

NICKI JOINER

BIO

Please do not use this as Nicki's speaker introduction
(here's her speaker introduction)

- Corporate Recruiter at a Fortune 100 Company
- Master's Degree in Student Affairs
- Career Development Exper

Nicki is an engaging and impactful speaker who equips students with the tools to confidently navigate their career paths. With a background in corporate recruiting and a Master's degree in Student Affairs, she brings a unique blend of industry insight and higher education expertise to every talk. Nicki's sessions cover résumé building, job search strategy, networking, and LinkedIn optimization, offering students practical skills they can apply immediately.

Having spoken at organizations like NASA, Girls Inc., and Meeting Professionals International, as well as at over sixty colleges and universities across North America, Nicki's presentations resonate with diverse student audiences. Known for her relatable style and hands-on approach, she simplifies complex career topics, empowering students to turn their aspirations into achievable goals.

Nicki holds dual degrees and additional certifications, leveraging her award-winning entrepreneurial background to create powerful learning experiences. She's been described as bold, knowledgeable, and inspiring, with a rare ability to connect with her audience.

In her downtime, Nicki enjoys dancing, volunteering, and connecting with her community—a constant reminder of the mentors and supporters who have shaped her journey as a speaker and career expert.

Learn more at: TopYouthSpeakers.com