

Aiea High School
Early College Fall 2024
Music 107

MUS 107: Music in World Cultures (3 credit course)

Folk, popular, and art music from major regions of the world, with emphasis upon Asia and the Pacific; representative styles and regional characteristics.

Note: this course is a dual credit course. Students will be able to also earn a high school elective credit. Students are also responsible for textbook costs. PRIORITY WILL BE GIVEN TO INCOMING FRESHMEN, CLASS OF 2028

Tuesday                2:00 - 3:15 pm

Thursday              2:00 - 3:15 pm

Place: Live, face to face on Aiea High School campus. Classroom will be room A-2.

Instructor: Mark Minasian

Aiea High School
Early College Fall 2024
Music 107

The course follows the Leeward Community College calendar.

- August 27, 2024: First day of instruction
- December 10, 2024: Last day of instruction

The following are LCC holidays that will align with the DOE holiday schedule.

- Election Day: Tuesday, November 5, 2024
- Thanksgiving Day: Thursday, November 28, 2024
- The University of Hawaii system schools do not observe the DOE fall break (October 7 - 11). Classes will still be held.