The White Gaze, Toni Morrison

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SHHHL31bFPA>

"Our lives have no meaning, no depth without the white gaze. And I have spent my entire writing life trying to make sure that the white gaze was not the dominant one in any of my books." Essentially every book (everything in society?) is written for a white audience...

Do Irving's exercise individually (5 min). Where are you--generally--on the continuum? What circumstances move you one way or another?

In small groups (15min): Discuss your continuum. Where do you see white supremacy culture in your own home/in your own life? Where do you see white supremacy culture in your school/institution/workplace?

How might it benefit everyone in your school/institution/workplace if the continuum shifted away from dominant white culture?

Share out observations in large group (5 min)

3. Small groups/partners (10 min):

Where do we go from here? AWARE group, use this workshop elsewhere, book club, change curriculum, change classroom decor, etc. Talk in small groups again. Share your action plan and help each other in small groups.

4. Large group Share out action plan--how can we help each other? (10 min)

5. Email your action plan to me. Let me know how I/we can help. Accountability.

6. FB group?
