

Native American Crafts

Instructor: Sandy Churchill

Tuesdays– 9/16, 9/23, 9/30, 10/7, 10/14

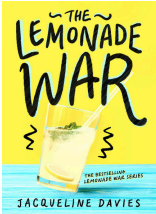

Join us to celebrate the amazing cultures of Native American tribes and enter into the creative world of art, music, shelter, beadwork, and more! Make your own miniature tipi, sand painting, story cloth, and other treasures!

Book Club!

Instructor: Jennifer Enos

Tuesdays– 9/16, 9/23, 9/30, 10/7, 10/14

Calling all reading fanatics! Whether you can read independently or thoroughly enjoy listening to a good book, you are welcome to join this book club as we read The Lemonade War by Jacqueline Davies. Each student will receive a copy of the book as we share the story together, commit to reading at home, and play games as we dive into the story's elements.

Let's Get Messy With Paper Mache

Instructors: Karen Alves and Amanda Higginbottom

Thursdays– 9/18, 9/25, 10/2, 10/9, 10/16

Ready to get messy? In this class we will use paper mache (water, flour and paper strips) to create fun crafts! Weeks 1-3 we'll be creating things like planets, ornaments, etc. and weeks 4&5 we'll be painting our dried creations. Let's roll up our sleeves and have some fun!!

Sew Fabulous!

Instructor: Sandy Churchill

Fridays– 9/19, 9/26, 10/3, 10/10, 10/17

Come join us to stitch your own needle book, fabric bookmark, and scissors holder! Use the whip stitch, running stitch and other skills to sew and embellish your very own projects that you can keep or give as presents!

Crafty Kids!

Instructor: Jennifer Enos

Fridays– 9/19, 9/26, 10/3, 10/10, 10/17

Paints, glue, tissue paper, twine, rocks...the materials are endless! Join this class to create beautiful projects you can proudly put on display around your house or gift to a loved one. We will potentially make small paper lanterns, twine trees with ornaments, painted rock tic-tac-toe games, a wood project, and/or coasters.

The fee for each five-week course is $85. Payment can be made via Venmo (@Sandy-Churchill-1) or by check made out to Sandy Churchill, dropped off in the main office.
