PENTAXIM (SANOFI PASTEUR, S.A., FRANCE)

Pentaxim is a vaccine that is used for primary immunization and revaccination for children from 2 months to 6 years.

The 5-component Pentaxim v	accine includes:
☐ diphtheria toxoid;
□ tetanus toxoid;
□ pertussis toxoid;
☐ inactivated poliovirus;
☐ Heamophilus influenza	type B polysaccharides.
The Pentaxim vaccine is all meningococcal vaccines and is	owed to be given with MMR, pneumococcal, rotavirus administered intramuscularly.	and

The most common side effects:

- redness and induration at the injection site;
- loss of appetite;
- sleep disturbance;
- tearfulness and irritability;
- fever;
- diarrhea and vomiting.

Contraindications:

- hypersensitivity to the constituent components of the vaccine;
- anaphylactic reaction to a vaccine in the past;
- epilepsy, encephalopathy;
- exacerbation of chronic diseases, including allergic reactions;
- Acute respiratory infection, fever.