1) Below, write your first name and last initial in bold.

Mr. Zeller

2) Underneath here, edit and add at least one sentence to this story. (Appropriate language only. Remember, I can see who wrote which sentences.)

I got to Overbrook early one morning, went through the scanners, and got to my advisory on time. I knew it was going to be a good day. But when I opened up my book bag there was a problem, there was nothing in it.

Early one morning , while going into Overbrook highschool and I went right through the scanners. Then I went straight to my advisory and ended up there on time there on time. But once I sat down , I opened my bookbag and noticed there was nothing there.
