Toasts: Please provide the names and title (ex: Parent of the newlywed John Doe) of anyone who will be speaking, in the order in which they will speak. Toasts work best during dinner. If you plan on doing one, the Newlywed "Thank You" toast works best last.

Name	Father of the Bride, Bryan Craig - Post Dinner

Name	Best Man, Kyle Weinstein - Post Dinner
Name	Maid of Honor, Anna Lindquist - Post Dinner
Name	Hunter - pre- parent dance toast to his mom (in between our first dance and parent dance)

First Dance: We recommend going into your first dance after the grand entrance. Examples

First Dance Song	Song	You've Got Me Running in Circles (1.15x speed)	Artist	Sonny Cleveland
------------------	------	---	--------	-----------------

First Dance Notes: How long does it last? Choreographed Dance? Specific Start or End times?

First Dance will follow Toasts post-dinner, light choreography - Hunter & Katie need to be standing at opposite ends of dance floor ready to go before song starts

Play 0:00 - 1:10/1:12ish (we're aiming to finish the dance before the second verse, but in case run a little long, our dance is finished when we start walking off!)

Parent Dances: We recommend dancing long enough for a good memory and some good pictures. Parent Dance Examples 1 & Parent Dance Example 2

Parent Dance 1 (Insert Names)	Song	Dancing in the Moonlight	Artist	Toploader
Notes: Hunter will give a toast to his mom before the dance begins. This will be an "all parent" dance, rotating between Katie & Hunter and their parents. Start song: 0:08 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Katie + Dad 2. Hunter + Stepmom 3. Katie + Hunter's Dad 4. Hunter + Katie's Mom End song: 2:40ish (when chorus starts to breakdown, fade out)

First Dance Set: It's party time! It's usually best to kick off the dance party right after parent dances. If there are no parent dances, then best right after a "Thank you" from the newlyweds. Best to think of dancing as two "Sets." To start, we like to play stuff that gets everyone on the dance floor. Please list your must play, do not play, or if you have a Spotify list, copy the link below.
