

Discussion and Case Study Rubrics

Discussion Rubric

Criteria	Needs Improvement	Proficient	Exemplary
Initial Post	Initial post does not address all parts of prompt and/or does not use course materials to support answers with proper citation. AND/OR Initial post does not demonstrate a proficient understanding of concepts and application to practice. AND/OR Initial post does not respect classroom guidelines.	Initial post addresses all parts of the prompt, using course materials to support answers with proper citation. Initial post demonstrates proficient understanding of concepts and application to practice.	Initial post addresses all parts of the prompt, using course materials to support answers with proper citation. Initial post demonstrates exemplary understanding of concepts and application to practice, providing original insight to the discussion.
Response Posts to Peers	Missing one or more required response posts and/or one or more response posts do not pose an insightful question or build upon classmates' ideas to develop the conversation. AND/OR Initial post does not respect classroom	All required responses are present, posing insightful questions and/or building upon classmates' ideas to develop the conversation.	All required responses are present, posing insightful questions and/or building upon classmates' ideas in ways that yield new insight for all participants. guidelines.

--	-------------	--	--

Case Study Rubric

Criteria	Needs Improvement	Proficient	Exemplary
Content Knowledge	Student response does not demonstrate an understanding of concepts and application to practice.	Student response demonstrates proficient understanding of concepts and application to practice.	Student response demonstrates exemplary understanding of concepts and application to practice, providing original insight to the assignment topic(s).
Supporting Evidence	Student response does not use course materials to support answers.	Student response uses course materials to support most answers.	Student response uses course materials to support all answers.
Citation	Student response does not use the correct citation format.	Student response mostly uses the correct citation format.	Student response uses the correct citation format.