Doosan, which has won two consecutive games, is tied for first place.

Doosan, which won the last postseason ticket last year by ranking fifth in the regular league, is looking higher this year.

Doosan's starting pitcher Lee Young-ha became the winning pitcher by pitching three innings, one hit and two walks without allowing any runs. The second pitcher Kim Dong-ju pitched three innings, allowing two hits and one run, laying the groundwork for his victory.

Closer Jung Chul-won took the mound in the top of the ninth inning and reported his first save with one scoreless inning.

Doosan leadoff Jung Soo-bin played one hit, one RBI, and one run in two at-bats, and Park Joon-young led the victory with one hit, one walk, and two runs in two at-bats.

Kiwoom starter Cho Young-gun suffered a loss with three hits and two runs (one earned run) in three innings.

Kiwoom's lineup was empty-handed with four hits.

Doosan had a chance with leadoff hitter Jung Soo-bin's walk and stolen base in the bottom of the first inning. Later, Kim Jae-hwan's fly ball to left field took advantage of Kiwoom's Joo Sung-won's miss to score the first run.

Having taken the lead, Doosan had a chance to secure the third base with two outs by combining Park Joon-young's double and the opponent's error in the second inning. Soon after, Jung Soo-bin hit a double to make it 2-0.

Kiwoom, which launched a counterattack, had a chance in the top of the sixth inning with consecutive hits by leadoff batters Lee Jae-sang and Park Soo-jong. Later, Choi Joo-hwan's sacrifice fly with one out and runners on the second and third bases recovered one run.

However, Doosan had a chance to secure the first and second bases with one out after leadoff hitter Park Joon-young made an error in the seventh inning. Thanks to Cho Soo-haeng's timely hit, the team ran away 3-1.

Doosan defeated its opponent's willingness to chase after Choi Jong-in, Park Chi-guk and Jung Chul-won each showed one scoreless inning.

Kiwoom had a chance to load the bases with one out in the eighth inning, but unfortunately fell to the knee when Lee Hyung-jong's double play came out.
