen. The pressure was crushing and becoming very painful, she then opened her eyes and Myriko confronted her. Telepathically, he told her not to worry that his people were merely taking what was theirs. She passed out and after waking up realized that her clothes were soaked with blood and it looked like she had suffered from a miscarriage. Her pregnancy appeared to have been terminated. Finally Myriko took her onboard a craft and showed her what appeared to be a nursery. There was an infant entity lying in a nearby cot, gray skinned and frail. It was apparently her child. Somehow she knew it was her child. Her final visitation was when she was 39-years old".

<https://web.archive.org/web/20051219132150/http://ufoinfo.com/humanoid/humanoid1980.shtml>

"Her guide, which she described as taller than normal, and with very blond fine hair, which was almost see through, he had a long face, with pale skin and there was something strange about his eyes. He wore a sort of overall, which he let the witness touch, it appeared to be a one piece outfit made out of very fine cloth... One of the halls visited was a type of recreation room where she was shown a three-dimensional film about, "where humans currently go with their untamed barbarism". This film mainly concentrated on showing her various tools that people throughout the ages invented for killing each other, and to illustrate to her the possible consequences of using the nuclear weapons accumulated presently by humans. She was also shown a separate hall, which could be called an "incubatory" which contained numerous shelves entirely loaded with large transparent cylinders connected to devices that imitate organs of mothers, apparently used to grow or create human-like replicas”.

While we're on the topic of human farming, another more subtle but still apparent aspect of what their views are towards us is the fact that they have asked many people in the past to erect temples in their names while they are disguised as holy figures like Mary, Jesus, “God”, etc so they can harvest the worship loosh energy from these people without them knowing. These EDs (Extra-Dimensionals) create “miracles” in order for people to fall in love and do service with them and they always do hook, line and sinker just as they're supposed to since we are made to be disposable slaves that act as both energetic and physical food for these creatures:

“During a terrible drought afflicting the region a group of Christian Indians decided to abandon the new religion and return to their old Gods. As they prepared a pagan rite suddenly they saw a “woman” that was floating over the earth's surface. The apparition told the Indians that if they build a temple where she was she would put an end to the famine. They did what the strange woman ordered and the famine ended. Interpreted as a Marian vision”.

“In the spring of 1500, a deaf-mute shepherd saw the Virgin who asked him to ask a priest for a church built in her honor”.

“On July 2, 1505, while watching his sheep, Alvar Simón Fernández saw the Virgin, radiant with light, and heard her say: “Go to the city; tell the bishop to come to this place and install in a decent place this image my Son wishes to appear here, for the good of this land.” The shepherd answered, “Señora, how will they believe it was you who sent me?” She asked for his slingshot, and with it launched a small stone, saying, “When the bishop sees this stone it will be so large that he will know I have sent you, and where you find the stone is where my Son and I want you to put the image.” The miraculously-located shrine was outside the city of León on the Camino de Santiago, the pilgrim road to Compostela, hence the title Virgin of the Road. The Virgen del Camino was declared Patron of the León region in 1914. The statue is a 33" wooden Pietà, which the basilica's website dates to 1514. Its coronation, which Pope Benedict XI authorized in 1917, was carried out on October 19, 1930. The large, modern sanctuary completed in 1961 houses the statue in its retablo of the 1700s. The Virgin of the Road is honored on September 15, feast of Our Lady of Sorrows”.

“The Mother of Jesus appeared to a pious old man with 20 years recited every day S. Rosary and knelt in front of a happy “Capital” of the Virgin Mary, located at the intersection of the roads for Motta, Oderzo and Redigole. Early in the morning of March 9 the Cigana, going to work, he stopped there to pray, and then continued on his way. But soon he stopped, struck by a marvelous vision: sitting quietly on the green wheat in a field, there was a beautiful young girl, dressed in white. Between the old and amazed the mysterious girl, he played a simple and friendly dialogue, then when the Cigana knew it was the Holy Virgin, fell to his knees, as if shot and sat in silence. So in the fresh morning sounded the voice of Madonna full of sadness and pity. She ordered Cigana to fast with the family for three Saturdays and preach fasting and repentance to all the people of Motta and the towns and villages of the land trevisana: Who had fasted with true repentance, he would have received mercy and forgiveness from the Lord, angry for too many sins of the people. To then leave an indelible memory of his beloved land of apparitions in Motta, the Virgin ordered that in that place was to be built a church”.

“Mary appeared on the mountain Skalnica, now called the Holy Mountain, in the year 1539 to the shepherdess Ursula Ferligoj, with this message: “Tell the people that I build a temple over here and come and ask me thank you.”... The fact immediately attracted crowds of people on the mountain Skalnica, this hallowed place that quickly became one of the most visited places of pilgrimage, where was built the first wooden chapel to pay homage to the Virgin Mary”.

Now that we’ve gone through all of the examples showcasing how aliens view us as mere prey animals to be eaten and harvested, I figured that I’d end this off with one final case involving an alien talking about how souls are trapped on Earth thanks to an event that happened thousands of years ago and how “God” punished them and sent “Fire Purifiers” to reset Earth:

“During the late part of the winter of 1974, the witness began to have a series of unusual dreams about silver colored eagles. From out of the void and darkness of the dream state; suddenly emerged four eagles. Each eagle came in from a different cardinal point at approximately the same time and correspondingly formed a circular flying pattern. After flying in a circle for a considerable amount of time, they then departed and eventually flew out of sight. He had the same dream on three separate occasions but on the fourth occasion the content of the dream changed: There was a dark void, then suddenly a strong humming noise, and then the appearance of each eagle as it emerged from the east, the south, the north and the west. They all flew in a circle but began to change form. In the place of the eagles appeared four silver colored discs. The four discs then merged into one very large silver colored flying saucer. All of the dreams were accompanied by a tremendous humming sound, and although he was asleep in each situation, he would feel his entire body vibrate to the point that it became unbearable, He would awake from the dreams shaking, bewildered and dizzy...

The night was beautifully clear. The therapeutic sounds of nature eventually made him feel relaxed enough to sleep, so he went to bed, hoping to dismiss his feelings as simply symptoms of overwork. After a while the dream started again. First the eagles came in from the four sacred directions then they turned into round silver discs. As the humming and vibration became more intense, he heard a strong voice say to him, “Get ready my son, it is time to go.” “Who are you?” He mentally responded in defiance, “Why do you torment me so much?” Suddenly he found himself standing next to his bed and he felt compelled to walk into the front room. Some unknown force was pulling him against his will, and someone, or something was telepathically trying to communicate with him. Again he heard a voice, "You are one of us and you have much to learn. Come forward my son, it is time to go." Outside the large window hovered a huge, silver, disc- shaped vehicle approximately forty five feet in diameter. Soft blue lights pulsed on it in a hypnotic fashion, he felt as though he was in a trance. This object was pulling him closer and closer and he couldn't seem to get away. He also felt a burning sensation on his skin. In the next instant, a beam of white light hit him, and he unexpectedly found himself transported into another room. As he looked around in bewilderment, he could see only flashing colors of red, blue, green, violet and gold. The entire room pulsed with vibration and a profound humming sound. He tried looking around, he remembers seeing scientific and computer equipment which appeared to be built into the walls...

He noticed a peculiar bubble of blue light, almost translucent, cover an area in diameter from Crescent City to Eureka. It radiated all the way past the Hoopa Indian Reservation to the Mount Shasta region. As they ascended higher into the cosmos, he could see numerous geographical areas on the continent which had a similar blue glow emanating from the land. Pennsylvania, the Great Lakes, and a very large glow emanated from the Four Corners of Arizona- New Mexico, and still another located somewhere above Vancouver, Canada. Since they were traveling so fast, he could barely get a glimpse of the other "blue glow sections" in central Mexico and various parts of South America. The strongest one, however, seemed to radiate from off the eastern coastline somewhere in the Atlantic Ocean. He gradually built up enough courage to ask the occupants of this craft, what the blue glow sections indicated. They replied that such areas were "power centers." Spiritual high energy fields that could be seen radiating from Earth to beings in outer space. The power centers were some sort of landmarks. When he questioned them further about these phenomena, they simply replied that he was not scientifically advanced enough to understand. "For right now be content to think of these places as power centers," they responded.

He was then ordered to have a seat and "prepare for my indoctrination." The chair and the table where he sat were transparent... He believes it was a substance of energy designed to simulate matter. Directly in front of him, approximately 30 feet away, was another large table. He could barely see the four human-like beings because they were shadowed by radiant colors. The one person in the middle told him to look at the "screen" on his right, and then his "lessons" began. What he saw and learned during that period was incredible.

Some of the highlights of the "lesson" were that the planet Earth was created by a Supreme Being whose energetic thoughts started a solar explosion. With the help of spirit beings he made gaseous oxygen, the oceans, land masses, vegetation and eventually all animal, bird, reptile and insect-like forms. When the Creator left, the world was full of spirits but devoid of human life as we know it. After a period of time a large group of "souls" migrated to our planet in search of adventure and new experiences. They wanted to imitate the Great Creator so they commenced to inhabit the bodies of various animals. As punishment for breaking the law, the Great Creator then took away some of their power. This caused the souls to become trapped in a "physical" body. But the souls still had enough knowledge and power to experiment with their new shape, and as a result started changing their new physical life forms.

A second group of “souls” were sent to the Earth, by the Great Creator, to guide, teach and assist the new entities. This second group of souls remained in spirit form and has been here since the beginning. By a process of evolution, the new entities changed their colors and form according to geographical influence. In time they evolved as four races of mankind. These original people learned how to fully utilize their psychic powers as a means to create buildings, vehicles, tools, scientific equipment and even weapons. They developed fantastic cities in the Earth, on the land, and in the oceans. Each of the four different races had similar religions, customs, knowledge, and powers. Their ceremonies centered on worship of the Sun, and they drew upon the Sun for all of their psychic, physical and cultural needs. Some groups became highly developed while other groups remained animal-like and retarded in mental/spiritual growth. Eventually the various groups misused their powers and the forces of nature, such as the weather, against each other. Consequently the Earth raged with turbulence and soon mass destruction followed. The first human races were heading toward self-annihilation and the Creator became saddened by these acts. He sent the “Fire Purifiers” to purify the Earth. Those who managed to survive the purification fled to other solar systems, journeyed deep into the bowels of the Earth, or scattered to high mountains, forests, and deserts. Other groups became deformed, subhuman, mutants, or perished. Only the most holy from each racial group were spared the cosmic destruction, and they made every effort to avoid contact with the less developed and/or humans of a different color”.

As you can see in this case, the aliens showed this person that “God” as it were created Earth and deliberately trapped souls on Earth for ‘disobeying the law’ and sent some more souls to Earth to ‘guide’ the trapped souls into becoming more advanced but they started using the knowledge for malignant means and “God” decided in its infinite wisdom and kindness to ‘sadly’ commence a global genocide that killed everyone except for those that were ‘holy’ enough. Again like I’ve been repeating throughout this post, this is something that I’ve talked about before where the archons are planning a global genocide and are gonna save the “chosen ones” in a mass reset. Why would an all-knowing supreme being trap souls on Earth for “breaking the law”? That’s just torture and inadvertently confirms this planet is a prison and also shows that this so called “supreme being” (Demiurge Yaldabaoth) isn’t as kind as it is made out to be since if it’s all knowing then it should’ve known that all of this would happen and still did it anyways which shows a much more darker intention by this being to purposely trap souls in the physical world and brainwash them into accepting his laws.
