Wait, Whaaattt?

Over the course of two weeks, write down five terms with which you are unfamiliar. These cannot be vocabulary terms assigned or defined in other classes. You must go beyond what is presented in class. Use whatever resources you like to fill in the table.

	Word/Phrase	Context in which you found word	1)definition or identification 2)synonym	Form of Speech <small>noun, proper noun, adjective, verb, adverb</small>
ex	obfuscated	article in history class: "historians obfuscated the original meaning of the text"	1) to make unclear or obscure 2) confuse, complicate	verb, past tense
ex	Nikola Tesla	referenced while watching Myth Busters	Serbian American electrical engineer, physicist who created AC (alternating current) electrical system	proper noun
