

PARTNERSHIP FOR HIGHER EDUCATION REFORM – PHER

Instructor Intro Video Questions

To promote social presence - the sense that the instructor is a real person, interested in promoting relationship with and between students for the sake of supporting learning – create a video of yourself answering the questions below. The video can then be added to your course.

- 1 Talk about your passion for your field. How did you get interested in your field?
- 2 Why should students be interested in this program or field?
- 3 Explain briefly about your education and work experience that relates to the courses you teach
- 4 If relevant, share any other scholarship, writing, presenting, creative works, etc. that relate to your field.
- 5 What is your teaching philosophy?
- 6 Why do you teach for your university or what do you like about teaching for your university?
- 7 Share whatever you like about your personal life, such as your family, hobbies, side interests, etc
- 8 Sign-off/closing message: To help wrap up the video, give a closing message such as: I'll see you in class, I look forward to working with you, etc.
